

CRIPPLED FIEND READS MURDER PLOTS IN SKIES;
TWO LADS ARE CATSPAWS IN LONG ROLL OF DOOM

Muscle Shoals Sale Develops Hot Quarrel

FORD RECKLESS WITH ASSERTIONS;
DECLARES WEEKS

Intimates That Manufacturer's Information on Gorgas Sale May Be Second-Hand.

SECRETARY DECLINES
FURTHER CONTROVERSY

Confines Comment on Criticism to a Formal Statement Giving History of Shoals.

UPSHAW PLEASED WITH FORD'S SPUNK

Washington, October 12.—That congress when it meets in December will enter upon a discussion of Ford's statement was evidenced today in a telegram sent Mr. Ford by Representative Upshaw, democrat, Georgia, congratulating him on his "spunky, pulverizing statement" on the action of the secretary of war.

Washington, October 12.—Secretary Weeks, in replying today to a statement by Henry Ford concerning the sale of the Gorgas steam plant of Muscle Shoals project, said the Detroitist last night when Mr. Weeks "filled with reckless assertions."

The secretary of war issued his statement late in the day after conferences at the white house. It was brought out by Mr. Ford's assertions in Detroit last night in Mr. Weeks' actions and motives were placed under fire.

Secretary Weeks would not comment upon Mr. Ford's statement beyond issuing his own formal reply. There was every indication, however, that Mr. Weeks felt great indignation at the personal nature of the Detroit manufacturer's charges and implications against him. During the day Mr. Weeks twice discussed the situation with President Coolidge—the last time after he had prepared his answer which he carried with him to the white house just before it was made public.

The full text of Secretary Weeks' statement follows:

Score Ford.
"Mr. Ford this morning delivered a personal attack upon me in connection with the conduct of the administration in relation to Muscle Shoals. His statement is filled with reckless assertions.

"It may be that Mr. Ford, relying as he does upon other persons in the Likewise thousands of men in Atlanta use Constitution Want Ads naturally. Experience has taught them that these handy little sales messengers can and do render quick service.

You can test this for yourself very easily. When you have a want of some kind, call MAIN 5000 and ask for the Want Ad Department.

"Atlanta's Best Want Ad Service"

JAPAN BORROWS
PRESSES TO PRINT
MONEY FROM U. S.

Washington, October 12.—Informed that the Japanese government suffered the loss of the printing presses in its plant in the recent earthquake, President Coolidge and his cabinet today considered the extension of assistance either through the loan of presses from the government printing office in Washington or through information as to American concerns from which the Japanese could quickly obtain new ones.

Some of the presses destroyed by the earthquake were those used by the Japanese government in the printing of its currency, and as a special type is used for that purpose the American government may loan to the Japanese a number of hand presses in its possession, but not in use by reason of having been superseded by power presses.

WALTON SPLITS
WITH CHIEF AIDE;
FIRES TWO MEN

Aldridge Blake Removed by Governor in Short Terse Note to Attorney General.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
Oklahoma City, Okla., October 12.—Aldridge Blake, the executive counselor and Dr. E. T. Bynum, state bank commissioner, were removed from office tonight by Governor J. C. Walton. Dr. Bynum's administration has been "entirely unsatisfactory," the executive declared in a communication to the bank commissioner.

No explanation was given of Blake's removal.

It was understood, however, that the executive counselor had broken with Governor Walton over the latter's recent policies, particularly with regard to his military activities against the Ku Klux Klan.

Blake told the Associated Press that he should go tonight before a special investigating committee appointed by the lower house of the state legislature to inquire into impeachment charges against the governor. He declined to make known his purpose and likewise would make no statement as to his removal.

He declared he would "have something to say tomorrow."

Dr. Bynum is before the legislative investigating committee now members of his family told the Associated Press when an effort was made to locate him for a statement.

The removal orders were issued this evening after an all-day conference at the governor's office participated in by Blake, the governor, and a number of the latter's political advisers. It was not known whether Dr. Bynum was one of the conferees.

In making public the orders at the executive mansion, Governor Walton refused to comment, declaring the documents "speak for themselves."

The order for Dr. Bynum, addressed to the bank commissioner, said:

Notes to the Point.
"This is to notify you that you are removed from the office of bank commissioner of the state of Oklahoma, effective this date, October 12, 1923."

"My reasons for this action are principally as follows: First, that your administration of that office has been entirely unsatisfactory, and second, I do not believe that my administration of the duties of my office can be effective unless my appointees in the more important offices, of which this is one of the highest, are in harmony with my purposes and loyal to my policies.

(Signed.) J. C. WALTON,
Governor."

Blake's removal was directed in an executive order to the attorney general, which said:

"This is to advise you that I will not need the services of Mr. Aldridge

Continued on Page 7, Column 4.

SKULL FRACTURED,
CHILD FOUND DEAD
BY RAILROAD MEN

Atlanta and West Point Officials Say They Have No Report of Accident During Day.

CHILD MEETS DEATH
NOT FAR FROM HOME

Relatives Believe That She Was Hit by Inbound Train While Playing on Tracks.

With her skull fractured and both legs broken, Velma Denton, a two-year-old girl of Waits Crossing, was found dead alongside the Atlanta and West Point railroad tracks, not more than 200 yards from her home early Friday afternoon.

The lifeless body was first noticed by the crew of an out-bound train from Atlanta, who reported their find to railroad officials. An exhaustive investigation of the case is now being made.

Despite a careful investigation and a questioning of all nearby residents, West Point officials reported Friday night that not a single eye-witness to the accident had been discovered, so that no further light could be shed on the way in which the little girl met her death.

No report of a railroad accident was made during the day, it is said.

Relatives, however, expressed the belief that the little girl had been struck by the inbound train while playing on the tracks. The crew of the inbound train reported that they had not seen the body of the little girl on the tracks when they passed the spot where it was found.

The inbound train reached Atlanta at 2:30 o'clock and had passed the out-bound train in the vicinity of Waits Crossing a few minutes before that time.

Velma is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Denton. She is also survived by one sister, Frances Denton. The body was taken to the undertaking establishment of A. C. Hemperley.

Abandon Hopes
For 30 Seamen
Lost on Tanker

Crew of City of Everett Believed Drowned After Storm.

Key West, Fla., October 12.—Hope virtually had been abandoned tonight that any members of the crew of 30 men of the City of Everett, survived long after the tanker sank stern first early yesterday about 150 miles west of Tortugas in a stormy sea. Tortugas is between Key West and Cuba.

Search for the life boats, begun after the Everett flashed an SOS call and stated she was sinking, had been abandoned tonight with the exception that the coast guard cutter Sauksee has been ordered to make a further search.

The opinion here tonight was that the attempt of the crew to launch the life boats in the heavy seas proved unsuccessful and that all of the members perished shortly after the last call for help was sent out.

The Everett was owned by the British Molasses company, of New Orleans.

Session Ends Today.

Quitman, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—City court, which has been in session all the week, will probably conclude its jury session Saturday. The calendar has been confined entirely to civil business.

Continued on Page 7, Column 4.

BARKENTINE CREW,
LASHED TO DECK,
FOILS DEATH GOD

New York, October 12.—Lashed to ring bolts in the deck of the dismantled barkentine John S. Emery, of Boston, Captain E. M. Davis and his crew of nine drifted for three days through pounding seas before being picked up by the liner Samland which made port today.

For the last twelve hours on board the barkentine the crew was out of food. Only the lashings kept them from being washed overboard, as every wave passed over the stripped deck. When the storm subsided somewhat for a brief spell, the men distilled some water in an old copper kettle, lighting a fire with an emery wheel, cotton waste and gunpowder from a cartridge. When picked up the crew had almost no clothing left.

GERMANY ORDERS
GOLD STANDARD
IN TAX PAYMENT

Continuing Riots Bring Dictatorship Order Before Final Authorization by Reichstag.

Berlin, October 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The cabinet has decided not to await sanction by the Reichstag of the special measures authorizing dictatorial powers for the government in economic matters, and hence a decree was issued today, signed by President Ebert, Chancellor Stresemann and Finance Minister Luther, providing that henceforth all taxes shall be paid according to the gold standard, instead of in paper marks.

Other decrees looking to the rehabilitation to the country's finances will be issued regardless of whether or not the authorization law is passed by the reichstag tomorrow.

There have been minor disturbances in Berlin, Wiesbaden, Cologne and Solingen, due to the high prices of food.

The coal stocks in Berlin are so low that the burgomaster today informed the municipality that unless the government came to the rescue the gas supply would be endangered.

At a meeting of the Saxon diet today Premier Zeigner violently attacked Dr. von Kahr, the Bavarian military dictator, the German nationalist party and the big industrialists, accusing them of preparing for the suppression of the working classes. The premier declared the Saxon government would stand by the workers and fight to the utmost to preserve the unity of the reich.

GERMAN RIOTERS
STAY ON RAMPAGE

Duesseldorf, October 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The disorders which began last evening at Solingen, in British occupied territory, continued today, the casualty list now totalling eleven dead, including the commissary of police, and thirty-five wounded. Many stores have been pillaged. The British troops have not yet interfered. Other unemployed men are marching from Grunhof to help their comrades.

At Hoecht, where 2,000 unemployed besieged the city hall, the German police fired on the crowd, killing one and wounding ten others.

The pillaging also continued today at Cologne, and the police fired when the crowd stoned them.

FOOD RIOTS
AT CAPITAL.

Berlin, October 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Food riots occurred this morning in two of Berlin's densely populated sections where the population is without potatoes or meat. In both instances, according to the police, those responsible for the disorders were unemployed men, who were accompanied in their raids by many

Continued on Page 7, Column 3.

GOMPERS BRANDS
"BORERS" AS FOES
OF UNION LABOR

Wins Unanimous Re-Election as Head of American Federation of Convention.

ALL OTHER OFFICERS
ALSO ARE RETAINED

Central Motif of 43rd Annual Session Was Consistent Slaps at "Red" Invaders.

Portland, Ore., October 12.—Samuel Gompers, re-elected unanimously as president of the American Federation of Labor, just before adjournment of the forty-third annual convention here today, declared in his closing address, that the gathering had given notice that a cleavage had been made between those loyal to organized labor and those who, boring from within, had sought to stab the labor movement in the back.

"The results of this convention," he said, "will make for solidarity in the ranks of labor."

The convention came to an exciting close in a sharp contest for the next convention in which El Paso, Texas, won over Detroit, 14,588 to 12,584.

El Paso's claims were urged by George L. Berry, of New York, president of the Pressmen's union, who declared that by meeting at El Paso the federation would be of great help to organized labor in Mexico.

Vice-presidents were elected as follows: James Duncan, Quincy, Mass., first; Joseph E. Valentine, Cincinnati, second; Frank Duffy, Indianapolis, third; William Green, Indianapolis, fourth; T. A. Rickert, Chicago, fifth; Jacob Fischer, Indianapolis, sixth; Matthew Wolf, Chicago, seventh; Martin F. Ryan, Kansas City, eighth.

Frank Morrison, of Washington, was re-elected secretary, and Daniel J. Tobin, Indianapolis, treasurer.

President Gompers, in reviewing the convention's work, referred to the expulsion of William F. Dunne, delegate from New York.

Great Orchestra
Will Give Second
Concert Sunday

Special Arrangements Have Been Made to Handle Crowds at Howard.

BY RALPH T. JONES.
The second concert by Atlanta's Symphony orchestra will be given Sunday afternoon at the Howard theater. Following the tremendous success of the first concert widespread interest in this series of twelve weekly performances, to be given each Sunday this fall, has been expressed and arrangements have been made to perfect the manner in which the huge crowds will be handled.

The program for the second concert, as announced by Enrico Lieke, fully maintains the wonderful standard of interest set by the first concert. It is as follows:

Program Announced.
1. Wagner's "Lohengrin." Prelude to first act. Prelude to third act.
2. "Finnal's Cave," by Mendelssohn.
3. Symphonic poem, "Les Preludes," by Liszt.

Ten-minute intermission.
4. "The Deluge," by Saint-Saens.
5. Handel's "Largo."
6. "William Tell," by Rossini.

This program offers a variety of numbers of exceptional interest. With-

Continued on Page 7, Column 4.

ASK UTTERANCE
OF GEN. BARTOW
PUT IN GRANITE

Savannah Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—They have killed me, but never give up the fight," the dying words of General Francis S. Bartow, is a legend the Daughters of the Confederacy of Savannah have requested be engraved upon the Stone Mountain Confederate monument. Mrs. Robert J. Travis, secretary of the local chapter, has forwarded $1,000 to the Atlanta headquarters as "A Founders' Roll" donation with the request that the name of General Bartow, to whom a monument is standing in Savannah, be placed on that honor roll and that his dying words be engraved on the memorial. General Bartow fell at the first battle of Manassas.

SON OF PREACHER SOUGHT BY COPS
IN MURDER CASE

Mutilated Body of Pretty Department Store Executive Found by Her Girl Friend.

New York, October 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Police tonight broadcast descriptions of a man, believed to be the son of a Montreal minister, who occupied a furnished room in West 97th street, adjoining that of Miss Estelle Phillips, attractive department store executive, whose mutilated and almost nude body was found today on the floor near her bed.

While the search for the suspect was being made police assembled from bits of evidence in the room and on the body a connected story of the murder. They believe the assault was committed by a man who entered the room while Miss Phillips was asleep and strangled her before she could call for help.

A handbag containing four cents, found open at her feet, investigators think, was left by the murderer to give the appearance of robbery as the motive of the crime. A towel was knotted about the dead woman's throat and there were evidences of a desperate struggle.

Detectives said a man closely answering the description of the suspect was seen boarding a train for Montreal at the Grand Central station at 8:45 o'clock this morning. The man had identified himself to a fellow employee in an uptown hospital as the son of a Montreal clergyman, the police learned. He took the room in the 97th street house a week ago. Miss Phillips had lived there six years.

Miss Katherine Meltrina, friend of the murdered woman and an occupant of the same house, gave the best description of the suspect after she had found Miss Phillips dead when she entered the room to arouse her this morning. She said she was awakened shortly after midnight by "smothered, gurgling sounds" from the direction of Miss Phillips' room. Alarmed, she arose and lit the gas.

She said she heard steps in the hall a half hour later. Opening her door she peered out and saw the man starting down stairs. His room separated hers from Miss Phillips'. The man wore a cap, and carried a suitcase and an army overcoat on his arm, she said.

Curious at the hour of his departure, Miss Meltrina said she went to the window and watched him board a surface car. The man who boarded the Montreal train, beside answering the same person description, wore the same sort of clothes and cap and carried a suitcase and an army coat similar to that seen by Miss Meltrina.

HARVEY OBTAINS
"KING'S PLEASURE"

London, October 12.—The American embassy announced today that Ambassador George Harvey, "having obtained the king's pleasure," plans to leave England for home, the end of the present month.

BIG SOUTHEASTERN
FAIR WILL CLOSE
FOR SEASON TODAY

Exhibition Has Been the Most Brilliant Ever Given at Lakewood and Attendance Records Have Fallen.

GIRLS OF TATNALL
COUNTY WIN HONORS

Tribute Is Paid to George Betts—Editors of State Throng the Fair Grounds All Day Friday.

Saturday—Labor Day.
8 a. m.—Gates open.
9 a. m.—Midway opens.
1 p. m.—Auto races; Sig Haugdahl in attempt to lower all track records.
7:30 p. m.—Free hippodrome acts.

9 p. m.—Fireworks—Venetian carnival scene.
12 midnight—Fair closes.
To reach Lakewood Park take Washington-Luckie cars marked Lakewood. Also special cars leaving Pryor and Alabama streets. Best and most direct automobile route, straight out South Pryor street. Two entrances are now open for automobiles or South Pryor street.

Victory of Tattall, Gordon and Newton county girls in the statewide break-baking contest Friday ended competition for honors at the Southeastern fair and let down the bars for hundreds of contestants in all departments to forget the cares of ambition and to throw themselves into the whirl of gaiety that will mark the final day of the 423 fair today. Judging has ended but final awards will not be announced until this afternoon.

Friday night the fair had broken every record it has ever established, smashing attendance marks and setting new standards for excellence in agricultural, livestock and mechanical displays.

Tribute to George W. Betts by Governor Walker and unveiling of the Betts tablet, social events in honor of the Georgia editors, and the convention of Georgia bee-keepers were high points of Friday's myriad activities at Lakewood. The last horse races were run during the afternoon. Hippodrome acts and fireworks at night were other free entertainments for the hosts of fair visitors.

Final Events.
Automobile races Saturday afternoon, during which Sig Haugdahl, in his three-mile-a-minute Fiat car, and Fred Horey will compete for honors, more hippodrome acts and fireworks, the final showing of the Johnny Jones midway attractions, and the arts, sciences and agricultural displays will mark Saturday's activities.

This is "labor day," and from 8 o'clock in the morning, when the gates open, until 12 o'clock at night, when the final curtain falls and the final fiery burst of pyrotechnics has faded into a memory, thousands of Atlanta, Georgia and southern workmen and their families will throng the fair grounds. It is their day.

The bread-baking contest was the major event of Friday. Thirty Georgia girls, picked by community, county and district contests from among 3,000 original entrants, competed for the bread-baking championship of Georgia.

The Tattall county team, Daisy Scott, of Collins; Annie Ruth Sykes, of Cobbtown, and Mary Wells, of New York, are the winners.

Continued on Page 4, Column 5.

STAR LORE AIDS
SLEUTH TO READ
CODE OF HORROR

Arrest of Bed-Ridden Bluebeard Follows Confession of 16-Year-Old Nephew and Tool.

ARTHUR COVELL TYPED
FUTURE CRIME PLANS

Five Men, Two Women, Five Children Proscribed in Astral Symbols by Arch-Plotter.

BY UNITED NEWS.

Marshfield, Ore., October 12.—Charged by the authorities with having plotted a dozen diabolical murders under guidance of the stars, Arthur Covell, nationally-known bed-ridden astrologist, was under arrest here Friday night.

Covell is charged specifically with the murder of Mrs. Fred Covell, his sister-in-law, who was found dead September 4, apparently the victim of ammonia gas fumes which she had been forced to inhale, but the actual killing has been confessed by 16-year-old Alton Covell, stepson of the slain woman and nephew of Covell.

The astrologer's fiendish cunning, it is charged, led him to bring the nephew under a hypnotic control so strong as to force the latter to do his criminal bidding. Both now face charges of first degree murder.

Reports to Uncle.

The youth confessed that, obedient to his uncle's commands, which he claimed he was never able to withstand, he poured the ammonia on a rag and forced his step-mother to inhale it. Then, he says, he reported to the plotting, crippled uncle, as the latter lay on the bed where he had been confined for years, following an accident in which his back was broken.

It has been five weeks since the dead woman's body was found. Suicide was first believed to be the cause of her death. Subsequent investigation resulted in the arrest of her husband, Dr. Fred Covell, who was released Friday following the confession of the boy.

Luke S. May, Seattle criminologist, who conducted the investigation resulting in Arthur Covell's arrest, revealed details of the man's alleged scheming.

Such diabolical activities, depicted on a motion picture screen or detailed in a novel, would be scoffed at as impossible, but May claims to have records and charts, which Covell kept complete, to prove his solution of the mystery.

Murder plots to cover years are said to have been worked out by the cripple as he lay on his back, reading the stars and taking his dictates from them. Everything was planned to the minutest detail, and every plan was set out in one of the many books he kept, written in code, according to May, and a series of astrological symbols, with which Covell had replaced the regular letters on his typewriter. were used in detailing the crimes and coding his plans.

Young Covell and Byron Enoch, a son of the murdered Mrs. Covell by

Continued on Page 4, Column 4.

The Weather
FAIR

Washington—Forecast:
Georgia—Fair Saturday and Sunday; little change in temperature; gentle winds, mostly northeast and east.

Local Weather Report.
Highest temperature 81
Lowest temperature 59
Mean temperature 70
Normal temperature 65
Rainfall in past 24 hours, ins.00
Deficiency since 1st of month, ins.84
Deficiency since January 1, ins.138

T. a. m. N. 7 p. m.

Dry temperature 63 70 74
Wet bulb 51 58 66
Relative humidity 39 30 32

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.

STATIONS	TEMPERATURE	RAIN
AND STATE OF WEATHER	(p. m.)	(inches)
ATLANTA, clear	74 81 .00
Birmingham, clear	72 81 .00
Boston, clear	58 60 .00
Buffalo, clear	70 80 .00
Charleston, clear	68 74 .00
Chicago, cloudy	72 76 .00
Detroit, snow	34 34 .28
Des Moines, rain	52 63 .14
Galveston, pt. cloudy	76 82 .00
Hatteras, pt. cloudy	68 68 .00
Havre, pt. cloudy	48 52 .00
Jacksonville, cloudy	72 70 .00
Kansas City, rain	52 60 .68
Montgomery, clear	74 80 .00
Silamsi, clear	78 80 .00
Mobile, clear	74 82 .00
Montgomery, clear	74 80 .00
New Orleans, clear	74 80 .00
New York, pt. cloudy	58 64 .00
North Platte, cloudy	46 52 .00
Phoenix, clear	78 88 .00
Pittsburg, pt. cloudy	68 80 .00
San Francisco, clear	74 78 .00
St. Louis, clear	70 78 .00
Salt Lake City, clear	52 54 .00
Shreveport, clear	72 78 .00
Toledo, clear	58 62 .00
Vicksburg, clear	74 84 .00
Washington, clear	66 72 .00

G. F. von HERRMANN
Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

Untangled: The Twelve Greatest Mysteries in American Crime

WHO murdered Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills? How was Elwell shot in his apartment? What was the motive for the assassination of Desmond Taylor in Los Angeles? Was Dorothy Arnold forcibly kidnapped, or did she voluntarily disappear? Which "mystery," given up as unsolvable, is really no mystery at all? The police have no answer. On the blotters, lack of evidence obvious enough to convince a jury has caused these cases to be listed as "unfinished."

The great mystery, the disappearance of Dorothy Arnold, will be analyzed by Sir Basil Thomson, ex-Director in Scotland Yard, as one of a series of twelve articles which The Constitution Magazine will publish every Sunday beginning tomorrow. The world's best-known criminologist and detective will give his opinion of what happened, and how and by whom these mysterious crimes were perpetrated. He untangles the evidence with amazing frankness.

Exclusively in THE CONSTITUTION'S MAGAZINE TOMORROW

Puzzle
WinnersPrinted
Here
ROGERS
Where Satisfaction is a certainty

Puzzle Winners

Our advertising department wishes to thank the thousands of friends who sent in replies to our puzzle as printed in The Journal and Constitution last Friday and Saturday. We were completely swamped with replies and had to call in a committee from the newspapers to select the winners. Their report is as follows:

We, the judges asked to select the prize winners, wish to report as follows:

First Prize—S. Clyde Pitts, 79-A West Harris St., Atlanta
Second Prize—Mrs. W. H. Pickett, Jr., 141 W. Fifth St., Atlanta
Third Prize—Mrs. F. W. Cate, care Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBois Co., Atlanta
Fourth Prize—Mrs. J. H. Simpson, 15 Egleston St., Atlanta
Fifth Prize—Mrs. B. W. Hensley, 250 Oak St., Atlanta
Sixth Prize—Mrs. Neil Glass, 103 Harvard Ave., LaGrange
Seventh Prize—Mrs. Wade Grant, 184 Park Ave., Atlanta
Eighth Prize—Dorothy Pascoe, 303 St. Charles Ave., Atlanta
Ninth Prize—Mrs. Will H. Dean, 304 Lawrence St., Marietta

There were a large number of contestants, but all answers were given careful consideration. In the replies were included not only some excellent essays, but they were combined with some real works of art in pasting the picture together. The correct title is: "Yes, We Have No Bananas."

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK POWELL, of The Journal
LORENZO JONES, JR., of The Constitution.
Orders for groceries to the winners will be mailed not later than Monday.

Saturday Specials

Fancy Tokay Grapes
12 1/2c pound

Another car of fine

Malaga Grapes
10c pound

New York State

Seckle Pears

An unusually mellow and juicy eating pear
10 cents dozen

3 dozen 25c

Another carload of

Idaho Prunes

10 cents dozen

3 dozen 25c

Nice, tender, well-bleached

Colorado Celery

10c Stalk

Canadian Rutabagas

5 pounds 13c

FLOUR

WHITE LILY, SUPERLATIVE PATENT

12-pound sack 63c
24-pound sack $1.20

WHITE LILY, SELF-RISING

12-pound sack 68c
24-pound sack $1.25

ROGERS
Where Satisfaction is a certainty

Meat for Health

DISHES MADE FROM THE RUMP OF BEEF.

Beef a la Mode—Allow 1-2 pound of firm salt pork for a compact chuck or rump roast of about 5 pounds. Cut the pork into small strips and roll in a mixture of one teaspoonful each of ground cloves, allspice, cinnamon, black pepper, summer savory, thyme and salt. Make deep cuts in the beef with a sharp knife, and force the strips of pork into the cuts or else run the pork in with a larding needle. Cover the surface of the meat with the balance of the spices and place it in a deep earthen dish. To 1 1/2 cups of vinegar, add two bay leaves, a bit of mace, some chopped parsley and onion; scald, and when cool, pour this sauce over the meat, which should then be tightly covered and set aside in a cool place. It should be turned morning and night for several days and then boiling water added to barely cover. Let it simmer for four hours or more. The liquid may then be thickened and strained and served with the meat, which will be very dark in appearance but most savory in flavor. Potato pancakes may be served with this dish.

Smothered Beef—Three pounds of rump or clod, 3 large onions sliced, 3 tablespoons oil or drippings, 2 tablespoons mild prepared mustard, flour mixed with salt and pepper, 1 teaspoon celery seed, 1 cup strained tomatoes or 1/2 can tomato soup. Dredge meat with flour. Brown well in a heavy pan. Brown the meat and cook slowly for three hours or more on top of the stove or for six hours in a fireless cooker.

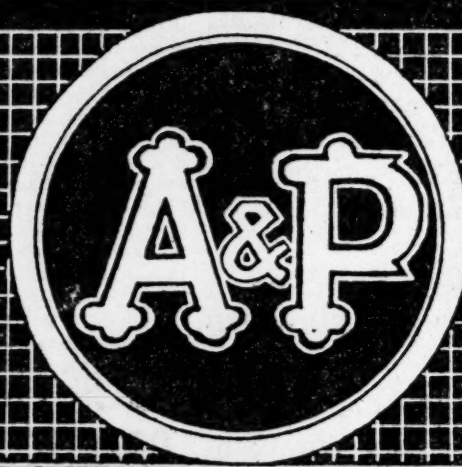

HEATH'S

297 PONCE DE LEON

WE DELIVER HEMlock 7700

HOME-DRESSED FRIERS 38c lb.
HOME-DRESSED HENS 30c lb.
PURE LARD 16c lb.
TALL CARNATION CREAM 11c
MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE 36c

MARKET OPERATED BY CARTER & OWENS
HEMlock 7700

MARINE A. W. O. L.
IN ORDER TO SEE HIS SICK MOTHER

Driven by love for his mother, whom he thought was dying, T. J. Herrin, 19, of the United States Marines, defied military law by traveling across the continent to Columbus, Ga., to see her, only to be arrested as he stepped off the train. He was held in the Fulton tower for a few hours Friday awaiting his removal to Charleston, S. C., to face trial for desertion.

The boy was placed in jail as soon as he arrived in Columbus, but said that he was satisfied, since his father had visited him, and told him that his mother, for whom he had risked his liberty was better.

In San Francisco several weeks ago Herrin received word that his mother was dying. He applied for leave but was denied. He immediately left to be by her side.

William W. Lyons
Will Enter Practice
Of Law in Atlanta

William Wallace Lyons, formerly of the Louisville and Washington bars, has established his residence in Atlanta and has formed an association in the practice of law with the firm of Underwood, Pomeroy & Haas, offices in the Chandler building.

Mr. Lyons, who is a son of Dr. J. Sprole Lyons, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, received his college training at Princeton university before the war. After two years abroad as an American artillery officer he returned and completed his legal education at Harvard in wachelo. During the past two years he has practiced in Washington, D. C., with Miller & Chevalier, a firm of national reputation, specializing in federal tax law, and having offices in Louisville, Washington and New York.

While Mr. Lyons will have a general practice here, he is giving particular attention to tax matters in which he is a recognized specialist.

LOUISVILLE STAGES HEALTH CAMPAIGN

Louisville, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—Campaign for better health and hygiene was brought to bear on Louisville this week when the Health-mobile was in Louisville in charge of two representatives from the state department of health. These representatives spent two days here, giving free clinics at the school academy. Parents and teachers assisted the health promoters. The local physicians read valuable papers and made helpful talks on individual and public hygiene. The Parent-Teacher association of the Louisville school sponsored the coming of the Health-

Uncle Sam Bread---

Expert bakers, working under the supervision of a master baker, use a tested formula which can be depended upon to produce wholesome, delicious bread.

Cinnamon Rolls

Made from the same high-grade ingredients and with the same care as our bread. Ask your grocer.

UNCLE SAM BREAD

The Quality Loaf

Schlesinger-Meyer Baking Company

74 Madison Avenue

MAIN 0779

Back Again---
Just as good as ever

CHARLIES
candy (Peanut-Butter) kisses

MADE ONLY BY
HARRY L. SCHLESINGER, ATLANTA.

12 Pounds IONA 24 Pounds
45c Plain or Self-Rising FLOUR 84c Plain or Self-Rising
Made of Best Quality Soft Winter Wheat

A&P Plain		A&P Self-Rising		Pillsbury
12 lbs.	56c	24 lbs.	$1.07	12 lbs.	59c
24 lbs.	$1.11	24 lbs.	$1.11	24 lbs.	$1.09

GRAPEFRUIT HEARTS A Genuine Value—No. 2 Can Florida Sweet Meat 20c

GRAPES Fancy Tokay Lb. 10c
LEMONS Finest Large Juicy Doz. 17c

Faust Brand MACARONI N. Y. State Full Cream CHEESE
8-oz. Pkg. 7c High Quality Lb. 33c There's a Difference

PEAS Iona Brand No. 2 Can 15c

Oleomargarine A&P Brand Nat. Lb. 25c
ural Color

Shredded Wheat Pkg. 10c

CORN IONA BRAND No. 2 Can--Sweet and Tender 12c

Aunt Jemima FLOUR Pure Georgia Cane SYRUP INGLESIDE BRAND
Pancake, pkg. 15c 1 1/2-lb. Can 11c
Buckwheat, pkg. 17c 2 1/2-lb. Can 22c

MACKEREL Choice Autumn Catch Each 10c

Dill Pickles 2 for 5c Prunes New Pack 15c and 17c lb.

CHERRIES Fancy Red Pitted C A N 25c
Mayonnaise Henard's Made in Atlanta 3-oz. Bottle . 15c
8-oz. Bottle . 33c

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC CO.
Over 8500 stores in the U.S.A.

The Mayonnaise makes the Salad

To be sure of a delicious salad you must be sure to use a perfect mayonnaise! No matter how fresh your vegetables or fruits are, the salad will be a disappointment unless the mayonnaise is perfectly flavored, of even consistency and fresh.

Housekeepers all over the South who know this fact are now using the famous Mrs. Duke's Home-made Mayonnaise and saving themselves the trouble of making it. They can always be sure that Duke's Mayonnaise is fresh and perfectly flavored.

Duke's Home-made Mayonnaise is made just as you would make it in your own kitchen, even the same ingredients are used—pure oil, fresh fruit juice and eggs, and the best of condiments. Duke's is absolutely uncooked. It keeps its freshness and appetizing flavor indefinitely.

Duke's Home-made Relish and Russian Dressing are both made with this famous mayonnaise. Ask your grocer about Duke's products. You will find that he knows their superior quality and real home-made goodness.

Duke's
Home-Made Mayonnaise

Mrs. Duke's "Favorite Recipe" for Chicken Salad

Cut equal parts of chicken and celery diced. Thoroughly mix with Duke's Home-made Mayonnaise, adding a few teaspoons of ice water.

Russian Dressing Home-made Relish

These are delicious in sandwiches or when served with cold meats. The Russian Dressing makes an exceptionally tasty cocktail sauce for crab, lobster or other sea foods.

DUKE MAYONNAISE CO., GREENVILLE, S. C.

REMEMBER WE SELL IT FOR LESS—

COFFEE Maxwell House.....lb. 37c
Blue Ribbon.....lb. 37c

Tall Can Pet or Carnation Milk, can.....12c

No. 3 Can Stokley Lye Hominy, can.....9 1/2c, 6 cans 55c

Sliced Pineapple, Holly Brand, 8 slices to the can, 21c, 12 cans $2.49

Delmonte's large white Asparagus Tips, can.....47c, 12 cans $5.49

No. 1 can Sweet Tender Peas, can.....9c, 12 cans $1.05

Sweet Violet Tiny Peas, No. 2 can.....34c, 12 cans $3.99

SUGAR Best, 5-lb.....50c

White, 10-lb. bag.....99c

Granulated, 25 lbs.....$2.46

POSTELL ELEGANT 24-lb. Bag.....$1.34

12-lb. Bag.....69c

831 Peachtree Street (Near 10th St.) CASH CO. GROCERY (Only)

PACKING HOUSE MARKET 39—EAST ALABAMA ST.—39

From Packer to Consumer—Hence Lower Prices for Better Meat

STEAKS lb. Fancy Western Round, Porterhouse.....17 1/2c

Fore Quarter Steak, lb.....10c | Veal Chops, lb.....10c

Pork Chops, fresh, 22c | Beef or Veal Stew, lb.....5c

Pork Loin Roast, lb.....20 1/2c | Fancy Chuck Roast, lb.....10c

Pork Shoulders, lb.....12 1/2c | Tender Veal Roast, lb.....10c

Pork Hams, lb.....19 1/2c | Fancy Pot Roast, lb.....8c

Spare Ribs, lb.....11c

SAUSAGE Half pork, half beef mixed, lb.....10c

Pure Pork, with country sage.....15c

H A M Brooks County Whole or Half Lb.....19 1/2c

Sliced (center cuts), lb.....29 1/2c

Brooks County Picnic Ham, lb.....12 1/2c

National MARKET

46 North Pryor St. 35 East Alabama St.

Sliced Ham 20c; Large Skinned Hams 18c

Brooks Co. 19c | Brooks Co. 12 1/2c

Hams.....19c | Picnics.....12 1/2c

Loin Steak.....17 1/2c

Round Steak.....17 1/2c

Porterhouse.....17 1/2c

Chub Steak.....17 1/2c

Beef Roast.....10c | Pork Sausage.....15c

Veal Roast.....10c

Salt Meat (streaked).....12 1/2c

FRESH DRESSED HENS AND FRIERS

Good for Candy or any home use

Karo

ANNOUNCING NEW MANAGEMENT

OF The Atlanta Market 114 WHITEHALL ST.

THIS POPULAR MARKET NOW UNDER THE PERSONAL MANAGEMENT OF MR. GEORGE E. SKINNER, WHO IS WELL KNOWN TO THE HOUSEWIVES OF ATLANTA

SPECIAL OFFER SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13TH

WITH EVERY PURCHASE OF $1.00 WE GIVE ABSOLUTELY FREE A PURE ALUMINUM PIE PLATE OR JELLY CAKE PAN

OUR FISH GROCERY AND VEGETABLE DEPARTMENT Under the Personal Management of Mr. D. E. Pinkard

A FEW SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY—

Snapper Steak, lb.....25c | Pig Hams.....20c

Home-Dressed Hens and Fryers.....17 1/2c

Pig Sides.....15c

WE DELIVER — TELEPHONE MAIA 0955 — WE DELIVER

Saturday Specials

Sliced Ham, Lb.....20c | Salt Meat, Lb.....10c

Sliced Bacon, Lb.....20c | Picnic Hams, Lb.....12 1/2c

Pork Sausage, Lb.....15c | Good Steak, Lb.....10c

Veal Roast, Lb.....10c | Spare Ribs, Lb.....12 1/2c

Beef Pot Roast, Lb.....8c | Pork Roast, Lb.....12 1/2c

A Syrup for Every Purpose Ask for Karo!

Karo

Make Your Dollars Have More Cents

Broad Street Market

78 SOUTH BROAD

SMITH'S MARKET

12 Edgewood Avenue

Nearest Market to Five Points

Pork Loin Roast.....22 1/2c | Pure Pork Sausage.....25c

Pork Chops.....25c | Skinned Sliced Breakfast Bacon.....35c

Spare Ribs.....12 1/2c | N. Y. State Cheese.....45c

Choice Beef Roast.....20c

SMITH'S MARKET

12 Edgewood Avenue

Nearest Market to Five Points

DENIES ANY INTENTION TO CRITICIZE WILSON

Wilmington, October 12.—Any intention on the part of the government counsel to criticize either President Wilson or Under-Secretary of State Polk in connection with the transfer of seized German dye and chemical patents to the Chemical Foundation, Inc., was disclaimed in federal district court here today by Henry W. Anderson, special assistant to the attorney general.

Replying to statements yesterday of counsel for the foundation that the government's brief in the suit for the recovery of the patents contained unwarranted attacks on Mr. Wilson and officers of his administration, Mr. Anderson called attention to a general statement in the brief with reference to the discussion of the acts of the former president and Mr. Polk.

"We recognize that this is a question of great delicacy and in whatever has been said there is intended no criticism of either the president or Mr. Polk," the statement said. Referring to the assertion in the brief that former Attorney General Palmer had deliberately acted toward selfish ends, Mr. Anderson said he would point out that Mr. Palmer had imposed conditions in the sale of patents which the department took as their value and that he did take steps to make them available to private industry.

In opening his statement to the court Mr. Anderson took exception to what he characterized as the intemperate language of counsel for the defense in both their brief and oral arguments.

"There is only one way to reply to that and that is by appropriate personal action," he said, adding that, of course, such action "is not possible in a court."

Anderson, special assistant to the attorney general, replying to statements yesterday of counsel for the foundation that the government's brief in the suit for the recovery of the patents contained unwarranted attacks on Mr. Wilson and officers of his administration, Mr. Anderson called attention to a general statement in the brief with reference to the discussion of the acts of the former president and Mr. Polk.

"We recognize that this is a question of great delicacy and in whatever has been said there is intended no criticism of either the president or Mr. Polk," the statement said. Referring to the assertion in the brief that former Attorney General Palmer had deliberately acted toward selfish ends, Mr. Anderson said he would point out that Mr. Palmer had imposed conditions in the sale of patents which the department took as their value and that he did take steps to make them available to private industry.

In opening his statement to the court Mr. Anderson took exception to what he characterized as the intemperate language of counsel for the defense in both their brief and oral arguments.

"There is only one way to reply to that and that is by appropriate personal action," he said, adding that, of course, such action "is not possible in a court."

FORD IS UNDECIDED ABOUT PRESIDENCY

Detroit, Mich., October 12.—Henry Ford does not wish to make a definite answer at present as to whether or not he will be candidate for president, E. G. Liebold, his personal secretary, said today in commenting on news from Nebraska that the Detroit manufacturer's name will go on the ballot in the presidential primary election in that state.

The fact Mr. Ford has not withdrawn his name from the Nebraska primary does not mean that he approves or disapproves of the activity in his behalf by the progressive leaders in Omaha, Mr. Liebold said.

"Various interests throughout the country are making a constant effort to have Mr. Ford answer the question, 'Will you be candidate for president,' Mr. Liebold said. Mr. Ford does not wish to answer this question at the present time either with 'yes' or with a 'no.' He is not a potential candidate in the general sense, but he is not saying he will not be a candidate.

"He does, however, feel that if certain citizens of Nebraska wish to circulate petitions bearing his name, they have a right to do so. The fact that he has not withdrawn his name does not mean that he approves or disapproves of the activity in his behalf by the progressive leaders in Omaha."

This, Mr. Liebold said, "is the policy today. What it will be tomorrow or the next day, I can not say."

First Attorney—"Your honor, unfortunately, I am opposed to an unmitigated scoundrel." Second Attorney—"My learned friend is such a notorious liar—Judge (sharply)—"The counsel will kindly confine their remarks to such matters as are in dispute."—Vivian Reel

WE SELL

Morning Joy

PURE COFFEE

Absolutely Fresh, Pure and Delicious.

Peavy's Market

PHONE IVY 8110

WE DELIVER

Opposite Grand Theater

LEG O' LAMB, FANCY WESTERN.....30c

Lamb Chops.....40c

POT ROAST.....15c

WESTERN BEEF.....80c

BREAKFAST BACON, POUND, 28c; 3 FOR.....23c

Fresh Pig Hams.....23c

FANCY DRESSED POULTRY

We Sell

Roller Champion

The flour the best cooks use!

KARO for Home Candy Making

Karo

Stewart D. Jones

17 E. MITCHELL ST.

Paris Peas, No. 2 can.....37 1/2c

Best Creamery Butter.....49c

FLOUR

Ballard's Obelisk.....$1.17

Roller Champion.....$1.17

Postell's Elegant.....$1.32

10 lbs. fancy Irish Potatoes.....25c

Fresh packed Tomatoes.....10c

And more wonderful bargains on the Jones stand

Every time you miss coming we both lose

Karo

The Syrup of the Home

We Sell

Roller Champion

The flour the best cooks use!

TWO SUSPECTS HELD FOR LOCKHART ESCAPE

Fort Smith, Ark., October 12.—Two men, who gave their names as Pete Slaves, and "Dee" Dodson, are being held in jail at Bartlesville, Okla., as suspects in connection with the escape of Ed Lockhart, bandit, who was liberated from the Jay, Okla., jail last week by a band of five masked men, according to information received here today.

The men were arrested late yesterday. It was stated that the men will be returned to Jay for identification by the jailer there.

"Dee" Dodson, according to J. T. Nicholson, chief of police of Bartlesville, Okla., arrested the man, is the son of S. P. Dodson, arrested with Lockhart on the Pete Baker farm several days before he escaped from the Jay jail. Nothing is known here as to Slaves.

Posse leaders searching for Lockhart now believe that he is in hiding in the Osage hills, along the rendezvous of Al Spencer and other bandit leaders.

Federal officers have joined state officials in the hunt for Lockhart on the theory that Dodson and other alleged members of his band may have been involved in the robbery of a Missouri, Kansas & Texas train near Bartlesville several weeks ago.

COMMITTEE TO PROBE WALTON'S ACTS NAMED

Oklahoma City, Okla., October 12. (By the Associated Press).—Impeachment machinery of the Oklahoma house of representatives was set in motion today with the announcement by W. D. McBee, speaker, of a committee of twenty-one house members to conduct investigations upon which impeachment charges would be based.

From the size of the committee it was believed that investigations of several state departments might be undertaken simultaneously. It was indicated yesterday the committee would be composed of nine members. It is expected to be divided into several sub-committees to expedite its work.

The state senate postponed consideration of legislation affecting the Ku Klux Klan when it adjourned after a fifteen-minute session until Monday afternoon. An anti-klan bill drawn by Senator C. B. Leedy, which was to have been introduced, was withheld.

Only twenty members of the investigation committee are expected to start work late today or tomorrow.

The world's record in premiership is held by Aristide Briand, who has been seven times prime minister of France.

FRESH!

as the eggs your hens lay

BLOCK'S ATLANTA BAKED CRACKERS

PIGGLY WIGGLY

FLOUR

All the Flour we sell is milled from selected soft winter wheat and is GUARANTEED to give ABSOLUTE SATISFACTION

BEAUTY BISCUIT (Finest Self Rising) CHIEF Superlative Patent

24-lb. Sack.....98c | 24-lb. Sack.....96c

12-lb. Sack.....53c | 12-lb. Sack.....51c

6-lb. Sack.....29c | 6-lb. Sack.....27c

Postell's Elegant, 24-Lb. Sack, $1.35

Butter SUNSET GOLD Per Lb. 51c

Fresh and Sweet—Finest in Atlanta

Maybe Not the Cheapest, But THE BEST

BACON and EGGS

Armour's Star Sliced—1-Pound Carton 35c

Strictly Fresh Canned and Guaranteed In Carton—Per Dozen 41c

CORN SUNSET GOLD Fancy Country Gentleman Per Can 16c

Per Dozen, $1.75

PEAS SUNSET GOLD Very Small, Sweet and Tender Per Can 27c

Per Dozen, $3.00

Oleo TROCO A Spread for Bread Very Finest Nut Oleo Per Lb. 25c

Cream of Wheat Per Pkg. 23c

Ralston's Breakfast Food, Per Pkg. 23c

Potatoes IDAHO 10 Lbs. 29c

Finest on the Market

Grapes Fancy Tokay Per lb. 10c

Grapefruit Large Size Juicy 3 for 25c

We Sell Roller Champion The flour the best cooks use!

BUEHLER BROS.

Our phone number has been changed to WA. 5384

Loin Round STEAK, 15c

Porterhouse TENDER STEAK, 10c

BEEF STEAK, 10c

SALT MEAT, 12 1/2c

Skinned Hams.....18c

Brooks County Hams.....20c

Picnic Hams.....14c

Fresh Spare Ribs.....12 1/2c

Beef Roast.....8c

Fancy Chuck Roast.....8c

Pot Roast.....8c

Breakfast Bacon, strip.....18c

Breakfast Bacon, sliced.....22c

Beef Stew.....5c

Rump Roast.....12 1/2c

Pork Shoulders.....12 1/2c

Fresh Dill Pickles.....5c

BUEHLER BROS.

17 W. Alabama Street 35 N. Pryor Street

The right start for school days

School tasks consume a lot of energy. Give him a hearty, wholesome breakfast. What's better than battercakes made the way you know so well—with Roller Champion?

Battercakes a la Roller Champion are wholesome and rich in energy. And my! how good they taste. Silk sifting does make a difference. You notice it in every baking. Begin now! Plain or self-rising; at your grocer's.

Roller Champion

J. C. Dyson, Distributor

1000 Marietta St. Atlanta, Ga.

Phone IVY 7117

We Sell

Roller Champion

The flour the best cooks use!

COLONIES FAVOR BRITISH TARIFF

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
London, October 12.—Although there seems to be little possibility of the British government adopting a general protectionist policy the indications are that the dominions intend to give the mother country an intensive educational course in the principles of protection. It is understood Premier Bruce, of Australia, intends to remain in England after the imperial conference has adjourned and will travel extensively through the provinces, explaining the details of the preferential program and pointing out the benefits which he considers England, as well as the dominions, would gain from it.

The liberal leaders do not fear any immediate change in the government's policy. They view any general increase in the taxation on foodstuffs as unthinkable. They consider Prime Minister Baldwin's cabinet is held by former Premier Bonar Law's pledge to maintain the general fiscal policy approved by the voters at the last general election. The free traders, however, are well aware that the government, by attempting to placate the overseas protectionists with a few morsels of dry fruit, is endeavoring to take action which heads towards tariff mazes from which the government may have the greatest difficulty in re-emerging.

One Step Then Another.
Having met with partial success in reviewing the promise of preference for fruits, the dominions are considered likely to continue similar consideration for all of their products, for although the expressions of gratitude from overseas have been numerous since Sir Philip Lloyd-Greame announced that the government had been converted to partial preference, there is no indication that Australia and New Zealand will be satisfied until meat is included in the list of preferred articles. For this reason, the free traders throughout the country are actively preparing to repel the protectionists' attacks.

One of the steps they have taken along this line is to put their side of the issue before the English housewife, who, they urge, would be forced to pay increased prices for foodstuffs under the preferential policy. The offices of the Woman's National Liberal federation have passed a resolution declaring that organization viewed with alarm the signs of a protectionist campaign, and urging all liberal women to reaffirm their faith in free trade.

Government officials have, however, pointed out that the liberal alarm is being fostered largely for full political campaign matter, as the government forces as well as the avowed free traders, realize that the adoption of any general preferential scheme while the people are in their present state of mind concerning the prices of foodstuffs would be likely to prove suicidal to themselves.

SECRETARY WEEKS PLAYS FORD IN NOTE

Continued from First Page.

conduct of so many enterprises, probably is not himself possessed of the full facts of the situation. For the benefit of those who do not fully understand the problems involved, I shall briefly review the subject.

"Muscle Shoals was a development for nitrate purposes in the war, which included the construction of a large dam on the Tennessee river, and the construction of air-fixing nitrate plants, with large quantities of an adjunct to these plants in order to supply power pending the completion of the water power plant at the Gorgas plant. The total expenditure on these properties was about $102,000,000, of which less than $5,000,000 was spent upon this isolated and temporary steam plant. The steam plant was erected on the property of the Alabama Power company, which reserved title to the land on agreed conditions with the Wilson administration, for which this administration is not responsible, and which gave to them the right to purchase the Gorgas steam plant.

Cites Ford Offer.
"The proposal made by Mr. Ford for the purchase of this entire equipment involved the payment by him of $5,000,000 for the entire plant, including the above isolated and temporary steam plant. This offer also involved many other conditions with regard to the completion of the water power, etc. No disposal of government property can rightfully be made by any administrative officer without the approval of congress and I, as the responsible official in this matter, referred Mr. Ford's offer to congress, which has so far not been acted upon.

"In the meantime, the Alabama Power company, under their rights in the old contract, notified the government that the lands must be vacated on or before October 15, this year. They offered to pay $3,500,000 for this comparatively small item of the whole equipment. The government had an option to accept this offer, which was the highest made, or to salvage this plant. But not more than $1,000,000 could have been realized in salvaging the plant.

Refers Ford to Courts.
"At the time of the sale, in a desire not to disturb the status quo, the administration stated to Mr. Ford that this amount could be credited on his original offer of $5,000,000 if it was so wished. Mr. Ford's declared purpose in purchasing the Muscle Shoals property is the manufacture of nitrates for fertilizers. I have the keenest interest in the development of air-fixation of nitrates in assistance to the American farmer and in the adaptability of Muscle Shoals for this purpose. As evidence of the government's desire to promote this end it is carrying forward today the construction of hydraulic works on the Tennessee river, with a view to making that great water power available for the purpose.

"I have never opposed Mr. Ford's securing the use of this water power or any other equipment we have, provided he is able to give such assurance of its being devoted to this particular purpose as will satisfy congress and proper protection of the public interest. That he could have economically made nitrates by the use of steam power is denied by every expert adviser.

"The fact that he says his offer is still open would seem to indicate that he does not regard the Gorgas steam plant as necessary to him in the carrying out of a plan to purchase and develop Muscle Shoals water power.

"I do not propose to continue a newspaper discussion of this subject, but if necessary shall place all facts before a proper tribunal."

SAVOY FREE ZONE
WANTED BY SWISS

Berne, Switzerland, October 12.—The Swiss federal council today decided to protest to France against the decree of the French government abolishing the free zone of Savoy, established by the treaty of Vienna, and to ask France's agreement to submit the disputed legal points to the permanent court of international justice.

Actor Is Quizzed Concerning Plot To Loot Treasury

Lincoln, Neb., October 12.—Postal inspectors have questioned Frank Barton, a Chicago actor in the state penitentiary here in connection with a "proposed nation-wide plundering plot to include the treasury at Washington," it was learned today. Barton denied knowledge of any such plot.

The prisoner, who is serving a sentence for possession of a forged check, also was questioned concerning the theft of $40,000 in bonds from a Chicago bank.

A federal grand jury investigation of such a plundering plot is under way in Los Angeles.

Chicago, October 12.—Postoffice inspectors here were silent when asked today concerning the nation-wide plundering plot, concerning which, Frank Barton, of Chicago, was questioned by inspectors at the Nebraska penitentiary at Lincoln. Details of a theft of $40,000 in bonds from a Chicago bank could not be learned.

Remains of a Roman house fitted with central heating, exist below the London coal exchange.

OFFICERS CHOSEN AT W. C. T. U. MEET

(Special).—Officers were elected this afternoon at the closing session of the fortieth assembly of the W. C. T. U. of Georgia. Much important business was transacted at the morning session. The president, Mrs. Lella Dillard, was re-elected; Mrs. Marvill Williams was re-elected vice-president; Mrs. W. C. Cotton, corresponding secretary; Miss Josephine Hammond, treasurer; Mrs. Campbell was elected recording secretary. All of the district secretaries were reappointed, as were the superintendents of the young people's branch. Mrs. A. W. McLarty and Mrs. Paul Roberts are superintendents of the L. T. L. The next place of meeting will be Albany.

This evening was devoted to the young people. Prizes, prizes and honors were awarded by the state president and the state secretary of young people's work. Last night an audience of more than a thousand heard Mrs. Mary Harris Armour when she made her address on "Why America Went Dry, and the Results." The dinner table was served by the congregations of the Episcopal, Presbyterian, and Christian churches.

CRIPPLED FIEND PLOTS MANY DEATHS

Continued from First Page.

a former marriage, were to commit the actual crimes, acting under their uncle's directions, May charges.

A local clothing dealer was to be an early victim. His body was to be found at the bottom of a stairway, down which he was supposed to have plunged accidentally. In his pocket was to be discovered a will, with Covell, the cripple, named to receive one-half of his property, May charges.

Two business men were to be coerced into signing half their possessions to Covell, and then were to meet death in a way that would cover up all suspicion, May says. After this a rancher, his wife and two children were to be chloroformed and their house burned over their heads at night, after having been looted by Covell's orders. Another husband, wife and three children were to be slain by blows which it was to be made to appear members of the family had inflicted.

"Covell reasoned every angle to perfection," May said. "He had analyzed every possible thought that would come into the minds of investigators, and then had plotted to meet the thought and overcome it. Every crime was to be committed when the victims were under the influence of their respective plans."

Slueth a Star-Gazer, Too.
Until May took up the probe, Covell's participation in the murder of his sister-in-law had not been considered. From his bed, his black, piercing eyes gleaming, he had parried every question local authorities had asked him, and given plausible answers.

But May, himself a student of astrology and psychology, broke down Covell's bold front through possessing the stronger mind, and obtained the confession and records which will, it is declared, prove his guilt.

The reason given for Covell's desire to put Mrs. Covell out of the way is the belief that she knew something of his plans. The boy said she had threatened to expose Covell if he did not cease his planning, which threat influenced him to plan and carry out her slaying as the first one of the series.

BIG SOUTHEASTERN
FAIR WILL CLOSE

Continued from First Page.

Collins, headed by Maggie Bethes, of Reidsville, county home demonstration agent, was awarded first honors by Misses Erna Proctor and Susan Mathews, judges. The three girls and their teacher will be sent to the international live stock show to make Georgia bread in competition with other girls from all over the civilized world.

The three girls from all the competing teams were singled out as individually the best breadmakers. They are Mary Wells, of Collins; Ella Parney, of Plainsville, Gordon county, and Vivian Livingstone, of Muscogee county.

Second team honors went to Gordon county, represented by Ella Putney, of Plainsville; Lula May Roe, of Calhoun, and Leta Littlefield, of Fairmount, headed by Moina Shackelford, home demonstration agent.

Third team honors went to Newton county, represented by Sallie Ruth Meadows, Pansy Ewing and Irene Eddleman, headed by Mary Norman, agent, all of Covington.

Service For Betts.
One of the most impressive events of the week was the memorial service for George T. Betts, late president and founder of the Georgia association, marking the unveiling of a memorial tablet to him in the agricultural building. The service began at noon. Governor Walker, Joe Lawton, editor of the Wiregrass Farmer, of Ashburn, and lifelong friends of Mr. Betts, J. J. Large, Ashburn attorney, spoke in praise of the man whose tablet reads that "he died in service of his state."

Herculean labors to popularize the "hog, cow and hen" program of balanced agriculture on Georgia farms are being carried on by his friends for hastening the death of Mr. Betts. Georgia editors who had worked with him listened to the memorial talks.

A military prisoner's work exhibited in the art department has attracted attention. William Lang, 23, all parts of Georgia were entertained by the Steam Paper company with a luncheon at 1 o'clock at which Governor Walker and others spoke.

The "press badge" was the apogee to all the glories of the fair throughout the day. Members of the fourth estate who have attended Southern fairs since they first began were emphatic in asserting that this year's is the greatest ever.

Clark Howell, Jr., business manager of The Constitution; Lloyd Wilcott, city editor of The Constitution; James B. Nevin, editor; Dudley Glass, feature writer of the Georgian; John Brice, business manager, and John Fuschal, managing editor of The Journal, composed the committee which acted as hosts to the visiting editors.

The Atlanta Chamber of Commerce was host to the editors at a banquet at the chamber restaurant Friday night.

Fine Cattle Shown.

Judge John S. Candler's Guernsey cattle, from Milehigh farm, in De Kalb county, won several important awards. Judge Candler said that the breed is being introduced generally into Georgia and the south. South Carolina was represented with Guernsey stock from the herds of E. B. McCutcheon and H. M. Minzgo, of Bishopville; R. M. Cooper, of Wicksburg; J. L. McIntosh, of Doverville, and J. S. Davidson, of Chester.

A military prisoner's work exhibited in the art department has attracted attention. William Lang, 23, under 50-year sentence at the Atlanta federal penitentiary for a crime alleged to have been committed in Italy, has several portraits and mosaics in home on display.

Martha Berry school, at Roma, has won grand championship for a carload of barrows over all breeds, and its Duroc Jersey hogs won the largest cash prize offered in the swine division. Whitehall Rose, last year's grand champion dairy cow, was again awarded the highest prize. Miss Martha Berry supervised personally the school's exhibits and was recipient of congratulations of hundreds of friends of the school and admirers of her work.

Fireworks Saturday night will be the best of the fair. George Newton, in charge of the display, has arranged the finest and most spectacular show for closing tonight.

A company of picked men from the Twenty-second infantry at Fort McPherson, Georgia, will exhibit drill Friday afternoon in front of the grand stand. The drill was done to music instead of by commands from the officers. The Twenty-second infantry band furnished music. Hollow squares, stars and other interesting figures were formed by the men. They also went through the Ratts manual, a system of calisthenics with the army rifle. The great audience was delighted.

Final awards in all the live stock exhibits will be announced Saturday. Every exhibit will be in place until the gates are closed.

With 4 Big Floors "Loaded" With Stylish, High-Grade, New Fall Merchandise—Everything Is Ready!
Shelnutt's Great Second ANNIVERSARY SALE
All Atlanta Will Be Here! Let Nothing Keep You Away! Come With the Crowds! Plenty of Salespeople!

Extra Special

Ladies' Felt House Slippers, ribbon trimmed, cushion sole. Saturday only—

69^c

PRICES REDUCED!!

If you, dear reader, are one of the thousands of Shelnutt's patrons who have contributed to the remarkable growth and success of this store during the twelve months just passed—of which this great sale is a fitting celebration, we wish to thank you sincerely and extend you a cordial invitation to come and get your share of the wonderful savings; but if you have not yet joined the great army of Shelnutt "Money Savers," we urge you to come anyway and see for yourself how this, Atlanta's Greatest Bargain Store, "does things," how we save you money on everything to wear for the entire family; see how our stocks keep pace with the changing styles and how we stand back of and guarantee the quality of every article we sell—no matter how great the price reduction may be. Don't miss the greatest value-giving sale in our history. Stocks that are the "newest of the new" at prices that will crowd our store.

Extra Special

9-4 Pepperell Sheet—ing, unbleached, while it lasts, yard—

49^c

Read Every Word! Everything Exactly As Advertised! Bring This Ad With You! Come Early Today!

200 Jersey DRESSES
Jersey Dress Special—200 Dresses in a variety of colors and styles that is simply a pick-up, at—
While They Last $7.95

Silk Jersey Petticoats in an assortment of colors. A $4.00 value—
$1.95

Men's Raincoats, gas mask cloth, with heavy rubberized lining; a $5.00 coat; in this sale—
$2.95

Heavy yard-wide Sheeting, unbleached, Saturday—13c yd.

33 S. BROAD STREET

MEN'S SHIRTS
Fine Dress Shirts in Madras and Crepe. Values up to $2.50—
$1.39

Boys' All-wool Pants, really worth $1.25; sizes 8 to 16 years—
89c

Ladies' Sweaters
Special lot pure Wool Sweaters; slightly soiled from handling, includes sweaters that are worth $5.00; choice, while they last—
95c

95c

SENSATIONAL SHOE SALE!
Men's Shoes, guaranteed solid leather and worth $5.00; brown calf, rubber heels—
$3.25
Boys' Shoes, in brown and black calf; Goodyear welt; a $5.00 shoe—
$2.95
Boys' Brown Calf Shoes; guaranteed solid leather; a $2.75 to $3.00 value; 5 to 8 and 8½ to 11—$1.95
100 PAIR FINE SLIPPERS, in Satin, Patent Leather and Kid, in low, Baby Louis, Louis and military heels; strap, cross straps, fancy cut-outs and oxfords; shoes that have actually sold up to $9.50—choice
$1.50
Special Army Shoe; Goodyear welt; guaranteed solid comfort; sold usually at $5.00—
$2.95
Black and Brown Kid Infants' Shoes; sizes 2 to 6; a $1.25 value—
79c
Children's Patent Vamp Gray Top Shoes; solid leather; a real $4 value; 5½ to 8, at.....
$2.25
8½ to 2 at.....
$2.95

Boys' Two-Pants Suits
Pure wool, best make. Specially bought for this sale; a real $10.00 value—
$5.00
MAIN FLOOR

Anniversary Gingham Special
Genuine Amoskeag utility 32-inch Gingham; 45 new, dainty patterns to choose from.
Yd. 23c

Second Floor
Child's fine wool Sweaters, in white and colors; a bona-fide $3.25 value
$3.25
Children's Sleeping Suits, Sealpax make, made of best heavy outing. These garments really should sell for $1.50; size 4 to 14 years
79c
Babies' Cotton Sweaters, in an assortment of colors and combinations
$1.00
Ladies' Brushed Wool Sweaters, a good $5.50 value in a variety of desirable color combinations
$3.95
Children's Coats, an extra special value in tan and seal brown. Fur collar and self $4.95

Bargain Basement
Men's Heavy Khaki Pants
$1.00
Boys' Blue Overalls
69c
Small Boys' Straight Knee Khaki Pants, sizes 3 to 8
25c
White Overalls for bakers, plasterers and paper-hangers; heavy weight
$1.00
Men's Gray Cotton Sweaters, Saturday
95c
220 Heavy Denim Overalls
$1.50
Men's Cotton Sox, a 20c value; Saturday, 8 pairs
$1.00
Universal Butcher Knives—$1.00 value
50c
Waage Electric Percolators, for this sale
$4.45
Electric Irons; Mesco, Universal and Simplex; 6-pound weight
$2.95

Main Floor
Boys' Wool Sweaters 5-color combinations. This Sweater really should sell for $4.00.
$2.95
Wool Underwear
$5.50 Duofold Union Suits.
$3.50
Superior and Cooper's Union Suits; 4 values
$1.95
Wool Shirts and Drawers, $1.75 to $2.25 values; garment
$1.00
Wright's Health Fleeced Shirts and Drawers, worth $2.00 garment. Now priced
$1.00
32-Inch Gauntlet Zephyr Gingham, new shipment; 35 new patterns, a 30c value, yard
19c

Men's 3-Piece SUITS
—Fashion Park —Society Brand
—Stein-Bloch
All three of these famous brands in this wonderful lot; none better made—a special "pick-up"—take your choice—
Values to $52.50
$17.50
to $32.50
While the lot lasts

Silk Hose that should sell for $1.00 to $1.25, in all the newest shades—
69c

Men's Lisle Sox, our regular 25c seller; Saturday only. 3 Pairs
50c

Blankets, extra special, full double size, guaranteed pure virgin wool; a good $17.50 value; this sale—
$9.95

33 S. BROAD STREET

Juvenile Suits for boys; a pure wool suit; best make; worth $6.00; this sale—
$2.95
Sizes 3 to 8 years

Single Cotton Blankets, imported; extra special—
89c

Overcoats, pure wool and fine tailoring; bona fide $25 values—
$17.50

33 S. BROAD STREET

J. B. SHELNUTT CO.

PECORA WILL DENY ACTING FOR STOKES

New York, October 12.—Acting District Attorney Ferdinand Pecora will appear on Monday to deny charges directed at his office by Joseph A. Thornton, who during yesterday's sessions of the retrial of the divorce action of W. E. D. Stokes, wealthy hotel owner, asserted that an attempt had been made to influence his testimony. The assertion of Thornton, a negro and a former janitor of an East 35th street apartment house where Edgar A. Wallace, chief correspondent, lived, indirectly led to a flareup between opposing counsel.

Thornton said that during the previous trial of the case, at which he identified Mrs. Stokes as a woman he had seen several times at the East 35th street address where Mr. Wallace lived, he received a subpoena to appear before the District Attorney, and subsequently was questioned by Stanley L. Richter, then an assistant district attorney, who is son-in-law of Samuel Untermyer, chief counsel for Mrs. Stokes, Ferdinand O. Morton, also a former assistant district attorney and now civil service commissioner, and finally by Mr. Pecora.

The witness declared Mr. Pecora said: "You can say that you might be mistaken concerning Mrs. Stokes' identification; that she was not the one; that it might have been some one else. There is no need of getting into trouble for Mr. Stokes. The easiest way is the best way; that you might be mistaken that she is not the party."

Mr. Morton, according to the witness, also suggested he change his testimony.

Mr. Untermyer interrupted and said that the district attorney's office should be advised.

"This man should be committed for perjury," he added.

Max D. Steuer, of counsel for Mr. Stokes retorted:

"This is the cheapest thing I've ever witnessed." Mr. Untermyer's remarks were drowned in the uproar which followed, but Mr. Steuer continued: "That's all you can do; use public officers that way. At any rate, I didn't use my son-in-law."

Mr. Richter, son-in-law of Mr. Untermyer, ran up to Mr. Steuer's side, and whispered in his ear. Mr. Steuer shouted: "You're going to beat me up, when?"

Court attendants restored order.

In Thornton's testimony yesterday he asserted he had seen Mrs. Stokes at the Wallace home three times, while previously he had testified he had seen her there more than a dozen times.

Activity in the Stokes case shifted today to Missouri where Mrs. Stokes has gone with counsel to hunt witnesses in an attempt to disprove testimony that she was seen with Wallace at Boonville and Bunton, Mo., in 1904 when, she declares, she was attending school in Washington, D. C., and did not know the man.

WILBUR WALLACE ISSUES DENIAL.

Boonville, Mo., October 12.—Wilbur Wallace today asserted he never had seen Mrs. W. E. D. Stokes, nor Clarence McCormick, and that this would be the gist of his deposition tomorrow in the Stokes' divorce case.

Wallace is a brother of Edgar T. Wallace whom Mr. Stokes named as chief correspondent. It was alleged Mrs. Stokes, before her marriage, visited here with Edgar T. Wallace and Mr. McCormick in 1904.

Wilbur Wallace said he was positive neither Mrs. Stokes nor Mr. McCormick ever visited here with his brother.

Arthur Wallace, another brother, declined to discuss the case.

Legion Chaplain Plays Hero Role In Train Holdup

Oakland, Cal., October 12.—The Rev. William J. O'Conner, of Cincinnati, Ohio, national chaplain of the American Legion, played a heroic part in relief work after the holdup and explosion which claimed four lives on Southern Pacific train No. 13, near Hills, Cal., yesterday. It developed today when the train reached here.

Father O'Conner was on the second section of the train, which was unharmed. As soon as this section reached the scene and its occupants were informed of the holdup and explosion, Father O'Conner hastened over an intervening hill to the scene. He said prayers over the dead and took charge of the relief of the injured.

B. Devine, of Portland, Ore., and Hardy Hartley, of Los Angeles, who were slightly injured by flying glass, said that they were sitting in the smoking car of the train when the explosion came. The passengers remained calm, they said.

J. W. Mitchell, of Berkeley, Cal., an express messenger, said that all of the windows and doors of the express car were smashed by the explosion. He was told, he said, that the bandits were unmasked. Brigadier General Charles G. Dawes, resigned, former director of the federal budget system, was a passenger on the train that was held up.

GEORGIA SINGERS WILL MEET TODAY
AT THIRD BAPTIST

The annual meeting of the Georgia Singing Convention, at which 500 or more members will be present, will begin at the Third Baptist church today, the last sessions being held Sunday.

Reorganization of the association is being looked forward to with much interest by all the old members, who believe that more efficient work will be the result. The purpose of the association is to promote singing in all forms; to interest every one in some kind of singing, whether it be religious or ragtime or classical; to establish friendship among its members, and to bring people of adjacent states to Atlanta annually, as it is the rule of the organization to hold the annual meeting here every year.

District meetings are held, however, during the year, in all parts of the states.

Among those who will attend will be Professor A. J. Shawalter, Dalton; Professor Homer F. Morris, Atlanta; Professor Ben B. Beal, Douglasville; Professor C. Ross Mullins, Fayetteville; Professor H. H. Botoms, Atlanta; Professor T. B. Mowley, Boaz, Ala.; Professor G. T. Fleming, Carrollton; Professor J. H. Linscomb, Newnan.

Saturday afternoon all the members will be taken to the Southeastern fair. Basket dinners will be provided on both days for the visitors.

The local committee on arrangements and entertainment follows: E. C. Hudson, chairman; Dan Cook, vice chairman; H. L. Turner, Cliff Cochran, Carl Lee, Professor Homer F. Morris, Captain A. J. Holcomb, Joe Bartonfield, Bruce Stroud, Rev. Thomas McCutchen, J. H. Hanson.

The Atlanta Convention Bureau has aided the local committee in making arrangements.

2 Dead, 5 Hurt in Crash.

Kansas City, October 12.—Two men were killed and five injured in a head-on collision between two Lawrence-Kansas City interurban cars of the Kaw Valley line today.

FARMER TROUBLES TOLD TO PROBERS

Washington, October 12.—The troubles of the farmer today were laid before the joint congressional committee inquiring into the failure of state banks to join the federal reserve system.

Governor Cooper, of the farm loan board; B. C. Powell, of Little Rock Ark., representing the American Cotton association; T. H. Atkeson, representing the National Grange, and Benjamin C. Marsh, of the Farmers' National council, were heard by the committee on various phases of banking as applied to agriculture.

Contrary to the impression that the farmers need additional financial aid, their general credit condition has improved during the last year, Governor Cooper said. During the 12 months he declared they borrowed less money than in the previous year.

According to Mr. Cooper the board has received acceptable demands for only $15,000,000 so far this year, although it had further commitments which probably would bring the total to $40,000,000. This amounted to only one-half of the money it held available to assist agriculture.

Most of the demands for loans have come from the south and far west, Mr. Cooper said, generally through farmers' cooperative associations. There had been no great demand, he added, for credit in the middle west.

Charges by Representative Strong, republican of Kansas, that there had been a conspiracy to delay in the loans by the board were denied by Governor Cooper who insisted that the board would be amply able to take care of every legitimate demand made upon it without using more than one-half of the fund it had available.

Country banks remain outside the federal reserve system, Mr. Powell testified, because they would receive no interest on their deposits should they join that system and also because they resented what they considered attempts to coerce them into agreeing to the par collection of checks. He urged the committee to hold meetings outside of Washington so as to get in touch with country banks and to make every possible effort to improve upon their benefits which would come by joining the system. New York banks, he asserted, are paying salaries as high as $25,000 to men whose business it is to induce banks to remain outside.

Mr. Marsh said there was a general belief among country bankers that many of the disasters suffered by the farmers in recent years had been largely due to the federal reserve system. Mr. Atkeson brought to the attention of the committee what seemed to him improper methods used by the system to force par collection of checks.

SCAFFOLD COLLAPSES, TWO FALL TO DEATH

New Castle, Pa., October 12.—Frank Cline, of Trenton, N. J., general foreman of the Rust Construction Company, of Pittsburgh, and Scott Wehman, of Pittsburgh, were killed here today when a scaffold on a 270-foot stack under construction at the Carnegie steel company's plant collapsed. Three other men saved themselves by grabbing ropes suspended from the top of the stack.

Russian Train Held Up.

Moscow, October 12.—Bandits today attacked and robbed the Warsaw-Moscow express between Borisloft and Orsha. British, Italian and Polish agents traveling on the train and also some Italians, who were proceeding to Moscow to join the Italian mission there, were robbed of their money. The diplomatic mail pouches were not touched.

ROBERTS' FAMILY AGAIN HOLDING CENTER OF STAGE

Louis F. Roberts, ex-inmate of the federal penitentiary, and principal figure in a series of court proceedings brought by Miss Fannie Baxter, who is now his wife, was lodged in police station Friday under charges said to have been preferred by Mrs. Roberts that he had absconded with several articles of clothing belonging to her.

The couple came into the limelight when Mrs. Roberts, then Miss Fannie Baxter, swore out warrants for Roberts' arrest, charging that she had been lured into a fake marriage ceremony. The romance, which began while Roberts was a convict, culminated with a wedding ceremony in Judge T. O. Hathcock's court some six weeks ago.

Roberts' address is given as 218 East Fair street, while his wife still retains her old home address on Echo street. It is understood that the couple has been separated for some time. Roberts was arrested by Policeman H. A. Hardy.

Secretary Sought.

Quintman, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—Quintman is in the market for a commercial secretary to succeed H. C. Barnes, who has been secretary of the Quintman chamber of commerce for a number of years and who left Thursday to engage in business in Louisville, Ky. It has been decided by the directors that the organization will continue to function.

COOLIDGE TO TALK TO THE GOVERNORS

Washington, October 12.—President Coolidge, together with representatives of the treasury, justice and labor departments, will address the governors of the several states a week from tomorrow when the state executives gather at the white house to discuss law enforcement.

The primary and sole purpose of the conference as contemplated by the president, is to obtain better enforcement of laws, particularly the statutes pertaining to immigration and the sale of narcotics and alcoholic liquors.

Representatives of the three departments concerned who will address the conference have not been determined definitely but it has been indicated that the treasury probably will be represented by Assistant Secretary Moses, who is in charge of enforcement of the prohibition laws; the department of justice by Attorney General Daugherty and the labor department by Assistant Secretary Henning.

Acceptances to the invitation issued by the president are being received daily at the white house, and, although it is impossible as yet to ascertain definitely the number of governors to be present, it is expected that probably about 30 will attend.

300 ARE CONVERTED IN COLUMBUS REVIVAL

Columbus, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—Over 300 persons have joined the church as a result of the revivals being conducted by 20 churches in Columbus. Five hundred cottage prayer meetings were held in advance of the revival and an extensive advertising campaign was put on.

Brangelist Will Hill of Wrenn, Ga., is assisting the pastor, J. E. Barnhill, at the Tabernacle.

BISHOP B. J. KEILEY
76 YEARS OLD TODAY

Savannah, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—Saturday will be the 76th anniversary of the birth of the Right Reverend Benjamin J. Keiley, D. D., former bishop of the diocese of Savannah, who resided active work on account of failing eyesight some months ago. He was born at Petersburg, Va. He is now in Atlanta at St. Joseph's hospital.

Alston Home Burns.

Alston, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—The home of P. Dixon was totally destroyed by fire last night. The family was away from home. Nothing was saved.

SLAYER SUCCUMBS TO SUICIDE ATTEMPT

Redwood City, Cal., October 12.—James Moore, who shot himself yesterday after beating to death his uncle, James H. Doolittle, wealthy retired hotel man, in an unsuccessful attempt to rob the Doolittle home, died in a hospital today.

Window Glass

A missing window glass—and in come the wintry blasts. Now's the time to phone us to send a man to replace any broken panes there may be in your house.

If you plan to do the work yourself, stop in or phone one of our convenient neighborhood stores and order your window glass—we furnish putty, spigs and putty knives that you need.

F. J. Coolidge & Sons

Peachtree and Tenth 12 N. Forsyth St.

Lee and Gordon Moreland and Euclid

Windshield glass and auto door glass replaced while you wait at 434 Marietta Street

Coats of Style--Under $50.00

Style Isn't a Matter of Price in High's Coats, You'll Find--Especially in the Coats in the Anniversary Sale!

$14.75 $19.75 $24.75 $34.75 to $49.75

YOUR coat must be smart. Of course! Every woman feels that way. But most of you think that a coat must be expensive in order to be smart. And too often this is right. Not so, however, in High's Anniversary Sale. Every coat in this Sale was carefully bought. Style was given first consideration. Then materials and trimming. Then we proceeded to buy these coat ideals at the lowest possible prices in New York. Pictured above are six of the styles we were able to purchase to sell in the Anniversary under $50. But these six models are only the beginning of the story.

These Are for Style-Loving Women Who Want Dresses Moderately Priced!

At $14.75 At $24.75

Silk dresses, velvet dresses, twill dresses, dresses of wool checks. Styles, materials, fabrics that Fashion says is right. The silk frocks are of satin crepe, dull crepe, plain satin, flat crepe and velvet. Basque styles with full skirts in straight styles with tiers or flying panels. Some have long sleeves, some have no sleeves at all, some have short sleeves. The wool frocks are in tailored, coat and sports styles. Trimmed with braid, ribbon, heading, buttons and leather. Smart frocks, anyone would have to concede, in spite of their little $14.75 price.

Women's Sweaters, $3.69
Regular Price $5.98

Short Kid Gloves, $1.19
Regular Price $1.75

Real French kid and imported lambskin gloves. Two-clasp wrist. In black with white stitching, white with black stitching, and several desirable shades of brown. $1.19 pair.

We Offer Today and Every Saturday
Extra Specials in Children's Shoes

Little Girls' Tan Calf Lace Shoes, with welt soles—
Sizes 8½ to 11..... $3.45
Sizes 11 to 2..... $3.95

Little Boys' Tan Lace Shoes, with best welt soles—
Sizes 12 to 2..... $3.95

Children's Felt Slippers
(with ribbon trim)
Sizes
5 to 8..... $1.00
9 to 11..... $1.00
12 to 2..... $1.00*

All White "Keds"
(with brown trim)
Sizes 12 to 2..... $1.95*

Babies' Soft Sole
Shoes, sizes 0 to 4..... $1.00*

Babies' First Step
Shoes, sizes 1 to 4..... $1.50*

Tan Lace, with heavy flexible soles—
Sizes 5 to 8..... $2.45
Sizes 8½ to 11½..... $2.95

Best grade Children's,
Misses' and Growing Girls' Rubber Overshoes
Sizes 6 to 10..... 80c
Sizes 11 to 2..... 90c
Sizes 3 to 7..... $1.00

Stewart's
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY
212 & 214 ST. WALKER ST. N.E.

PONCE DE LEON, JACKSON, BOULEVARD AND NORTH AVENUE

Specials Today --- Thriving Business Community

ROGERS

Where Satisfaction is a Certainty

3 Convenient Stores in this Neighborhood at Your Service
Some Saturday Values
Fancy Tokay Grapes
12 1/2c pound

Another car of fine
Malaga Grapes
10c pound

New York State
Seckle Pears
An unusually mellow and juicy eating pear
10 cents dozen
3 dozen 25c

Another carload of
Idaho Prunes
10 cents dozen
3 dozen 25c

Nice, tender, well-bleached
Colorado Celery
10c Stalk

Canadian Rutabagas
5 pounds 13c

ROGERS

Where Satisfaction is a Certainty

LONGINO'S

"Best There Is"

BREAD

Two Loaves for 25c

Fresh Pork Sausage
Made Each Day

Absolutely Fresh Eggs
RIGHT FROM THE YARD

CREAM BISCUITS
10 and 15c
Per Dozen

Parker House Rolls
Two Dozen for
25c

LONGINO'S BAKERY

TWO SHOPS
Ponce de Leon at Boulevard Peachtree Street at Twelfth Street

Stella's

Home Made BREAD

also —Delicious Cinnamon Buns
—Parker House Rolls
—Pure Milk Biscuits
—And Dainty Cakes

Tell Your Grocer You Want

Stella's Products

The following well-known Grocers and Markets handle our line fresh daily—

Atlantic & Pacific Tea Stores
Plaza Market, 290 W. Peachtree
Echols & Lyle, 9 Cleburne Ave.
Highland Market, 734 Highland Ave.
White Grocery Co., 858 Highland Ave.
Inman Park, 222 Lake Ave.
Herman Shubert, 276 Highland Ave.
Morris Wald, 224 Highland Ave.
I. Israel, 221 Highland Ave.
Bankston Grocery Co., North Boulevard
Woodall's, Peachtree and 10th St.
Knight Brothers, Peachtree and 10th St.
Matthews & Farrow, W. Peachtree and 14th St.
Commerce Market, 20 Edgewood Ave.
Max Goldberg & Co., 251 Woodward Ave.
Kunesky's Market, 399 Washington St.
R. L. Boyd, 483 Capitol Ave.
Coudis Market, 89 E. Georgia Ave.
Mooney's, 458 South Pryor St.
S. E. Baker, Grocer and Meats, 95 Richardson Ave.
Minhinnett's, Buckhead.
Bell Grocery Co., 485 Ponce de Leon Ave.
Kimbrell Cash Grocery Co., 1472 DeKalb Ave.
Cassell & Fleming, Kirkwood.
J. M. House, South Kirkwood.
J. Kuniowsky, 1104 W. College Ave.
Brown Erwin, Grocer and Meats, 102 Dixie Ave.
Merritt, 31 Gordon St.
W. A. Byers, Groceries and Meats, 35 Gordon St.
Gerber's Grocery Co., 38 Gordon St.
R. A. Broyles Grocery Co., 211 Peoples St.
McClure, 640 Gordon St.
Branham Market Co., 307 Ponce de Leon Ave.

295 Ponce de Leon Avenue
Phone Hem. 6752

"Quality will make us famous—
Service will make us grow.
Whenever you have a prescription to fill
Just phone and let us know."

Ivy
7055

"Your Nearest Drug Store"

SATURDAY SPECIALS

Along With Our Delivery Service

Squibbs Liquid Petrolatum

in a 16-ounce bottle

79c

Good Rubbing

Alcohol
16-ounce bottle

60c

Fleets Phospho Soda
per bottle

23c

Everything To Be Expected of a
High-Class Drug Store

North Avenue Pharmacy
580 Boulevard—Corner of North Avenue
When in a Hurry Call Us

You Must Be Satisfied

Storage --- Repairs
AND VULCANIZING
DOZIER GARAGE & EQUIPMENT CO.
291 - 293 Ponce de Leon Avenue

Phone
HEmlock 7511 and 7512

and this store is equipped to give your order prompt and efficient

Delivery Service

Test us TODAY (Saturday) on our Week-End Specials

Pebeco and Pepsodent
Both Excellent Tooth Pastes,
two of them for 50c
A Nice Tooth Brush and One Free 25c for

Jackson Street Pharmacy

Under New Management
877 N. Jackson St. Corner of North Ave.

"On Your Way
Coming and Going..."

Corner North Avenue and Jackson

J. L. Carroll Co.

Station No. 6

Good Gulf Gasoline and Supreme Oil

CALL 2097
IVy

Specials for Saturday

Dressed Fryers
38c

Dressed Hens
30c

Veal Steak per pound
25c

Fresh Eggs,
Guaranteed
per doz.
45c

Phelp's Market
353 E. North Avenue

HART
Dry Cleaning
INCORPORATED
293

Ponce de Leon Avenue

"THE
PERFECT
WAY
TO PERFECT
CLEANING"

PHONE
HEmlock 7269
We Have Our Own Plant

SHOT IN DEFENSE, SAYS FLOYD MAN

Constitution Bureau.
T. J. Bryson, Mgr., Phone 184.
Rome, Ga., October 12.—(Special.) In his cell in the Floyd county jail, awaiting a preliminary hearing for having shot and instantly killed James Gravette, a neighbor, Buford Harper, well-known farmer and brother-in-law of T. C. Autry, county commissioner, says that he shot only in self-defense; that he is certain he will be exonerated at the preliminary hearing, and that he has only regret for the occurrence.

The killing, which occurred late yesterday afternoon, took place near Plainsville, in the Waters district. It is said to have come as the climax of a previous disagreement between the two men. According to gravette's version, Harper was advancing upon Harper with a large knife, when the latter, an overseer on the public roads, shot him twice, killing him almost instantly. Harper made no effort to escape, but notified the sheriff's office of what had happened. He was taken into custody by Sheriff Wilson and is held without bail pending preliminary hearing.

Through his attorneys, Porter and Mebane, Mr. Harper gave out a formal statement today in which he sets out that Mr. Gravette was advancing on him with an open knife and that he never been in trouble before, he says, and that he is a law-abiding citizen. The preliminary hearing is set for tomorrow morning at 10:30. Both Harper and Gravette are farmers, married and have several children. They lived about a mile apart near Plainsville.

Physicians To Meet

Rome, Ga., October 12.—(Special.) Forty-three physicians from counties adjoining Floyd will be guests of the Floyd County Medical society at its regular monthly meeting on the evening of October 13.

Modish Gowns will fit over Underwear that's Knit

See your Dealer's display of KNIT Underwear THIS WEEK. Cotton, Wool, Silk or Mixtures in Two-piece and Union Suits for every member of the family. Give some consideration to your health this Fall—

RALLY DAY

Hear the Berry Schools Quartette

9:30 A. M. — SUNDAY — 8 P. M.

Central Presbyterian Church

A Warm Welcome Awaits You

"The Comings of Cousin Ann"

By Emma Speed Sampson

A novel of the Blue Grass Country, with characters that are live, lovable and laughable. A book even better than those other entertaining stories of Mrs. Sampson's, "Mammy's White Folks," "The Shorn Lamb," and the "Miss Minerva Books." Living with the people is a good thing for all of us, and in "The Comings of Cousin Ann" we really live with the interesting and amusing people Mrs. Sampson makes us know. A story of charm and cheer and change of lives.

AT ALL BOOKSTORES $1.75

Publishers REILLY & LEE Chicago

THE CONSTITUTION'S Bible Distribution COUPON

Two distinct styles of this wonderful Book of Books have been adopted for this great newspaper Bible distribution. One is the far-famed Red Letter Bible (Christ's sayings printed in red for immediate identification), and the Plain Print Bible for those who can spare but a nominal sum.

Only Three Coupons

Clip this coupon and two others and present or mail them to this paper with the sum set opposite either style, and come into possession of your Book of Books at once.

Style A—Red Letter Bible, ever-lasting limp black leather cover, red edges, round corners, gold lettering, large, clear print, these coupons and only $1.98

Style B—Plain Print Bible, flush limp black and gold leather cover, red edges, medium lettering, strong and durable, these coupons and only 98c

Mail Orders: Send amount for Style A or Style B with three of these coupons, and include 17 cents each additional for postage, packing and insurance.

NOTE: The Catholic Bible (Douay Version) can be supplied to readers desiring same. It is practically the same size and bound similar to Style A described above and is offered on the same terms, 2 coupons and $1.98, or by mail, $2.15.

A Chance for Every Reader to Get a New Bible

GERMANY ORDERS GOLD STANDARD

Continued from First Page.

women. When they attempted to protect the food shops the police were attacked by the mob. Many arrests were made.

The soaring prices and scarcity of food are accompanied by tremendous advances in the cost of fuel, and the newspapers are accusing the coal dealers of keeping pace in their charges with the dollar exchange rate, while salary increases lag weeks behind. The editors and writers of the left-leaning newspapers urge the severest measures against the so-called profiteers in fuel, food and other necessities, accusing them of taking advantage of the plight of their country to make in marks and then buy dollars and pounds sterling.

The municipal gas works, supplying two-thirds of Berlin, has been enjoined by court order from cutting off the gas supply in cases where the consumers refused to pay their bills. Consumers at mass meetings accused the officials of being altogether too timely in their remedies and accounts. The gas works officials, they also claimed, presented bills for the first half of September upon the basis of existing rates a few days ago.

SEVERAL WOUNDED AT SOLINGEN. Solingen, Rhenish Prussia, October 12.—Several persons were wounded when the police resorted to firearms in checking riotous activities by food demonstrators here last night. After mass meetings held to consider the high prices, parties of demonstrators began attacking shops where the prices were considered excessive. Many windows were broken and considerable damage done before the police intervened.

Thousands of women who assembled at the Rathaus were given the burgomaster's assurance that nothing possible would be done to relieve the situation.

SHOPS PLUNDERED AT COLOGNE. Cologne, October 12.—A number of shops, including at least one haberdashery, occurred here late yesterday when crowds, aroused because of the high prices, began attacking and plundering warehouses and food shops and became engaged in clashes with the police.

STORES RAIDED AT WIESBADEN. Wiesbaden, Hesse-Nassau, October 12.—Windows of food stores were smashed and provisions seized by demonstrators who became enraged when the merchants demanded payment in French francs. The local commission has promised to take measures designed to hold prices down.

GERMAN MINERS SIGN AGREEMENT. Dusseldorf, October 12.—(By The Associated Press.) A three-year agreement has been signed between the German miners' unions and the French authorities for the return to work of all the strikers and officials of the Dortmund mine, one of the largest in the Ruhr, which the French occupied some time ago to exploit it themselves. A similar agreement was made for the Bergfeld mine in the same district.

Under the agreement all the expelled miners' officials and office employees are allowed to return. The agreement is expected to serve as a model for similar settlements with the other big mines. Under the agreement the miners' officials, directors and office employees will have the same working hours as obtain in mines not occupied by the French. The workers' council law and other German workers' laws are fully recognized by the French. The social and insurance laws, such as accident, sick, invalid and pension insurance, to remain as before. As soon as the miners resume work all French sentries or other signs of military occupation will be immediately withdrawn. All the German organizations for mine administration, such as police and fire protection, will remain in force as before the occupation.

FIRST REFORM MEASURE PROCLAIMED. Berlin, October 12.—(By The Associated Press.)—With the outcome of tomorrow's vote the authorization bill for dictatorial economic authority still in doubt, Chancellor Stresemann last night determined to eliminate the risk of a vote against the present. Equipped with the extraordinary mandate conferred upon him by President Ebert, the chancellor determined to proclaim the first of his dictatorial reform measures. This comprises an order for the freeing of the employment of the gold standard for all taxes, in place of the existing method of levying assessments on the paper mark and collecting them months afterward in further depreciated currency.

With its revenues from taxation established on a gold basis Chancellor Stresemann believes the first step will have been taken toward saving the nation's finances. Among further ordinances which are expected shortly to be dictated is one providing for drastic curtailment of the government's expenditures and the pruning of the official payroll. The government's initial procedure is considered to indicate that Chancellor Stresemann has determined to put aside further active consideration of the reletag and to rest his authority on President Ebert's mandate, so far as the chancellor's emergency measures are concerned.

100 PATRONS OF CAFE ROUNDED UP BY COPS

New York, October 12.—One hundred patrons of a cafe in the heart of Brooklyn's Latin quarter were held at the point of pistols in the hands of federal and police narcotic squads today in an early morning raid which netted seven prisoners. A cooperative nearly worth the raiders discovered $10,000 worth of narcotics is alleged to have been in the distributing base. The authorities reported taking over the telephones of the cafe and receiving ten calls for narcotics while the raid was in progress. Other officers were showered with bricks from the roofs of adjoining buildings when they went into the cafe garden to search for contraband. Police reserves were summoned to protect the thirty raiding officials.

T. G. PLUMMER DIES AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

Thornton G. Plummer, 20 years old, of 297 Lewiston street, died at a local hospital at an early hour Friday morning after a brief illness. He was well known in commercial circles, having been a star salesman on the staff of the Eureka Hose company, covering a large part of the southern territory for that company.

Mr. Plummer, through his business association with the Atlanta fire department, had won a number of friends among the fire fighters and Chief

THORNTON G. PLUMMER.

W. B. Cody and other officers of the department were among those who attended the brief funeral services held before the departure of the body for Newport, Ky. He had many friends also among the firefighters of practically all the cities of the southeastern states.

He was a member of Atlanta Lodge 78, B. P. O. E., and a short ceremony was conducted at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon under auspices of that organization in the chapel of Barclay & Brandon. This was followed by a brief funeral service also at the chapel at 3 o'clock at which Rev. Karl Reiser, officiating.

GREAT ORCHESTRA TO GIVE CONCERT SUNDAY

Continued from First Page.
out going into detail about them, all music lovers are reminded of the charm of the Mendelssohn number. This is an airy, delightful composition based upon Scottish airs and is impressive in the hands of the orchestra. The famous "Rugby's Cave" in the north of Scotland.

The "Les Preludes" of Liszt, is dramatic in its power, and will undoubtedly prove an extremely effective part of the program. "The Deluge" is a descriptive number, telling the story, in music, of the Biblical story of the Flood. Of Handel's "Largo" and Rossini's "Villanelle" it is unnecessary to speak—everybody knows and loves them both.

Crowd Arrangements. Special arrangements have been made by the directors of the symphony association to improve the handling of the huge crowd. Last Sunday, while more than 3,000 people packed the Howard theater, at least 2,000 were turned away for lack of room. This admission was made greater than had been anticipated, with the result that the disappointed ones jammed into the Howard entrance lobby and others as a result.

This week special police officers will be on duty at the theater to see that the waiting crowds stand in line. The entrance will be carefully roped off with one entrance for members of the association and one for the general public. The lines will be admitted in single file, thus avoiding any rush and scramble for seats.

WALTON SPLITS WITH CHIEF AIDE; FIRES 2

Continued from First Page.
Blake in connection with the governor's office and duties any further, and I most respectfully request that he be relieved from any further duties in this respect. Respectfully,
(Signed) "J. C. WALTON,"
Governor.

Both Walton Adherents. Blake, who came here from Muskogee, took a leading part in Governor Walton's election on the democratic ticket last November. When the governor took office Blake went with him as his secretary, and a few months later, when Dr. Bynum, then executive counselor, was appointed bank commissioner, he was made counselor.

ALICE, AFTER HAVING WENT OUT IN THE LATE AFTERNOON, WAS SEEN AT THE OFFICE, AFTER HAVING WENT OUT IN THE LATE AFTERNOON, WAS SEEN AT THE

At the time, it was said, he had never had any practical banking experience and therefore was unqualified to fill the office, but he answered his critics by declaring that his training in economics was tantamount to actual banking work. He holds the degree of doctor of philosophy.

Governor Walton said he had not decided upon those who he will appoint to succeed Blake and Bynum. Asked to define his attitude toward the state legislature, which has resolved itself into a court of impeachment to investigate the executive's official conduct, he said:

"We will let the legislature consume itself."

SOLONS TO PROBE KLAN AND WALTON, BOTH. Oklahoma City, Okla., October 12.—The state legislature, its plans virtually complete for a thorough investigation not only of impeachment charges against Governor J. C. Walton, but also of the Ku Klux Klan in Oklahoma as well, recessed late today until Monday afternoon. When the lower house closed its session today, two anti-Klan bills lay on the table. The first measures introduced in extraordinary session which convened yesterday. They were submitted by Representatives W. B. Thomsen, of Coal county, and John Garner, of Johnston county, and each was directed mainly at the wearing of masks.

A house committee of 23 members was named today to conduct the inquiry into records of state officers and the committee to consider the activities of the Klan will probably be named Monday.

COMPERS BRANDS "BORERS" AS FOES

Continued from First Page.
gate from Butte, Mont. "This is a convention of organized labor," he said, and "any man who is hostile to labor has no right in this convention. I feel that the action taken has clarified the atmosphere. I think we have been entirely too lenient toward those who have been boring from within. Those men who meet at midnight in the forest and plot not only against the government, but against the labor movement, can go ahead as they please, but they must do so outside the ranks of organized labor."

Taking up charges that the labor movement had lost in number, Mr. Compers declared that if there had been some dropping off in the official number of members it was due to the period of unemployment, to strikes and lockouts which had occurred during the sixteen months since the last convention. He asserted, however, that the confidence of the workers in the American Federation of Labor was strong in spite of the drives that had been made against organized labor.

Takes Shot at Bankers. "The American Bankers' association," said Compers as a parting remark, "at its last convention insisted that there must be a wage reduction, and a reduction suggested that the floodgates of immigration should be opened. I submit that if there is a movement to reduce wages, why do not these bankers start with themselves?"

At the closing session the convention approved a resolution calling for an investigation of charges that the present government of Venezuela is dictatorial and inquisitorial and that American citizens have been among prisoners confined in loathsome dungeons. If the charges are found true steps toward severance of relations between Venezuela and other American countries should be urged, the resolution provided.

Substantial increases in pay of postal workers to be asked of the sixty-eighth congress received the convention's endorsement. A resolution criticizing the American Bell Telephone company's relations with organized labor was referred to the executive council for action in connection with the Electrical Workers' union.

When nominations for president were made Miss Julia O'Conner, of Boston Electrical Workers' union, was called to preside over the convention. Many Important Resolutions. The convention, which was in session nearly two weeks, was marked by the decision of the delegates against formation of a separate party in connection with farmers and for continuation of the federation policy of acting on political matters through its non-partisan committee.

The federation's former stand for modification of the Volstead act to permit the people to have light wines and beer was reaffirmed. The radical element, which was in decided minority, was defeated in an attempt to change the system of organized labor along the line of "one big union" and the radical element was overwhelmingly outvoted on a resolution favoring recognition of soviet Russia, and the unseating of Dunne for communist activities. The conservative element also showed its strength.

The convention denounced the Ku Klux Klan, the Industrial Workers of the World and the fascist movement. It declared for election of federal judges, for checking courts in the use of injunctions, labor disputes and for a child labor amendment to the federal constitution.

Organization of workers in the steel industry, the textile industry of the south, office workers and women workers generally, laundry workers, teachers, bank employees and newspaper workers were among matters of purely union nature which were indorsed.

WASHINGTON COUNTY PREPARES FOR FAIR

Sandersville, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—Finishing touches are being put on the new poultry and automobile building on the fair grounds in this city. Everything is being put in shape for the 1923 fair which will be held here next week, beginning Tuesday.

President W. R. Lang, of the Washington County Fair association, stated Thursday afternoon that the fair will be a success. He said that the fair next week will eclipse all past efforts. Mr. Lang stated that a feature of the fair will be the poultry and swine exhibits, in the rear of his house.

Quiltman, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—Sheriff Clanton, Deputy Sheriff Sheffield and Frank Lastinger Wednesday seized a still in the northern part of the county, where the sheriff had gone to attach a car. Suspicious conduct by several white men led the sheriffs to investigate after he had secured the car and he made a search of the premises of Nathan Williams, where he found beer and a 50-gallon copper still. Williams was brought to Quiltman and placed in jail. He declared he found the still while hunting squirrels in the rear of his house.

Notice
The new Hart Schaffner & Marx style books are here. Get one FREE.

Today is the last day Sunday 'Dress up to the minute' in these Hart Schaffner & Marx finest silk-lined suits

Specially Priced
$45

YOU have to wear clothes. With such an opportunity as this—why not wear the best? You'll save money now and in the long run too. You'll be stylish and proud to say your suit is a Hart Schaffner & Marx.

Other special values at $29.75 and $33.75

Daniel Bros. Company

Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

Nettleton shoes 45-47-49 Peachtree

Stetson hats

W. L. Douglas

$7.00 and $8.00 SHOES

Many $5 and $6 Boys' $4 and $4.50

Because of our large production W. L. Douglas $7 and $8 shoes have the quality and value of many other shoes which are priced much higher.

Polo In Brown Kid. A gentleman's shoe, combining comfort with good looks.

W. L. Douglas name and portrait have stood for reliable, well made shoes for 37 years. The fixed retail price stamped at the factory insures full value for your money.

Buy W. L. Douglas shoes in our retail stores or of your dealer. Send for catalog if they are not sold where you live.

W. L. DOUGLAS SHOE CO. 210 Spark Street, Brockton, Mass.

W. L. Douglas Atlanta Store 11 PEACHTREE STREET OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

Scores of New, Snappy, Fall Styles

W. L. Douglas Atlanta Store 11 PEACHTREE STREET OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

W. L. Douglas

BRIDGE WORK PRAISED BY PARTY OF EXPERTS

Savannah, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—That work is progressing, as to quality of construction and speed of building, satisfactorily on the Savannah river bridge from Georgia to South Carolina was the verdict of a party of experts who inspected the work today. The party was headed by A. E. Loder, of Montgomery, district engineer of the federal bureau of public roads, and included also J. L. Cressap, of Tallahassee, Fla., state highway engineer of Florida; L. K. Cannon, of Lake City, Fla., one of the division highway engineers of Florida; W. A. Crossland, of Atlanta, senior highway engineer of Georgia; C. D. Speed, of Montgomery, head bridge engineer of the district office of the bureau of public roads, and E. P. McWhorter, Savannah division state highway engineer. The bridge is to be completed by the late spring. The party will inspect long stretches of the coastal highway, "Maine to Miami" route, an important link in which is this bridge at Savannah.

DISCLAIMS BIG STILL Says He Found It While Hunting Squirrels.

Quiltman, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—Sheriff Clanton, Deputy Sheriff Sheffield and Frank Lastinger Wednesday seized a still in the northern part of the county, where the sheriff had gone to attach a car. Suspicious conduct by several white men led the sheriffs to investigate after he had secured the car and he made a search of the premises of Nathan Williams, where he found beer and a 50-gallon copper still. Williams was brought to Quiltman and placed in jail. He declared he found the still while hunting squirrels in the rear of his house.

Notice
The new Hart Schaffner & Marx style books are here. Get one FREE.

Today is the last day Sunday 'Dress up to the minute' in these Hart Schaffner & Marx finest silk-lined suits

Specially Priced
$45

YOU have to wear clothes. With such an opportunity as this—why not wear the best? You'll save money now and in the long run too. You'll be stylish and proud to say your suit is a Hart Schaffner & Marx.

Other special values at $29.75 and $33.75

Daniel Bros. Company

Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

Nettleton shoes 45-47-49 Peachtree

Stetson hats

W. L. Douglas

$7.00 and $8.00 SHOES

Many $5 and $6 Boys' $4 and $4.50

Because of our large production W. L. Douglas $7 and $8 shoes have the quality and value of many other shoes which are priced much higher.

Polo In Brown Kid. A gentleman's shoe, combining comfort with good looks.

W. L. Douglas name and portrait have stood for reliable, well made shoes for 37 years. The fixed retail price stamped at the factory insures full value for your money.

Buy W. L. Douglas shoes in our retail stores or of your dealer. Send for catalog if they are not sold where you live.

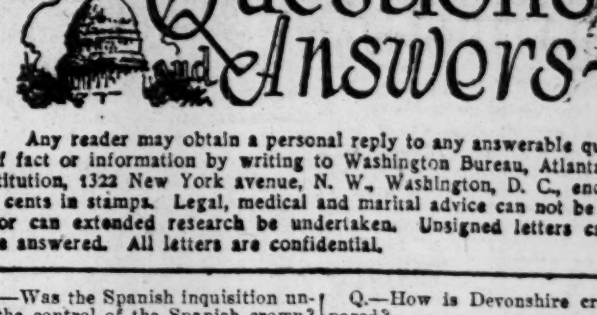

W. L. DOUGLAS SHOE CO. 210 Spark Street, Brockton, Mass.

W. L. Douglas Atlanta Store 11 PEACHTREE STREET OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

Scores of New, Snappy, Fall Styles

W. L. Douglas Atlanta Store 11 PEACHTREE STREET OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

W. L. Douglas

What of the Spanish crown?
—Yes.
—Do female rattlesnakes have fangs?
—Yes.
—How far could a professional er go in 131-2 hours?
—About 80 miles, allowing for half-hour rest periods in this time.
—What does the name "Lac
t Orellans" mean?
—This is corrupt French and a literally "ice lake of the short horns," which is topped lake.
—What widows of presidents received pensions of $5,000 a year?
—Mrs. Julia Tyler, Mrs. Polk,
Lincoln, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Garfield, Mrs. McKinley and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Q—Should olives be served fork?

A—A small pickle or oil may be used, or the olives taken with the fingers.

Q—Will you give the meaning and pronunciation of the term "Maundy money"?

A—This term is pronounced "er-an."

Q—What should be done with olives in chickens?

-How many states is it possible to enter?
 -About 80,000,000.
 -How are poisonous snakes identified?
 -By a deep pit located between the head and nostrils.
 -How many women are employed by real estate agents and dealers?
 -According to the 1920 census,
 100,000.
 -Who is the author of the following?
 -The author is the man who is almost afraid the aim should prevent so far as possible the of the infection. The first showing acute feverish symptoms this disease should be destroyed method with which the contamination of the premises infected blood. The carcass burned or deeply buried. The fowls should be moved to others if possible and carefully talk has come," the Walrus said, "of many of things: shoes—and ships—and sealing wax—and—

"abbages and kings"—"
—Lewis Carroll (Charles L. Dodgson) in "Through the Looking Glass"
—What is Roquefort cheese made of?
—Sheep's milk.

Y AGENT FINED FOLLOWING FIGHT WITH ATTORNEY

Washington, October 12.—The session also resulted in a vote of $10 being assumed against the bill by Federal Judge Sibley for contempt of court.

Mr. Sibley is said to have been provoked during the altercation, which started in the courtroom during the trial of "Big Red" Slaton on charges of violating the prohibition laws.

Sowell presented a question from the floor regarding the testimony and following conclusions of testimonies to action by what they described as apathy toward law enforcement leaders gathered here tonight for a three-day conference to bring the question to an issue.

Enforcement advocates for the future of the country, including members of the movement, made the eighteenth amendment part of the constitution, will approached that attorney stricken upon the cheek. Before other could be passed, bailiffs and court attaches separated the two.

The question asked by Attorney General who the prohibition agent was: "Isn't it true, Mr. Smith, that you are out on the stand and are anxious to fill out the cap timony?"

He replied in the negative and

In the corridor, he asked the attorney if he meant to imply that he was a liar. A dispute ensued over the matter. The case was struck, and the matter was then reported to Sibley, who summoned Sowell and fined him for contempt of court. In paying the amount of the fine in court, Sowell's friends made up the case and paid the fine.

WILL BE SCENE OF BIG SESSION

Senator W. Wayne Gibson met the heads of the Shrine organization and chairmen of committees last night at Shrine headquarters. Plans were made for the first ceremonial session of Yaarab.

"More than 850 delegates representing all religious and political groups will participate in the first session," he explained, adding that the world leaders will strengthen the force of the nation by stirring the country to the law observance."

A long list of speakers has been announced for the conference. It includes William G. Pinchot, of Pennsylvania.

COMMUNITY CHEST PLANS OUTLINED TO LEGION POST

Atlanta's social welfare agency in 1924 were outlined to Atlanta's largest Negro business and professional group, the Southern Negro College Teachers' Association, in a meeting held in the Kimbrey Roy P. Gates, director of the organization, was told of the aims and purposes of the chest and of the results that have been accomplished by similar movements in other cities. Mr. Gates showed that practically every Atlanta agency will be represented in the drive.

A regular monthly meeting of the Atlanta Lawyers' club, The Southern Negro College Teachers' Association, the address was "Constitutional Law."

Lights for Pageant
Bainbridge, Ga., October 12.—The lights will be installed in the city of Bainbridge for the Pageant of the Centennial pageant next Friday night at 2 o'clock. Twilight in the organization as chambers, and that the one coming in September, 1900, will hold the large number of separate trials held each year in the past. The regular report on the movement was by Mr. Gates Thursday night at the Atlanta Lawyers' club at regular monthly session.

In Justiss Defense

ations that a number of on witnesses would be called to in the trial of Mrs. Ollie Jusbro shot and fatally wounded reethart, Dewitt Turner, while at the wheel of his automobile in the city of Athens, Ga., on Oct. 12.

from a trip several points in and south Georgia. Mr. Hol- declined to divulge the points or the nature of his investigation, merely stating that he had information that will prove importance to his client, and had sent for a number of persons to whom he will be capable of giving reliable information.

John A. Boykin, chief forensic investigator of Plainfield, N. J., is also attending the convention here October 31.

are fast completing their case expected that a definite date is set for the trial in a few large crowd is attending. 8 are held in a tent near the Dinner will be served on the each day.

TECH AND FLORIDA CLASH AT GRANT FIELD TODAY

Gator Machine Is Primed For Chance at Jacket Team; Bob Reeves Will Not Play

Remainder of Squad in Excellent Shape. Teams Are Evenly Matched—Florida Special To Arrive This Morning.

BY JOHN STATION.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on Grant Field, the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets will attempt to puncture the tough hide of the Florida Alligators. The game will offer one of the classic attractions of the football schedule, for the two teams are evenly matched.

The winner will in all probability be that team which for sixty minutes puts out the better brand of football; charging in the line, and drive in the backfield.

Florida is set and primed for this game. It is the biggest thing on their schedule. Allow a quotation from the University of Florida publicity bureau: "Florida counted its battle with the Army as a big one, but the headline attraction, and the one to which she is attaching the most importance, is none other than the little mix-up with the Tech team, coming so close after the northern invasion, the Yellow Jacket battle is to be considered highly unfortunate, but it is going to be a fight from start to finish, if the statements of the Florida gridgers can be taken to mean anything."

That is the typical Florida attitude, not only at the university, but throughout the whole of the state. This is the big gun for Florida, and team, students, alumni, and native Floridians are going to exert the utmost effort in order to gain a victory over the Yellow Jackets.

Albert Hill, quarterback on the famous Tech machine of 1917, arrived in town yesterday for the game. He says that there is not a man, woman, or child left in Jacksonville, the sheriff, the mayor, all the aldermen, and most of the citizens are on the grounds waiting for the game to begin. They are here to cheer Florida on to victory.

All of yesterday and until a late hour last night cars were arriving from the university. Schools must have been dismissed for students seem to come from everywhere. They are coming in Ford, box cars, or any other conceivable means of conveyance.

By this afternoon nearly the whole student body should be on hand.

Reeves Out on Injury. Bob Reeves, who played so brilliantly against V. M. I., will not be in the Tech line-up. Bob incurred an injury in that game which has not submitted to treatment. Coach Alexander does not wish to run the risk of having him out for the season, which would happen. So, Bob, from the bench, will probably watch his team-mates battle.

No doubt Carter will start at quarter, Hunter and Farnsworth at halves and Wyoff fullback.

Outside of Reeves the remainder of the Tech team is in prime shape. Not a man on the team will be materially slowed up, due to an injury of any sort.

Florida has been spending the week at Gainesville, Ga., in preparation for this battle. They did not wish to ride all the way home and then come all the way back to Atlanta within a few days.

Practice at Gainesville has been according to the plan, and allowed to witness the daily work of the "Gator machine." Florida will not arrive in town until this morning sometime. They will go directly to the Georgia Terrace until time for the game. Reports coming over the wire from Gainesville last night stated that Florida was in fine shape, and had become thoroughly acclimated to the water, weather, and the like.

The probable lineup:

TECH. STATION. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

FLORIDA. Lightsey. Merkle. Williams. Norton. Farnsworth. Cornwell. Carter. Jones. Merrin. Wyoff. Middlekuff.

Miss Rosalie Mayer Wins Invitation Tournament

LANIER HIGH EASY WINNER

Macon, Ga., October 12.—(Special.) Lanier High school swamped the Sixth District Aggies, from Barnesville, here this afternoon by the score of 27 to 0. The farmer boys did not threaten at any time during the game.

The first touchdown came in the first three minutes of play when Johnson sent a forward pass to Car-gill, who ran 15 yards. Lanier's aerial attack completely dazed the Aggies, and, although the visitors had a much heavier team, they were at the mercy of the Lanier line.

For the Aggies, Captain Hawkins, at fullback, and Wilson, center, were the shining lights. Hawkins was the only backfield man who was able to make any noticeable gain through the Lanier line and Wilson looked best on the defense.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

For Lanier, Johnson made two of the touchdowns and was especially good on the end runs; likewise Captain Capner. Other Lanier players who starred were Burkett, at tackle; Corbin, fullback, and Cassidy, right end.

Important Grid Games

Home Team. Opponents. At.

Alabama Polytechnic. Howard. Auburn.

Arkansas. Little Rock. Little Rock.

Baylor. Coll. P. S. Waco.

Bellingham. Carroll. Bellingham.

Beloit. Geneva. Beloit.

Birmingham-Southern. Mississippi. Birmingham.

Bucknell. Syracuse. Syracuse.

Case. Oberlin. Cleveland.

Catholic University. Randolph-Macon. Washington.

Centre. Danville. Danville.

Chattanooga. Cumberland. Chattanooga.

Colorado. State Teachers. Boulder.

Colorado Agricultural. Brigham Young. Fort Collins.

Cornell. Williams. Ithaca.

Dartmouth. Boston University. Hanover.

Davidson. The Citadel. Davidson.

Dayton. Transylvania. Dayton.

Delaware. Ursinus. Newark.

Detroit. Detroit. Detroit.

Drexel. St. Joseph's. Philadelphia.

Emory-Henry. Kentucky Wesleyan. Big Stone Gap.

Furman. Presbyterian College. Greenville.

Georgia Tech. Western Maryland. Georgetown (Ky.).

Harrisburg. Lincoln University. Harrisburg.

Harvard. Middlebury. Cambridge.

Holy Cross. Providence. Washington.

Howard Payne. Virginia Theological. San Antonio.

Illinois. Butler. Urbana.

Illinois Western. Augustana. Bloomington.

Indiana. Northwestern. Indianapolis.

Iowa. Purdue. Iowa.

Kentucky. Mount Vernon. Lexington.

Lafayette. F. & M. Easton.

Lenoir. Newberry. Hickory.

Louisiana State. Spring Hill. Baton Rouge.

Louisville. M. Harvey. Louisville.

Marshall. Louisiana Normal. Huntington.

Maryland. Richmond. College Park.

Michigan. Vanderbilt. Ann Arbor.

Mississippi. Southwestern Presbyterian. Oxford.

Missouri. Ouachita. A. & M. Columbia.

New York University. Ames. New York.

Northwestern College. Chicago. Y. M. C. A. Naperville.

Ohio State. Colgate. Columbus.

Ohio Western. Ohio Northern. Delaware.

Pennsylvania. Swarthmore. Swarthmore.

Pennsylvania State. State College. State College.

Philadelphia. Andover. Andover.

Pittsburgh. West Virginia University. Pittsburgh.

Princeton. Princeton. Princeton.

MERCER RATS ARE DEFEATED

Auburn, Ala., October 12.—(Special.)—The Auburn freshmen were victorious in a hard-fought contest this afternoon with the Mercer freshmen, by a score of 12 to 7. The game was played at the Opelika fair grounds, and was widely attended by Opelika and scores of Auburn students. Those in the grandstand were receiving the returns on the world series.

The scrap began with Moulton kicking a long one for Auburn, after which Mercer tried a couple of plays into the line without any substantial gains. They then kicked a short high one which placed the Newell freshmen in a threatening position.

Address Auburn's right half, who gave the ball and in a quartet of tries placed the oval within striking distance and Turner, running from fullback, carried it over the initial counter. Moulton failed to kick goal.

Auburn's next touchdown was a duplicate performance of the first. Address was assigned the task of advancing the ball to the danger zone and the same fullback, Mr. Turner, again gained the spotlight by hitting the Baptist line in an off-balance play for the second and last counter. The ball was carried over at the spot as the first one. Moulton's kick barely missed for the extra point.

The game was void of thrilling play with the exception of an occasional line buck for good yardage.

Captain Lawrence, of the Mercer team, the sort-of leader and quarter, and a kinsman of the Auburn Tigers' pivot man, Fat Lawrence, gave those still watching the contest a treat. He first sent Stine, Mercer's half, around left end for a 35-yard run, after which he tossed a 40-yard pass to Bradley, who again gained the goal line.

The Mercer team made its extra point by kicking goal.

Plenty of fight was evidenced on both sides. Auburn showed better offensive, better interference, and out-kicked the visitors.

which will be classed as championship.

Sig Haugdahl and his three-mile-a-hour special, which he drove at the rate of 150.27 miles per hour at Daytona Beach, Fla., will be in a lower the world's mile oval track record. In addition to his big beach car the Norwegian driver has entered a car in the world which has won every competitive event in which it has finished.

Fred Rouse, former world's dirt-track champion and present holder of more long distance records than any other dirt-track driver, is also in the day's events and he will also drive a Fiat, a mate for the Haugdahl model, but built along different body lines.

Julius Ellingboe, speedway Frontenac driver, who took third money in the annual 500-mile classic two years ago and wrecked in a straight race at the free-for-all. He is also entered in the free-for-all. He will be seen locally at the wheel of a Duesenberg and it is said that his entrance in the Atlanta events is his first step in regaining his lost title of southern champion which he held until Haugdahl entered the field.

Burr Lumpkin, famed British driver and present holder of the Dominion championship, will drive his Indianapolis speedway winning Peugeot the same machine which won the southern sweepstakes on the local oval last Saturday.

Fred Leckler, driving a Stutz Special, Larry Stone, Simplex pilot, and Pon Daily, veteran Cuban driver, will also be in the heavy-car races and in the free-for-all event.

Jack Petticoat, head of Essex racing team, who will drive his Essex Stray Streak, and Cleo Scales, Fronty Ford, are picked for winners in the light-car races, but will find competition in Robin Hood, who will drive a Gray Dori and in Ray Claypool, pilot of a Premier Special.

Miss Mayer Wins 11th.

Miss Mayer won the 11th with a 5; her third was on the green. Mrs. Atkinson was over on her 4th and was down with her 6th. Miss Mayer going 2 up again. On the 12th Miss Mayer drove over the green; Mrs. Atkinson was in the ditch on her drive but played out of the ditch and holed out with a par 3. Miss Mayer

On the 13th Miss Mayer drove over the green; Mrs. Atkinson was in the ditch on her drive but played out of the ditch and holed out with a par 3. Miss Mayer

On the 14th Miss Mayer drove over the green; Mrs. Atkinson was in the ditch on her drive but played out of the ditch and holed out with a par 3. Miss Mayer

On the 15th Miss Mayer drove over the green; Mrs. Atkinson was in the ditch on her drive but played out of the ditch and holed out with a par 3. Miss Mayer

On the 16th Miss Mayer drove over the green; Mrs. Atkinson was in the ditch on her drive but played out of the ditch and holed out with a par 3. Miss Mayer

On the 17th Miss Mayer drove over the green; Mrs. Atkinson was in the ditch on her drive but played out of the ditch and holed out with a par 3. Miss Mayer

On the 18th Miss Mayer drove over the green; Mrs. Atkinson was in the ditch on her drive but played out of the ditch and holed out with a par 3. Miss Mayer

On the 19th Miss Mayer drove over the green; Mrs. Atkinson was in the ditch on her drive but played out of the ditch and holed out with a par 3. Miss Mayer

On the 20th Miss Mayer drove over the green; Mrs. Atkinson was in the ditch on her drive but played out of the ditch and holed out with a par 3. Miss Mayer

On the 21st Miss Mayer drove over the green; Mrs. Atkinson was in the ditch on her

News of Society
and
Woman's WorkTHE CONSTITUTION'S
DAILY WOMAN'S MAGAZINEFeatures Which Will Interest
Every WomanDr. and Mrs. Daniel Are Tendered
Reception by Church Members

The members of the First Baptist church entertained at an informal reception Friday evening in the Sunday school quarters of the church in compliment to Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Daniel who recently returned from an extended European trip. They were in attendance upon the meeting of the Baptist World Alliance in Stockholm, Sweden, and later toured Europe and the Holy Land.

The reception rooms were decorated throughout with a profusion of Spanish moss, amaranth and autumn leaves. The refreshments were served from a long table placed in one corner of the room and afforded a picturesque scene in its decoration. Adorning the center of the table was a miniature ship. Masses of Spanish moss formed tiny islands around the central decoration. Unadorned tapers burning in pine urns used for candlesticks cast a soft glow over the unique effect.

The punch bowls were embedded in amaranth and autumn leaves with clusters of vari-colored grapes gracefully hanging around the outer edge.

Receiving with Dr. and Mrs. Daniel were the officials of the church and their wives.

Musical numbers were rendered during the evening by members of the choir. Mrs. William Molena, soloist.

Drama League Players Will Repeat Play for College Women

Quintero Brothers' comedy, "A Sunny Morning," will be presented by a group of Drama League players at the first regular meeting of the American Association of University Women Wednesday, October 17, at the Druid Hills Golf club.

This delightful play, of Spanish theme, was produced October 4 on the lawns of the beautiful estate of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Stalon and marked the inauguration of the 1922-23 season of the Drama League. The same players who rendered such artistic interpretations at that time will take part in the production before the college women, and as before, a picturesque background will be provided.

Mrs. John Stalon, Miss Erskine Jarnagin, Cyril Smith and George Harris will interpret the four characters of the play.

The production will follow a short business meeting at which Mrs. E. K. Large, the president of the Atlanta group of the American Association of University Women, will preside.

Members are requested to notify Mrs. Frederick Peace, chairman of the program committee, Hemlock 2020-W, whether they will attend. Prospective members are cordially urged to be present on this occasion.

Miss Fay McCown
Will Be Hostess
At Bridge-Tea

Miss Fay McCown will entertain at a bridge-tea this afternoon at her home in West End in compliment to Miss Lucile Chancellor, a popular bride-elect of next week.

Mrs. R. J. Young, mother of the hostess, will assist in entertaining. Invited to meet the attractive honor guest are Miss Lois Verner, Miss Claire Louise Scott, Miss Elizabeth Wesley, Miss Martha Tomlinson, Miss Nell Veal, Miss Gladys Hicks, Miss Estelle Lindsey, Miss Marion Cook, Miss Carolyn Simmons, Miss Frances Wimberly, Miss Grace McCown, Miss Mary Lowry, Miss Mary Brishen, Mrs. Frank Kempton, Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. Max Fitzpatrick, Mrs. G. C. Speer, Mrs. Frank Ashurst, Mrs. Leroy Stevens, Mrs. E. D. Freeman, Mrs. T. S. Chancellor, Mrs. T. E. Gentry and Mrs. John L. Cody.

Phi Pi Sorority
Announces Date
For Annual Dance

The Phi Pi sorority of Washington seminary have announced Friday evening, October 26, for their annual subscription dance to be given at Garber hall.

This is an annual affair and Miss Irene Thomas, president of the sorority, announces the dance to be given for the benefit of the Buford memorial home and the Alice Chandler library.

The Phi Pi sorority is composed of a number of the younger society set of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Russ
Return To Atlanta
For Residence

Mr. and Mrs. Eben George Russ, who have been making their home in New York for several years, have returned to Atlanta for residence and are at present at the Georgian Terrace. They will be cordially welcomed into Atlanta's exclusive social circles.

Miss Russ, a great belle and beauty in her girlhood and is a very charming, cultured and attractive young woman.

Mr. and Mrs. Russ have traveled extensively since their marriage. They spent the past summer in Canada and have recently returned from an extended visit abroad. Mrs. Russ is a sister of Mrs. Harry L. Stearns, one of the most admired matrons identified with Atlanta society.

Mrs. Frank Kempton
Honors Bride-Elect.

Mrs. Frank Kempton entertained at a beautiful luncheon Friday at the East Lake Country club, complimenting Miss Lucile Virginia Chancellor, whose marriage to Phil A. Trimble will be an event of next week.

The luncheon table was placed in the sun parlor of the club and was covered with a flet cloth. The center was occupied by a basket of pink and white dahlias and roses, encircled by tiny figures of brides and grooms. Pink and white mints in Tiffany compartments enhanced the appointments. Hand-painted kewpies formed the place cards.

Mrs. Kempton was gowning in a tulle model of brown point twill outlined with gold braid and worn with a brown hat of velvet combined with fur.

Rummage Sale
At Farmers' Market.

The ladies of the Druid Hills Presbyterian church, Circle No. 1, will conduct a rummage sale at the Farmers' market on Courtland street, next to the Auditorium, on Saturday, October 13.

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. Francis Downing and Miss Charlotte Wilkins will entertain at a luncheon in honor of Miss Margaret Pratt.

The members of the Chi Phi fraternity will entertain at a tea-dance following the Tech-Florida football game.

Dinner-dance at Piedmont Driving club.

Week-end dinner-dance at East Lake Country club.

Mrs. Frank Orme and Mrs. Seymour Thompson will be hostesses at a bridge-tea at the home of Mrs. Thompson in Druid Hills in compliment to Miss Margaret Pratt, a bride-elect.

Miss Fay McCown will be hostess at a bridge-tea this afternoon at her home in West End in compliment to Miss Lucile Chancellor, a bride-elect.

Miss Douglas Paine will entertain at the dinner-dance this evening at the Piedmont Driving club in honor of Miss Anne Grant and Frank Owens, whose marriage will take place Wednesday, October 24.

A special dance will be given by the Masons at Segado's hall this evening.

A special dance will be given this evening at Garber hall for the members of the college set, under the supervision of Ed Merritt and Joe Eckford.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Arnold will compliment Miss Maude Hurt Carlton and Herman Bayne Evans at dinner this evening at the Piedmont Driving club.

Mrs. Sam Wilkins will entertain at a bridge-luncheon at her home in compliment to Miss Sara Morris, of Augusta, the guest of Mrs. Arthur Harris.

Miss Helen Lamar will entertain at a bridge party at the East Lake Country club.

Mrs. Coolidge Is Hostess at Luncheon.

Mrs. Middleton McDonald, of Americus, Ga., the guest of Mrs. Norman Coolidge, and Miss Margaret Pratt, a bride-elect, were complimented at a luncheon at which Mrs. Norman Coolidge entertained Friday at the Piedmont Driving club.

The appointments of the luncheon table were beautifully suggestive of a wedding. The center was a silver basket of white bride's roses encircled by white candles in silver candlesticks and composed of white mints. Figures of brides marked the guests' places. The guests were Miss Pratt, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Sherwood Hurt, Mrs. Ralph Bardwell, Miss Teleside Pratt, Miss Dolly Hart, Miss Frances Powell, Miss Charlotte Wilkins and Miss Henrietta Davis.

"Power of Faith" To Be Subject of Lecture.

"The Power of Faith" will be the subject of the lecture to be given by Mrs. Rose Mae Ashby Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the assembly room of the Carnegie library. This will be a practical and helpful talk, interpreting the working of faith in all affairs of life. All who are interested are invited to attend.

Rich's Golden Harvest Sale

Today only, 1,000 Pairs Women's High-Grade Shoes, former price $10.00 the pair

No. 5893	Sale Price	$5.85	PAIR	Values to $10
	—Beige Suede —Brown Suede —Black Satin —Patent Leather
No. 5679	$5.85	$5.85
	—Black Satin —Patent Leather
No. 882	$5.85	$5.85
	—Beige Suede —Black Suede
No. 877	$5.85	$5.85
	—Beige Suede —Black Satin
No. 874	$5.85	$5.85
	—Log Cabin Kid —Black Suede

MAIL ORDERS—These are wonderful values and in some styles only have few pairs, "all sizes not included." Please give first and second choice.

M. Rich & Bros. Company

Masonic Club Will Sponsor Program.

The Fort McPherson Masonic club will sponsor the Post Service at the Fort McPherson chapel Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

A special musical program has been arranged; also an appropriate sermon will be preached by Chaplain L. D. Miller.

The chapel choir is under the direction of Frederick Self of St. Phillips cathedral.

Everybody invited and a special invitation is given to the residents of Atlanta to attend this army service.

Carlton-Evins Bridal Party
Is Entertained at Supper

Miss Elizabeth Kontz was hostess Friday evening at her home on Piedmont avenue at a bridge-supper, the lovely affair complimenting Miss Maude Carlton and Herman Bayne Evans, whose wedding will be a brilliant event, taking place October 23.

The guests, who included the members of the wedding party of Miss Carlton and Mr. Evans, were seated for supper at a beautifully appointed table which held in the center a lovely low bowl of asters, chrysanthemums and roses in effective arrangement. Silver candelabra held unshaded tapers and hand-painted cards marked the places of the guests.

Following supper, bridge was played by Miss Maude Carlton and Herman Bayne Evans.

ed. The guest and score prizes were attractive French novelties.

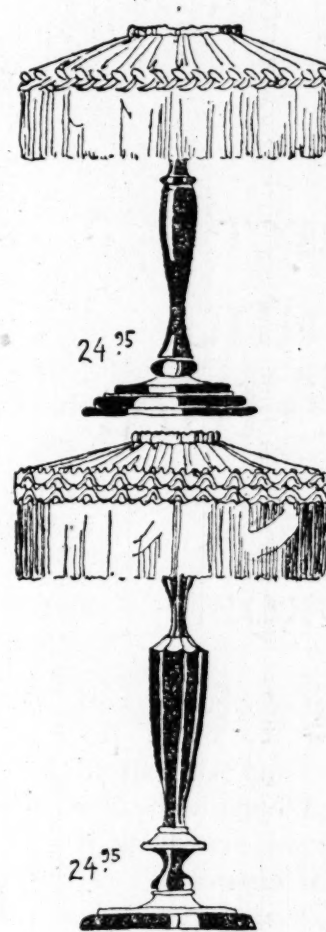

Miss Kontz received her guest wearing a gown of blue broadcloth with the draped skirt caught with crystal ornament. She was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. E. C. Kontz, who wore a dinner gown of black crepe embroidered in jet beads.

Miss Carlton's smart toilette was of black velvet trimmed in ermine.

Covers were placed for Misses Carlton, Henrietta Tupper, Henrietta Davis, Elizabeth Kontz, Janet Evans and Quennelle Harrold, of America's John S. Rumm, William Freeman, Joe Healy, Bruce Wooltruff, William Hurt Sibley, Harry Dobbs and Herman Bayne Evans.

M. Rich & Bros. Company
What Remarkably Good News! 200 MORE of Those Beautiful New Lamps

Floor Lamps, Table Lamps, Bridge Lamps—All
New—Should Be $30 to $50—Duplicate Lamps of Those That Sold Out in a Day Last Week!

$24.95

—An amazing opportunity for those going into new apartments or homes, this fall—for those who have been looking for a lamp to beautify their present homes! If you were so unfortunate as to NOT get one last week at $24.95—NOW is your chance!

The Harvest Sale Price,
$24.95, Is for Lamp and Shade COMPLETE

—Various of the styles are illustrated here; 200 of them altogether—the very kind of lamps that should, even today, be selling at from $30 to $50. One of our regular factories taking an interest in our Harvest Sale let us have 200 MORE at the same great concessions. Depend upon it! Every one is well constructed. Every one is beautiful in design! Don't wait a minute. We expect the 200 to sell out quickly.

—Rich's, Fourth Floor

Four-Piece Bedroom Suites $99.75

—We don't ever remember having a better furniture value. There is a vanity with large, triple bevel-plated mirror. Full-sized bow-end bed, chiffonier and bench.

—You may select from four finishes—gray and blue ivory and gold; walnut or mahogany. Harvest Sale price, $99.75.

Pay on the Household
Club Plan

—Make a nominal first payment, have the goods sent home, and pay the balance a little at a time without interest charges.

Overstuffed Living Room Suite

Regularly Priced $225
$149.75
Take Ten Months to Pay

—You have probably seen this very suite, and admired it, at its regular price of $225! Think now, of buying it for $75.25 less!

—It's pictured above, actually sketched from the suite. Luxuriously overstuffed, with a soft-toned covering of good quality velours or tapestry. Outside finished in same material as front. Comfortable spring back on every piece.

—The davenport is full 84 inches. Just 12 suites to be sold at this price!

—Rich's, Fourth Floor

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

Noted Artist Will Inaugurate Music Club's Concert Series

The Atlanta Music club has chosen to inaugurate its concert work of the fall the greatest dramatic soprano now singing in America, "Los Rains," of the Chicago Opera company, has never before sung in the southeast, but when she and her fellow Chicago star, Giacomo Rimini, open at the civic concert series at the auditorium on the evening of October 30, Atlanta music lovers will be dazzled by a voice which, according to the veteran critic, Henry T. Finck, is the greatest woman's operatic voice of the past two decades.

It will be a glorious beginning to a season which also includes the immortal Padernawski; Louis Gravenre, that master of bel canto and of fascinating song programs; Erika Morini, the sensational young woman violinist and the Ukrainian chorus.

Madame Rains is a native of Russian Poland, which has produced many wonderful voices. In this land of stormy scenes and bloody revolts, a score of years ago, she began her climb to stellar heights; and it was the massacre of Kiev which finally drove her for safety to Italy, where she soon was to register her first triumphs, after studying with Madame Marchisio.

Her debut was made on the occasion of the Verdi centenary, and she scored an immediate success. She later sang in many of the great opera houses of Italy, and was heard by Campanini, who immediately engaged her for the Chicago Grand Opera company.

Her work in Chicago, where she was made leading dramatic soprano, created great local interest, but it was not until her sensational debut in New York with the Chicago company, that her real triumph was recorded. The metropolitan critics could not find words of praise adequate to do her work justice. As Max Smith, of the American, wrote: "Rosa Rains brought with her the most glorious voice that any woman now living has been given by nature, a voice that seemingly encompasses,

Rosa Rains, of the Chicago Opera company, and noted concert artist, who, with Giacomo Rimini, will inaugurate the Atlanta Music club's concert series at the Auditorium on the evening of October 30.

that sweeps from the warm sonorities of a contralto to the fine spun graces of a lyric soprano, that sounds the

Colorado Visitor To Be Entertained By Mr. and Mrs. Speir

Mrs. R. E. Tebeau, of Denver, Col., will arrive Monday, October 15, to be the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Caldwell Speir. Before her marriage Mrs. Tebeau was the beautiful Miss Marie Ward, of Kansas City.

She will be one of the out-of-town guests at the Chancellor-Trimble wedding, which will be a social event of Wednesday evening.

A number of social affairs have been planned in Mrs. Tebeau's honor. Mrs. Speir will give a large tea, the date to be announced later. Mrs. C. F. Blount will give a luncheon and theater party Thursday for Mrs. Tebeau. Mrs. Carling Dinkler will entertain at a luncheon Friday in her honor. Mr. and Mrs. Speir will entertain a large party at the Halloween ball at the Capital City club.

Mr. and Mrs. Speir will entertain the Chancellor-Trimble wedding party and out-of-town guests, following the wedding rehearsal Tuesday evening, with a dinner and dance at the Druid Hills Golf club.

depths of tragedy, or exults in florid joy, that swells into vibrant gold, ear-filling, heart-searching, compelling, or tapers into filigree silver, delicate as a gossamer thread. No wonder the audience shouted approval, drowning out the orchestra's postlude entirely.

With Rains will come Giacomo Rimini, a baritone of the Chicago Opera company, whose resonant voice will be heard both in solos and in concerted numbers with the diva.

This opening concert is expected to set at once the standard for the entire civic concert series, which is to be one of the most magnificent outpourings of musical art that Atlanta has ever heard.

J. P. ALLEN & CO.
49-53 Whitehall

CORRECT Street and Sport Attire

OF THE WINTER WARDROBE

THE Allen October offering of sport attire—frocks, top coats, jackets, chappie coats and skirts afford an almost unlimited opportunity for satisfactory selection—everything is exclusive—nothing is expensive.

We retain highly specialized fashion experts in New York who daily add to our showing of correct things to wear.

Sport Frocks of Plaid Wools and Wool Twills $35

Slim-line—collar, cuffs and pockets of some smart contrast—this is the only adornment—belted or belted—the plaid frocks are very girlish, very unique—small checks of two-tone—or plaided of 3 or more colors. Everything is new—even the line arrangement of the plaids.

The Wool Twill Frocks

Many are coat frocks with one large button side-fastening—others have an embroidered band from chin to hem—very extreme, exceedingly smart.

Fur-Fabric Jacquettes—Fox Collars

Smart, snappy little coatees they are, with luxurious fox collar—and then prices are so very modest.

$21.75 to $28

J. P. Allen & Co.

Colorado Visitor To Be Entertained By Mr. and Mrs. Speir

The Camp Fire program for girls is being adopted to such an extent in Atlanta that it becomes necessary to organize a local council. It must be remembered, however, that Camp Fire is a program and not an organization. In other words, what the national directors hope to see accomplished is the extended use of the Camp Fire Girls program by schools, churches and other similar organizations for the building up of the community rather than the construction in each community of a separate organization.

The main function of the local council, in every case, is to interpret the Camp Fire movement to the city or territory under its jurisdiction. It is its duty to supervise the raising and expenditure of the annual budget; to arrange for the annual audit and to meet often enough to supervise the carrying out of the general policies of the Camp Fire program in its community.

Atlanta must have a paid executive to direct the Camp Fire activities in Atlanta and a central office. In all the cities which are now supporting a Camp Fire executive and local offices under the general supervision of a local council, money has been raised locally by drives for the purpose or through grants made through community chests, and no portion of the funds so raised, is spent by the national headquarters. These funds are all expended in carrying on and extending Camp Fire work in the territory under the jurisdiction of the local council.

The following members have been appointed to the new local council being organized: Governor and Mrs. Clifford Walker, Mayor Walter Sims, T. C. Erwin, Joseph McCord, R. M. Striplin, Mrs. Alonso Richardson, Mrs. Charles Goodman, Mrs. B. M. Boykin, C. D. Atkinson, Armond Carroll, Mrs. Edward Van Winkle, Mrs. Rix Stafford, Miss Mildred Canine, Miss Rosemary Stevenson, Mrs. J. N. McEachern, Mrs. Murray Hubbard, Mrs. W. T. Carnes, Mrs. W. O. Alston, Mrs. Lee Jordan, Mrs. John T. Thompson, Mrs. Porter Langston, Rev. C. J. Harrell, Mrs. Bruce Baxter, Mrs. Carl Lewis, Mrs. I. N. Stowe, Mrs. Annie Burch, Mrs. W. P. Lemmon.

Those of the original committee working for Camp Fire are Mrs. George Wight, chairman; Mrs. Frank Mason, Mrs. R. K. Moore, Miss Adie Lou Gilbert, Mrs. Miffin Hood, Mrs. J. N. McEachern, Mrs. Frank McCormack, Mrs. Henry Stakely, Mrs. Henry Center, Miss Frances Howard and Mrs. Tom Brooke.

Many Parties Are Held at Club. Marietta, Ga., October 12.—The tea given by the Marietta Woman's club at the home of Mrs. S. C. McEachern Thursday afternoon was a beautiful affair. The spacious rooms were decorated in varicolored dahlias. Numbers of parties were entertained. Mrs. L. B. Robeson was hostess to her forty-two club, entertaining four tables.

Mrs. J. M. Fowler entertained three tables of bridge, her guests being Mrs. Sam Brannan, of Gravenwood; Mrs. Fred Grainger, of Spring Hill; Mrs. William McEachern, Mrs. Fred Legg, Mrs. W. E. Benson, Mrs. J. D. Reynolds, Mrs. P. D. Heiser, Mrs. W. E. Roberts, Mrs. Fred Burkhaw, Mrs. John Boston and Miss Annie May Dixon.

Mrs. T. W. Read, Sr., entertained a table of forty-two for Mrs. Lula Brewer, of Elberton, Mrs. George D. Anderson, Mrs. J. J. Daniel and Mrs. M. D. Roberts. Miss George Hunt's guests for bridge were Mrs. Helena Beechey, Miss Louise Moor, Mildred Nelms, Elizabeth Hester, Mrs. Ann Bush, Aimee D. Glover and Frances Holder. Mrs. S. C. McEachern entertained for Mrs. Hutchins, of Smyrna, Mrs. George H. Keeler, Mrs. Fannie Dreyant and Mrs. W. A. DuPre.

Bridge was played by Mrs. Grady Conway's guests who were Mrs. Carl Hester, Mrs. J. J. Black, Jr., Mrs. Malcolm Whitlock, Mrs. Robert Goodman, Misses Virginia Boston, Elizabeth Stephens, Mary Schilling, Agnes J. McCollum, Lucile Morris and Elizabeth Gunnell.

Mrs. W. A. Florence had for her guests at Fort McPherson, Mrs. J. Connor, Mrs. G. C. Roberts, Mrs. T. J. Galey, Mrs. Roser Little, Mrs. S. C. McEachern, Mrs. George Griffin, Mrs. J. A. Hardeman, Mrs. Will Neal, Mrs. Lewis Turner, Mrs. T. W. Head and Mrs. Mayes Frey.

Playing bridge with Mrs. Georgia Kay Sullivan were Mrs. E. R. Hunt, Mrs. Lewis Sessions and Mrs. John M. Graham.

Mrs. S. H. Sibley had as her guests Mrs. W. E. Schilling, Mrs. Harold Schilling and Miss Louise Schilling.

Miss Constance Cole entertained at a pleasant informal bridge party on Thursday evening for Lieutenant Fred Morris. Her guests were Misses Mary Holland, Virginia Boston and June Hudgins. Mr. and Mrs. Bagley Wright, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeFoor, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Reed, Lieutenant Fred Morris, Jr., Armstrong Hunt, Joe Wyatt and Leon Blair.

Hebrew Association To Meet Sunday. The regular monthly meeting of the Young Women's Hebrew association will be held at the Jewish Educational Alliance Sunday, October 14, at 3 o'clock. Plans for the coming year will be discussed, and it is urged that every member be present.

Miss Bertha Snyder, of Jacksonville, Fla., the guest of Mrs. Roy LeCraw at her home in Arcway, was the central figure at a small informal party entertained by Mrs. LeCraw Friday afternoon.

Bridge was played during the afternoon, which was followed by tea. The prizes were bridge novelties.

Miss Bertha Snyder, of Jacksonville, Fla., the guest of Mrs. Roy LeCraw at her home in Arcway, was the central figure at a small informal party entertained by Mrs. LeCraw Friday afternoon.

Bridge was played during the afternoon, which was followed by tea. The prizes were bridge novelties.

Miss Bertha Snyder, of Jacksonville, Fla., the guest of Mrs. Roy LeCraw at her home in Arcway, was the central figure at a small informal party entertained by Mrs. LeCraw Friday afternoon.

Bridge was played during the afternoon, which was followed by tea. The prizes were bridge novelties.

Miss Bertha Snyder, of Jacksonville, Fla., the guest of Mrs. Roy LeCraw at her home in Arcway, was the central figure at a small informal party entertained by Mrs. LeCraw Friday afternoon.

Bridge was played during the afternoon, which was followed by tea. The prizes were bridge novelties.

Miss Bertha Snyder, of Jacksonville, Fla., the guest of Mrs. Roy LeCraw at her home in Arcway, was the central figure at a small informal party entertained by Mrs. LeCraw Friday afternoon.

Bridge Parties Are Social Events At Ft. McPherson

Miss E. E. Raffensperger and Miss H. E. Helgren were joint hostesses at an elaborate bridge party at their quarters at Fort McPherson last evening. Quantities of fall flowers were used in the decorations to carry out the Halloween effect, and the golf motif was used in the refreshments. The top score prize for the men was won by Major M. J. Hickok and the top score for the ladies was won by Mrs. James Regan.

Those invited to play were Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. James M. Kimbrough, Jr., Colonel and Mrs. George McManus, Mrs. Regan, Colonel Ralf Parrott, Colonel R. H. Williams, Mrs. N. C. Bayly, Captain and Mrs. Leland E. Dashiell, Captain and Mrs. A. L. Bolling, Colonel and Mrs. Harry Purnell and Major and Mrs. M. J. Kieck.

Colonel and Mrs. Robert H. Peck entertained at a very pretty dinner before the regimental card party, complementing Colonel and Mrs. William R. Dashiell.

Miss J. Beckman returned from a three-week vacation spent in and around Charleston, S. C., and is at the hostess house.

The service club at Camp Jessup was the scene of a large gathering of the warrant officers of the fourth corps area when they elected their officers for the coming year. Their couples were present and Warrant Officer James K. Wilson was elected president and A. J. Steinhardt, secretary.

The committee in charge was Mrs. F. S. Scobie, Mrs. W. C. Welsh, Mrs. J. H. Bush, Hostess Mrs. J. I. Callahan.

Credit for the weekly social gatherings of the club were extended to the president, Warrant Officer James K. Wilson and Mrs. M. Surescu, vice president.

Atlanta Women Will Attend Rome Convention

Rome, Ga., October 12.—A number of prominent Atlanta clubwomen will attend the twenty-seventh annual convention of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs in Rome, October 16 to 20, inclusive.

Among those who will be registered at the Hotel General Forrest are Mrs. Kate Green Hess, Mrs. George L. Brower, Mrs. J. C. Billups, Mrs. Charles Goodman, Mrs. R. R. Backman, Mrs. Edwin Holbig, Mrs. W. E. Floding, Mrs. S. M. Imman, Mrs. J. Spole Lyons, Mrs. Wilmer L. Moore, Mrs. Cornelia Day Moore, Mrs. J. W. White, Mrs. P. L. Turman, Mrs. Frank Cates Pogue, Mrs. Albert E. Thornton, Mrs. Howard McCall, Mrs. Omar F. Elder, Mrs. R. M. Striplin, Mrs. Irving L. Thomas, Mrs. A. P. Treadwell, Mrs. J. R. Backman, Mrs. J. K. Otley, Mrs. W. T. Martin, Mrs. H. G. Hastings, Mrs. E. H. Goodhart and Mrs. Rix Stafford.

Mrs. Frances Block, mother of the hostess, assisted in entertaining.

Among the debutantes present were Miss Block, Miss Margaret White, Miss Jeanette Collins, Miss Jimmie Pattillo, Miss Frances Brown, and Miss Carrie Lou Reynolds.

The Business Woman's League Meeting In West End.

The Business Woman's league of the West End Baptist church will meet on Sunday, October 14, at 3 o'clock, in the Sunday school auditorium.

Reports of the past year's work will be given, and plans of the work for the coming year will be discussed. All business women of the church are most cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Mrs. A. R. Colcord has been reappointed chairman of the league, with Miss Ella McLendon as assistant chairman.

Driving Club Party For Brides-Elect.

One of the interesting events on Friday's social calendar was the bridge-tee at which Miss Henrietta Davis was hostess at the Piedmont Driving club complemented by two of the season's fete brides-elect, Miss Maude Carlton and Miss Margaret Pratt.

Colorful autumn foliage decorated the living room where the tables were arranged. The prizes were silk hose, guest towels and an imported novelty. Tea was served from a group table placed in the gray room and adorned with a basket filled with yellow and red dahlias and asters. The place cards were monogrammed cards of the hostess.

The hostess was gown in an afternoon model of crimson georgette worn with a black picture hat.

Miss Carlton wore black chiffon velvet outlined with ermine, and a black hat trimmed with ermine tails. Miss Pratt was gown in French chamoise, braided in gold and worn with a cloth hat of black and white.

The guests were the members of the bridal parties.

Sponsors Announced For Football Game.

Of social interest is the announcement of the young women who will act as sponsors for the two football teams of Georgia Tech and University of Florida who will meet on Grant field of Tech this afternoon.

Miss Cornelia Torrence and Miss Emily Davis will be sponsors for Tech, while Miss Irene Thomas and Miss Clementine Baker, of Jacksonville, will act as sponsors for the University of Florida.

Miss Torrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Torrence, and Miss Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Davis, were two of the most charming of last season's debutantes, and are always seen at prominent social gatherings.

Miss Thomas is the daughter of Mrs. J. B. Wilkins, of Ansley park. She is one of the most popular young women in Atlanta society and is always a leading figure in college social affairs.

Miss Baker will be the guest of Miss Thomas during her stay in Atlanta and will be honored with a number of social affairs.

Following the game, the sponsors will be special guests at the Chi Phi tea dance.

Mr. Martin Calls Meeting in West End.

A call has been issued by Mr. Martin, principal of the Joseph E. Brown Junior High school in West End, for a meeting of the teachers and parents of the school at the Lee Street school Monday evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a parent-teacher association. This is the last of the four Junior High schools to organize an association.

Following the game, the sponsors will be special guests at the Chi Phi tea dance.

Mr. Martin Calls Meeting in West End.

A call has been issued by Mr. Martin, principal of the Joseph E. Brown Junior High school in West End, for a meeting of the teachers and parents of the school at the Lee Street school Monday evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a parent-teacher association. This is the last of the four Junior High schools to organize an association.

Following the game, the sponsors will be special guests at the Chi Phi tea dance.

Mr. Martin Calls Meeting in West End.

A call has been issued by Mr. Martin, principal of the Joseph E. Brown Junior High school in West End, for a meeting of the teachers and parents of the school at the Lee Street school Monday evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a parent-teacher association. This is the last of the four Junior High schools to organize an association.

Following the game, the sponsors will be special guests at the Chi Phi tea dance.

Mr. Martin Calls Meeting in West End.

A call has been issued by Mr. Martin, principal of the Joseph E. Brown Junior High school in West End, for a meeting of the teachers and parents of the school at the Lee Street school Monday evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a parent-teacher association. This is the last of the four Junior High schools to organize an association.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Mrs. John H. Jones is visiting Judge and Mrs. George Bell.

Mrs. Howard H. McCall leaves Sunday for Washington, D. C., to attend an executive board meeting of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, October 16.

Mrs. McCall has also been invited to receive with Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, president general, at the reception to be given in honor of Mrs. Cook by the D. A. R. of the District of Columbia on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John B. Vaughan has returned to her home in Athens after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. Carithers, on Elmwood drive.

Mrs. Joseph N. Moody, who is spending the month of October at the Cedars, Hendersonville, N. C., motored to Asheville Wednesday to visit friends.

Mrs. J. M. McAlpin, of Jacksonville, Fla., is visiting Mrs. J. T. Mitchell on Highland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Stone and Miss Donna Stone arrived on the Majestic this week from Europe, and will return to Atlanta at an early date to make their home at the Georgian Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Williams, of the Georgian Terrace, are spending ten days in New York at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walker will return today from Memphis, where they were the guests for two weeks of Mr. Walker's parents.

Among the Atlantans who will attend the Morris Flans Bankers' convention at Atlantic City next week are C. B. Bidwell and W. Woods White, who will be registered at the Ambassador hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gray Houser left Saturday for New York for a three weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Moser will spend next week visiting in Sylva.

M. B. Welby, governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, left Thursday for New Orleans, where he will attend the formal dedication of the new branch building of the Atlanta Reserve bank.

Mrs. K. E. Edwards and children are visiting relatives in Athens, Ga.

Mrs. L. J. Gramling, who has been visiting in North and South Carolina and has been spending some time in this city, will return soon to her winter home in Tampa, Fla.

Miss Margaret Sprague, of Brewton, Ala., arrived Wednesday evening to be the guest of Miss Margaret Elder.

She will be one of the out-of-town guests at the Pratt-Bennett wedding which takes place Wednesday, October 17, and will also visit Miss Margaret McArthur before returning home.

Miss Margaret Block Boys and Girls' Is Hostess To Morning Matinee Debutante Club At Atlanta Theaters

Saturday, October 13, will not be an "unlucky" day for Atlanta children attending the boys and girls' matinee at the Howard theater; quite otherwise, for on Saturday morning, October 13, at 10 o'clock, children patronizing this matinee will be "lucky" in that "Why Worry?" starring Harold Lloyd, will be shown for their pleasure, through the courtesy of Mr. Howard Kingmore, manager of the Howard theater.

This newest, and by the way, most expensive Harold Lloyd production, is full of laughs from beginning to end, and is pronounced one of the best comedies ever screened.

In addition to the feature picture, there will be an interesting instructional picture showing "Captain Schmidt and His Wife" in adventures in the far north. This is a two-reel Pathe picture.

"Lodge Night," "Our Gang" production, will also be shown on Saturday. The above program promises to be one of the most attractive matinees ever planned by the Better Films committee, and all Atlanta children are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. G. H. Gays, chairman of chaperons, Mrs. Porter Langston and a committee from the Parent-Teacher association will be present to welcome the children and act as official chaperons.

A most attractive program has been selected for the boys and girls' matinee at the Alpha theater Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

"The False Trail," a First National production, will be the feature picture for this occasion. Irving Cummings stars in this first run, northwestern mounted police story.

The eleventh episode of "In the Days of Daniel Boone" serial, entitled "The Wilderness Trail," will also be shown.

This instructional serial, featuring Eileen Sedwick and Jack Mower, has proved wonderfully popular with Alpha patrons, and each installment is received with marked applause by those attending.

"Get Under," a two-reel Pathe comedy, starring Harold Lloyd, promises to afford much merriment and laughter to the young folks on Saturday. Harold Lloyd being one of the most popular movie actors.

Mrs. Barrett will have assisting her as chaperons, members from the Parent-Teacher association.

Harold Lloyd is playing a large part in the entertainment of Atlanta children this week. He always receives a hearty welcome from our young folks.

The Brookhaven Club Honors Members. The Brookhaven Matrons' club entertained Mrs. Y. W. Jones and Mrs. J. A. Dillard at a birthday luncheon Friday at the home of Mrs. R. T. Sills.

Mrs. Sills, assisted by Mrs. F. D. Streckfus, showed Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Dillard with a number of lovely gifts from the members of the club.

The ladies present were Mrs. Y. W. Jones, Mrs. J. A. Dillard, Mrs. F. D. Streckfus, Mrs. T. H. McLean, Mrs. C. C. Bearden, Mrs. M. C. Folga, Mrs. A. V. Vail, Mrs. W. Davis, Mrs. E. C. Holt, Mrs. C. H. Wrenn, Mrs. R. C. Kruscheck, Mrs. H. R. Hairston, Mrs. S. P. Ollentine, Mrs. C. J. Buice, Mrs. M. White and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds.

BIRTHDAY CARDS

DISTINCTIVE DESIGNS APPROPRIATE SENTIMENTS
J. P. STEVENS ENGRAVING CO.
103 Peachtree Street
Atlanta, Georgia

Blunders

What mistake is being made in this card game?

The answer will be found among today's want ads.

What mistake is being made in this card game?

The answer will be found among today's want ads.

What mistake is being made in this card game?

The answer will be found among today's want ads.

What mistake is being made in this card game?

In Quality Alone
Is There
Real Economy

Without Quality
Merchandise
Is Without Value

Today Watch Our Windows!

In Window 1
Incomparable Coat Values

Featuring
Real Quality Coats
at the Extraordinary Price

$59.50

Beautiful pile fabrics, such as Formosa, Lustrosa, Fashiona, the very new Stroocks "Paris La Mode," and other camel's hair weaves. Every coat is full long and generously cut in enveloping lines. Wrap-around, button or tie models, circular front, and draped at the side with buckle fastening. Linings of crepe de chine or brocade. The best of colors—black, navy, kit fox, nut brown, taupe, and other browns and grays.

For large women especially there are beautiful plain models.

In Window 2
Children's Dresses
at $4.95

Wool Jerseys, Wool Crepes, Serges—navy blue, browns, tans and other colors and pretty two-tone combinations. Gay hand-embroideries of wool, braids, ribbons and bands and piping of small checks are seen as trimmings. Smart little models suitable for school or dress occasions. They are uncommonly fine values at the price, $4.95.

Second Floor

In Window 3
Children's Hats
Specially Priced $3.95

Models for school or quite pretty enough for dress-up—velvets and felts in black, red, browns, blues, greens, tans, greys—trimmed in ribbons and ornaments.

Second Floor

In Window 4
Infants' Wear
Beautiful Quality Garments
Priced $1.95

Hand-made dresses are almost unbelievably dainty at such a price—tiny tucks, lace, entre deux, and finest little embroidery touches on the softest of fine materials.

Petticoats are also hand-made to match.

Flannels are plain hemmed and show attractive hand embroideries.

Silk Comforts are extraordinarily pretty and dainty—quilted all over—white, Dresden figured centers, with borders of blue or pink.

Second Floor

Today Watch Our Windows!

In Window 1
Incomparable Coat Values
Newest Models

Of Splendid Materials
Handsomely Fur Trimmed

$59.50

Big fur collars of fine lustrous, soft pelts will be seen on most of the models—such as beaver of beautiful quality, gray squirrel, Viatka squirrel, natural red fox, black fox, platinum wolf and others.

Some have soft crush collars of self material beautifully tailored.

We can scarcely say enough for the quality of these coats at such an unusually low price. There is no chance of disappointment for anyone who comes expecting to see far and away the finest coats ever shown at $59.50.

In Window 6
Charming New Dresses

For the Younger Set

Both silk and cloth dresses are included in this group of delightful new styles in street frocks for misses and young matrons. The popular satins, crepe satins and velvets in the silk group and cloth models of charmeuse, Poiret twill and wool Jersey. Black is especially in favor—then the navy blues, rosewood, and brown shades.

Many are developed in pleasing two-tone combinations.

Extreme simplicity of design achieves an air distinctly smart in many of the models—plainly tailored in straight lines and trimmed in many rows of buttons—or braided the entire length of dress and bell sleeves in graduated widths of flat braid. There are circular flounces and tiered skirts and gracefully draped designs, too. Very attractive are models showing full length pleats. Some of the more dressy frocks are quite elaborately embroidered in silk, while some show gay wool embroideries. These really charming dresses are priced especially low at

$24.95

In Window 5

Panty Dresses

Sizes 2 to 6

In a Sale at

95c

Checked and plaid gingham, solid chambrays, and combinations of color with little touches of embroidery, applique, or pipings. They're big values at little prices.

Second Floor

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

Visitors Center Attention at Club Tea Friday Afternoon

The regular tea at the Atlanta Woman's club Friday afternoon was distinguished by a large number of parties complementing fall visitors.

The clubroom presented an inviting appearance, decorated for the occasion with colorful autumn leaves and golden-colored flowers arranged in tall baskets on the tables and mantels.

A number of parties were entertained at bridge, while other groups came in later for tea.

Miss Odie Poundstone Hostess.
Mrs. Odie Poundstone entertained at a lovely party in compliment to Mrs. Emmett Poundstone, of Montgomery, Ala., who is her guest. A group of intimate friends was invited to meet the honor guest.

Mrs. Withers Davis, of Paris, Ky., was the central figure at a party entertained by her sister, Mrs. P. A. Thompson. Completing the party were Mrs. W. E. Lambright, Mrs. Clark Booth, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Dan Stevens, Mrs. Herbert Faye, Mrs. H. H. Conway, Mrs. Don Farmer, Mrs. Frank Ellington, Mrs. J. A. Whittier.

ton, Miss Macy Wood and Miss Frances Watters.

Two Visitors Honored.
Mrs. W. L. Adair was hostess at a bridge-club complementing two visitors, Mrs. Joseph Morton, of Gainesville, and Miss Willene Asbury, of Clarksville, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles W. Brooks, Jr.

Invited for the occasion were Mrs. B. S. Barker, Mrs. B. J. Rector, Mrs. F. E. Maffet, Mrs. Luna Murray, Mrs. J. T. Baisden, Mrs. Frank Penny, Mrs. Charles Brooks, Jr., Mrs. A. E. Matthews, Mrs. H. L. Davidson, Mrs. J. T. Selman, Mrs. Virgil Almond, Mrs. Charles J. Crow and Mrs. DeSaussure.

Mrs. J. P. Billups entertained in compliment to her daughter, Mrs. Louis Bell, of Massachusetts, and Mrs. B. M. McFadden.

Mrs. Berenice Cochran, of Chattanooga, the guest of Mrs. John Hogghead, was the central figure at a small party entertained by Mrs. Charles Holmes Weaver.

Others entertaining were Mrs. Homer Ashford and Mrs. S. C. Chapman.

STARVED HEARTS

BY MILDRED BARBOUR

CHAPTER XII

Barton arrived at Ann's just before dinner.

There was a frown on his handsome face and he looked a trifle weary. He took Madelon into his arms and held her close. Despite Ann's presence, he kissed her.

When the latter would have left them alone, he called her back.

"Don't go! I've a lot to tell Madelon, and I'd rather you heard it, too. We need your wise counsel."

Madelon clung to him, frightened.

"Has something happened? Oh, tell me quickly."

"Nothing that we can't fight," he reassured her. "But it will take courage on your part, sweetheart. . . . Are you willing to go out and marry me tonight and take a chance on the future?"

"I'm not afraid—ever! If I'm with you," she declared proudly. "But why must it be tonight?"

"Because—before tomorrow morning I must have an answer to the biggest problem that has ever confronted me. Our marriage will be my answer if you will give me permission."

Ann broke in quietly.

"Suppose you tell us all about it from the beginning and we will help you decide."

"I have already decided," he said quickly. "An alternative is unthinkable. I need only Madelon's consent."

Here it was that happened this afternoon after I telephoned you," he turned to Madelon. "You remember I told you about a sudden and unexpected conference? Well, the future that I have worked for all these years with my particular firm came to pass—I was offered the junior partnership."

But I was to sail day after tomorrow to take charge of our London office. . . . And for the period of my sojourn abroad I was to remain unmarried."

A little early escaped Madelon and Ann murmured.

"The fine hand of Stephens. How quickly he works!"

"Exactly," agreed Barton. "He holds my firm in his iron fist and clings to it as a miser to his gold. . . . This offer was the result. Offer is not exactly the word—ultimatum, rather. For I was told to take it or leave it. There would be no compromise."

Ann leaned forward tensely.

"You mean?"

"He laughed derisively.

"Either I accept or I get out. . . . Of course, I'll get out."

"Oh, no, no!" the poignancy of Madelon's cry startled them both. "I won't let you do it! I won't! Why, it means your whole future career. You've talked to me so often about the day when you'd be a member of the firm. You've worked so hard to that end. I won't spoil your life! I couldn't ruin your career like that! I love you too much."

Gently he drew her close, laid his lips against her soft hair.

"Do you think I'd measure my career against my love for you. I want you for my wife. What else matters?"

She was sobbing against his shoulder.

"No, no, no! I can't, I won't let you!"

Above his bright head his eyes sought Ann's.

"If I can get a license tonight—and I think I can with you come with me to a minister?"

Ann rose abruptly and walked away to the window. For a long minute or two she stood staring out into the winter darkness, her brow puckered in thought.

Then she came back to the fire and drew her chair to face the two young people on the couch.

"Children," she said, "You're going to hate me for this and I can't blame you for it. But I wouldn't be your good friend if I didn't talk to you seriously about the step you contemplate taking. . . . You're young and deeply in love, and nothing else seems to matter. But have you thought of the future? Have you thought of what responsibilities marriage incurs? Where is the means to come from to carry you on? If you Don't wash fine china with boiling hot water.

Don't use soap or powder of coarse soap on fine china.

Avoid sudden changes of heat and cold when handling fine china.

Keep fine china behind glass doors to protect it from gritty dust.

Don't soak fine china or porcelain in soapy water for any length of time.

The New Mop
When starting a new mop try brushing it out with a whisk broom after each using instead of shaking it. Your mop will always be clean and fluffy.

Fine China.
Don't wash fine china with boiling hot water.

Don't use soap or powder of coarse soap on fine china.

Avoid sudden changes of heat and cold when handling fine china.

Keep fine china behind glass doors to protect it from gritty dust.

Don't soak fine china or porcelain in soapy water for any length of time.

Household Suggestions
Paper on Wood.
Paper that is stuck to the polished table top may be removed by putting a few drops of oil on the paper and rubbing gently with a soft cloth.

The New Mop
When starting a new mop try brushing it out with a whisk broom after each using instead of shaking it. Your mop will always be clean and fluffy.

Fine China.
Don't wash fine china with boiling hot water.

Don't use soap or powder of coarse soap on fine china.

Avoid sudden changes of heat and cold when handling fine china.

Keep fine china behind glass doors to protect it from gritty dust.

Don't soak fine china or porcelain in soapy water for any length of time.

BACK ACHE TERRIBLY
Mrs. Robinson Tells How She Found Relief by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Amarillo, Tex.—"My back was my greatest trouble. It would ache so that I couldn't get up. I would almost kill me and I would have cramps. I suffered in this way about three years. Then a lady friend suggested that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had better health since, keep house and am able to do my work. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends as it has certainly given me great relief."

Mrs. C. B. ROBINSON, 808 N. Lincoln St., Amarillo, Texas.

The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for women. It relieves the troubles which cause such symptoms as backache, painful menstruation, irregularity, tired and worn-out feelings and nervousness. This is shown again and again by such letters as Mrs. Robinson writes as well as by one woman telling another. These women know what it did for them. It's surely worth your trial.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so ill that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their necessary household duties.

Concert Series Highly Praised By Music Lovers

At the beginning of the final day of the season ticket sale to the concert series sponsored by the Atlanta Music club, an urgent appeal to all music lovers who have not yet obtained their tickets is being made. The box office will close at the Cable Piano company at 6 o'clock, after which no more reservations can be secured at special prices.

Widespread interest in the successful outcome of the sale is being expressed by civic and club leaders of the city, who see in one concert work of the Atlanta Music club one of the most valuable contributions to the city's art life.

"I have followed the work of the music club since the early days of its concert work," says Mrs. Samuel Inman, "and I think that nothing finer has ever been done for our city than this yearly series of concerts. The tremendous responsibility which is placed on the shoulders of the members of the club is very great, and I am sure that if all of our people realized how vital the results have been and how great the effort, they would buy out the entire auditorium in order to place this work on the successful basis that it deserves."

Mrs. Inman's endorsement has been heartily seconded by Mrs. John K. Outley, Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, Mrs. Hugh Richardson and other of the prominent leaders in club and civic circles.

There are two series now being offered to the public. The civic concert series at the auditorium embraces the works of Paderewski, Grieg, Morini and the Ukrainian choruses. The series intimate presents Alberto Salvi, Ignaz Friedman and the Pionniers quartet.

Jane Hedden Hat Pattern

2251

No. 2251.
A tiny poke brim and high draped crown makes an unusually effective design for the bobbed-haired girl. Alternate panels of the four section crown are embroidered in a honeycomb stitch of tinsel thread. The seams and brim are embroidered in a combination of tinsel and chenille. Blue chenille and silver tinsel on a gray davenport hat. Almond green chenille and gold tinsel on a green velvet hat or gray chenille and white silver on a black satin hat are very effective. The model is appropriate for general wear. The color used makes it more or less dressy.

MATERIAL REQUIRED.
Half yard elastic net or willow, 13-8 yards 18-inch material or 3-4 yard 36-inch material, 1 soft pressed brown velvet, 4 1/2 yards white, 1 cap lining, chenille and tinsel for embroidery.

HAT PATTERN ORDER.
This order will bring you pattern and working instructions for making hat illustrated above. Fill in name and address, enclose 25 cents in stamps, postal note or coins—address your order to Hat Pattern Department, The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

Enclosed find 25 cents. Please send me Jane Hedden Hat Pattern and instructions No. 2251.

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

The Constitution's Patterns

A YOUTHFUL STYLISH DESIGN.
4505. Here is a very pleasing model, with becoming lines and smart features. The style is suitable for the new figured silks, for moire satin, or jersey weaves.

The pattern is cut in five sizes: 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20 years. A 16-year size requires 3-5-8 yards of 40-inch material. To make belt and revers of contrasting material requires 3-8-yard 40 inches wide.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

FASHIONS LATEST EXPRESSION OF A SMART STYLE.
4404. The new skirt and side drapery, topped by a smart blouse is here portrayed. Satin in a pretty shade of brown was employed to develop this style, with a finish of self bands. The model is also attractive for crepe weaves, taffeta and broadcloth.

The pattern is cut in three sizes: 16, 18 and 20 years. An 18-year size requires 6-1-4 yards of 40-inch material.

BEAUTY CHATS
FACE CREAMS.
After having tried an extraordinary number of other face creams, I have come back to my two pet formulas, and feel somewhat like the woman who left her home to travel round the world and felt, when she slipped her key once more into the familiar lock, that there was no other place so soothing and beautiful. Some of the creams I have used were sticky, many of course were splendid, and generally rather expensive at the same time. But I like my own the best.

For cleansing, for massage, for dryness, for a general toning of the skin, the Fine Cream is recommended. This takes:
Rose water.....4 ounces
Almond oil.....4 ounces
Spermaceti.....1 ounce
White wax.....1 ounce
Benzoin.....1 ounce
Powdered borax.....30 grains
This isn't expensive to make, but if cost must be kept down, use plain boiled and strained water instead of rose water, and olive oil of as good a grade as possible, instead of almond. In any case, melt the wax and oil, when quite blended but not too hot, add the previously warmed water and benzoin and borax, these three mixed together. Stir and beat as the mixture begins to cool and congeal, water of care. When it has cooled to the consistency of cream, pour off into jars. Save your old cold cream jars for this purpose, or buy yourself cheap, decorative little china jars with lids. They should not hold more than a very small teaspoon full. It is nicest to have the cream in small amounts and to open fresh jars often. It won't turn rancid, and it won't be either too thin or too hard if you follow these directions.

Anxious—For hands that look old nourish the tissues by massaging olive oil or a flesh building cream into them. Always keep the nails well cared for feeding them also with cream. Often, when the hands are enfeebled, it is due to a run down condition of the system, and a general improvement in the health will give back to the hands a youthful appearance.

Lorraine—There must be some.

H. G. LEWIS & CO.

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

thing in your system that has a chemical action on the dyes used in the stockings, which would account for the change in color after you wear them. There are plenty of people whose touch discolors steel, other who change blue to green in turquoise after this stone has come in contact with their skin.

King T.—Any vigorous exercise which you use your legs will reduce them, bringing them into proportion with the rest of your body.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbush, care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

THE HOUSEHOLD Edited by Anne Rittenhouse

THE GREATEST PLEASURE IN LIFE.

In France more attention has been given to the cultivation of polite and spirited conversation as a form of social diversion than anywhere else in the world, and during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, the period of the great French salons, the art of conversation was cultivated to its highest degree.

Mademoiselle de Scudery called conversation "the bond of society, the greatest pleasure of well-bred people, and the best means of introducing, not only politeness into the world but a purer morality." And La Grange, Mademoiselle, granddaughter of Henry IV., herself one time destined to the throne, admitted toward the close of a life full of disappointment that she regarded conversation as "the greatest pleasure in life, and almost the only one."

With most Americans of the present day there are many pastimes that would be placed ahead of conversation—dancing, golf, tennis, bridge, motor-ing or music. One hears the criticism occasionally that conversation is a sadly neglected art, and that we are losing much of intellectual advantage.

The fact remains that much diversion and entertainment can be gained by sprightly and intelligent conversation. One reason, perhaps, why many persons dread to spend an evening with a group of friends when there is no hope of any form of diversion save gossip or shop talk. Some persons always find excuse to prate egotistically about themselves.

Undoubtedly the reason why conversation proved so diverting and so worth while in the old French salons

SUCH PAINS AS THIS WOMAN HAD
Mrs. Bertha Churchman of 60 Medor St., Mobile, Ala., wrote: "For months I suffered from irregularities. I had bearing down pains and cramps so badly that I didn't know what to do. Benedicta has done me a world of good. I think it wonderful." Benedicta has helped an inestimable number of suffering women, and it can help you, too. Get a bottle of Benedicta from your druggist today.

Benedicta
HEALTH BUILDER for WOMEN

H. G. LEWIS & CO.

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

is because there were certain unwritten rules that regulated the topics and the mode of conversing. The greatest egotist dared not prate egotistically. Petty gossip was usually discouraged; it was understood that though you might meet your dearest enemy at one of these salons there should be no indulgence in personalities. At some salons religious discussion was taboo, at others political argument was frowned upon. Every salon had its special code which, though unwritten, was understood by those who frequented it.

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

Miss Farmer's Pupils Give Musicals.

Miss Anna Mae Farmer on Friday evening, at the studio in Wesley Memorial building, gave the first of a series of studio musicals for all of her pupils and their friends, preparatory to several interesting programs to be given to the public this season. Miss Farmer gave a helpful talk to those present on the value of music as an important factor in education, stressing the necessity for students to realize the real, live need of music in order to attain results. Refreshments were served giving the

Just a Few Hints.

When making baking powder biscuits have the ingredients and utensils chilled before using. Use a light touch when putting the mixture together. Have the dough perfectly blended, firm enough to handle yet soft.

During housecleaning. Before washing the cut glass and fine china for housecleaning, place a folded towel in the bottom of the dishpan. It will save clipping and breakage.

Stewart's
Underprice Cash Basement
Today—Last Day of This SPECIAL SALE of

LADIES' SLIPPERS

at $3.75

These are "short lines" from many of our prettiest styles in values to $8.00—sharply reduced for quick clearance. The multitude of styles include Satins, Suedes, and Browns or Black Kid—all the wanted heels.

Stewart
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY
FRED S. STEWART CO. 25 WHITEHALL ST.

Benedicta
HEALTH BUILDER for WOMEN

H. G. LEWIS & CO.

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

pupils an opportunity to meet an audience in an informal way. Those participating were: Misses Mary Louise Parham, Bertha Gibson, Allie Stone, Odell Soyce, Lula Thompson, Kate Cleveland, Janie Rhodes, Inez Pergantia, Laura Thompson, Lillian Bloodworth, Pauline DeVore, Agnes DeVore, Virginia Clayton, Bryde Conway, Mavis Gotthelmer, Odell Holt, Alice Parr, Miriam Jones, Wilma James, Elsie Nix, Ethel New, Amanda Sneed, Juanita Smith, Helen Smith, Dorothy Ramage, Mary Louise Williams, Margaret Vinz, Grace Miles, Josephine Callis, Laura Callis, Ruth Hardaway, Rose Cohen, Ivan Smith, Jack Fite, Sam Hughes and Roy Jones.

Just a Few Hints.
When making baking powder biscuits have the ingredients and utensils chilled before using. Use a light touch when putting the mixture together. Have the dough perfectly blended, firm enough to handle yet soft.

During housecleaning. Before washing the cut glass and fine china for housecleaning, place a folded towel in the bottom of the dishpan. It will save clipping and breakage.

Stewart's
Underprice Cash Basement
Today—Last Day of This SPECIAL SALE of

LADIES' SLIPPERS

at $3.75

These are "short lines" from many of our prettiest styles in values to $8.00—sharply reduced for quick clearance. The multitude of styles include Satins, Suedes, and Browns or Black Kid—all the wanted heels.

Stewart
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY
FRED S. STEWART CO. 25 WHITEHALL ST.

Benedicta
HEALTH BUILDER for WOMEN

H. G. LEWIS & CO.

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Name _____
Street _____
City _____

Today

Greatest Dress Offer

—The Greatest Fifteen-Dollar Dress Sale of the Season

$15

Satin, Velvet, Satin Crepe, Canton Crepe, Poiret Twill

For months we have been trying to secure a lot of dresses which we could sell at $15 and at the same time maintain the Lewis reputation for values. You will say we have succeeded when you see the 300 dresses to be offered today at $15. Today is predicted to be Lewis' greatest dress day.

H. G. Lewis & Co.

Family Kinney's store

SHOES
Children's Welt Sole School Shoes, Sizes 8 1/2-11, $2.49

HOSIERY
Ladies' Pure Silk Hosiery, $1.98-98c

YOUR SHOE STORE
Misses' brown school shoes, rubber heels, sizes 1 1/2-2, $1.98

Men's high-grade welt sole shoes, $4.98
Men's shoes for rough wear, $2.98 and $1.98

QUALITY SHOES—LOWER PRICES
Men's black or brown oxfords, welt soles, $4.98
Ladies' log cabin and grey suede pumps, $4.98

Men's black or brown lace shoes, $4.98—$3.98—$2.98
Satin pumps, $3.98
Boys' brown English or broad toe shoes, welt soles, rubber heels, $2.98

Infants' soft soles, 69c
Boys' army shoes, best for school, 1 to 5 1/2, $2.98
Infants' patent leather or kid shoes with fancy tops, $1.98

SEE OUR WINDOWS
Kinney's

73 Whitehall St.

TEXTILE ASSOCIATION MEETS IN AUGUSTA

Augusta, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—Two hundred members of the Southern Textile Association met here today for the annual convention. The meeting was opened by G. A. Franklin, general chairman of the meeting and superintendent of the Sibley mill. The Association of Superintendents will remain in session until Saturday noon.

Dr. E. L. Grace, of the First Baptist church, delivered the invocation, and Judge A. L. Franklin made the address of welcome.

A. B. Carter, secretary of the association, responded to the address of welcome.

A report of the weavers' sectional meeting was made by W. H. Gibson, Jr., of Union, S. C. Discussion of the report of the Georgia association followed. An address on "Cost Accounting as Applicable to Cotton Mills" was made by J. I. Howard, of Charlotte, N. C.

Most of the morning was taken up either in business discussions or the technical side of the manufacturing of cotton goods.

The object of these meetings is to bring all superintendents of textile mills in the south together twice a year for the general discussion of mill operation and other important incidents thereof. Last year the convention was held in Atlanta.

As a result of the get-together meetings of the association, great strides have been made in the textile industry in the south and many finishing plants are being erected as a result.

Heretofore goods have all been shipped north to be finished, but finishing and dyeing plants being erected over the south are taking care of this end of the industry, thus greatly adding to the efficiency of the textile interests of the south.

MAN SHOT DOWN
BY JILTED GIRL
DIES OF WOUNDS

Philadelphia, October 12.—Harry Kanter, a student at a chiropractic school here, who last night was shot on the street by a young woman, said by the police to be Miss Catherine Miller, died early today. Miss Miller, the police said, was charged with the murder.

Reports from Wilkesbarre, Pa., quoted Mrs. Anna Cardello, a sister of Miss Miller, as saying that the young woman had been paying Kanter for a long time. Mrs. Cardello said that her sister recently had learned the student intended to marry another girl.

"Harry told me Saturday he was through with me and for me to go about myself," the police quote the girl as saying. "I went to my room and got the pistol, I met Harry as he was leaving the school. He told me he didn't want anything more to do with me, and I'm glad I shot him."

In a letter to Kanter, found in the girl's pocketbook she pleaded with him "to come home, come home" and enclosed $2 which was to be used for taxi fare, the police said.

End Corns

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. Stope the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in clear liquid and in thin plasters. The action is the same.

Blue-jay

TANLAC
VEGETABLE PILLS
For Constipation, Biliousness
11,000,000 Sold in June

CUTICURA HEALS
ITCHY TETTER

And Dandruff On Scalp.
So Irritating Would Scotch, Hair Fell Out.

"I suffered for several months with tetter and dandruff which caused terrible itching. The eruption was like a rash and my scalp became scaly and cov. I with a dandruff-like substance which was so irritating I would scratch until my scalp was red and sore. My hair was thin and fell out.

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using two boxes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Hattie Cole, Rt. 3, Box 54, Denmark, Tenn.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum promote and maintain skin purity, skin comfort and skin health often when all else fails.

Grove's Tasteless
Chill Tonic
Invigorates, Purifies and Enriches the Blood. 60c

The Rainy Day Pal TOWERS FISH BRAND
REFLEX SLICKER
Patented Features make it the Big Difference
DEALERS EVERYWHERE
TOWERS
BOSTON

Fight on Fascism In United States Urged by Green

Moscow, October 12.—Organization to combat fascist tendencies in the United States was advocated by W. H. Green, American delegate, speaking today at the peasants' conference here in the name of the Farmer-Labor party of the United States. He said the situation in America was extremely difficult, and he quoted the chairman of the "steel trust" as expressing approval of fascism on his recent trip from abroad and as advocating a similar organization in the United States. The workers and farmers of the entire world, declared the speaker, must unite to combat these tendencies.

Senor Galvan, president of the Mexican Bessant League, said that every delegate on his return home must prepare the country for a new struggle. He particularly hoped the Mexican masses would be able to assist the German workers. The French delegation proposed a resolution against the occupation of the Ruhr. Although foreign correspondents were not admitted to the gallery, the descriptions of it in the Russian press say it is a picturesque assemblage of peasants and workers in their national garb, meeting in an elaborately decorated hall in what was once the czar's palace in the Kremlin.

POISONED BOOZE CAUSES 5 DEATHS

Pana, Ill., October 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—John Tokoly, proprietor of a small saloon, where it is alleged poisonous liquor was sold, resulting in the deaths of five men and the serious illness of five others, was arrested this afternoon and held for the coroner. Tokoly emphatically denied he had sold any poisonous liquor. He formerly was a member of the board of aldermen, and once was a candidate for mayor.

Several investigations were under way today to fix responsibility for the deaths.

The coroner was conducting an inquiry behind closed doors and Sheriff George Duescher and State's Attorney Dowell were interviewing persons to obtain information. It was said, with a view of instituting criminal proceedings.

Chief of Police Alonzo Reed, of Pana, announced statements had been obtained from four of the five men who died in hospital. It is in a critical condition.

The dead.

Dwight Eilers, 60, of Towerhill, Ill., grain and stock dealer.

George Baldwin, 40, Pana, insurance agent.

Edward M. Gaughan, 49, contractor, painter of Pana.

Charles E. Gaughan, 32, of Blue Island, Ill.

Edward Biehl, 45, a local building contractor.

Reports of other persons in neighboring towns having been poisoned by "white milk" whisky were reaching Pana today.

An inquest was held over the body of Edward Gaughan, who was the first to die, and a verdict of death from fusel oil and wood alcohol poisoning from beverage purchased of John Tokoly at Maton's Place, returned.

The verdict was based on the testimony of Charles Gaughan, nephew of Edward Gaughan, who him if died several hours after the inquest.

The other victims died at intervals of several hours and all are believed by authorities to have purchased the liquor from Tokoly.

Baldwin made a statement to his wife, according to the authorities that he obtained the liquor from Tokoly.

All of the victims except Charles Gaughan were married and had families.

MOST RAIDED BOOZE CONTAINS POISON.

Chicago, October 12.—Poison is found in eight out of every ten samples of liquor taken in raids on saloons and soft drink parlors, according to Dr. Herman Bundesen, health commissioner. The statement was issued as Mayor Dever revoked the one thousandth retail beverage license in the city's campaign against non-payment of taxes on liquor.

Poison liquor has killed at least 2,000 persons in the United States this year, said Dr. Bundesen.

SUSPECT LIBERATED IN SWAMP KILLING

Waycross, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—A. D. Crews, charged with the killing of Jack Hagins, near Cowhouse Island, in the heart of the Okefenokee swamp, several weeks ago was released after a summit trial before Justice of the Peace J. W. Sweet. Judge Sweet in rendering his decision declared that the state had failed to produce sufficient evidence to warrant the holding of Crews in connection with the killing.

Crews, who has been held in the county jail since his arrest last Saturday, was immediately released from custody. The evidence presented by the prosecution was purely circumstantial. Tracks were found leading from the scene of the murder in the direction of Crews' house and other circumstances were presented by the state in an effort to connect the defendant with the case. Crews claimed that he was at his home at the time of the shooting, heard the shots, but did not go to investigate. The defendant was represented by Colonel John W. Bennett, while Solicitor Allen B. Spencer represented the state.

METHODISTS LOST
$1,000,000 IN QUAKE

Nashville, Tenn., October 12.—As far as certain Southern Methodist losses in Japan aggregate one million dollars, according to a cablegram received by the board of missions today from Bishop H. A. Boaz, in charge of the church's interests in Japan. "We strongly recommend," the cable says, "that the M. E. Church, South, give one hundred thousand American gold dollars so as to afford some relief."

SKULL AND JAWS OF GREAT CAMEL FOUND IN WEST

New York, October 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The skull and jaws of a gigantic camel have been discovered by the Albert Thompson expedition in Nebraska. It was announced today by Prof. W. O. Matthews, curator of the department of vertebrate paleontology of the American Museum of Natural History.

Mr. Thompson, who now is on his way to New York after six months of excavation in the noted Snake creek fossil quarries of western Nebraska, has shipped the museum eleven cases of fossil, which include the tooth of an ape, the skull and jawbones of three-toed horses, and specimens of other prehistoric vertebrates, including long extinct camels and deer.

A very interesting ape tooth, the only one known to the new world, was discovered," said Prof. Matthews. "Mr. Thompson reports the discovery of a large series of the skull and jaws of extinct animals. The best specimen was the skull and jawbones of a gigantic camel, much larger than the modern bactrian camel."

This is the sixth year the museum has worked in Nebraska, quarries which have yielded thousands of bones belonging to 110 species of animals, most of which were believed to have existed in the pre-historic Europe and in Africa.

Endowments Are Needed
By the State Universities,
Says Secretary Hoover

Chicago, October 12.—Demands upon state universities are such that the taxpayers cannot possibly keep pace with their necessities, according to Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover. This statement was made in a letter received by President Walter Dill Scott, of Northwestern university, from Mr. Hoover, in which the latter contributed support to the campaign for endowment of the state universities.

"Endowed institutions, by their greater independence of action and their ability to undertake new avenues of learning, have an obligation to maintain standards of higher education," said Mr. Hoover's letter. "I am glad to support your endeavor to drive an strongly impressed with the necessity for large support to our endowed universities in these times when demands upon state universities are such that the taxpayers cannot possibly keep pace with their necessities."

Not only does this throw an additional burden upon the state, but these have an obligation to maintain standards of higher education."

FOUR SHOT IN ATTEMPT TO FLEE LEAVENWORTH

Leavenworth, Kan., October 12.—Four prisoners, two of them considered dangerous, were shot and clubbed into submission when they attempted to escape from the stone quarry at the United States industrial barracks at Fort Leavenworth yesterday.

George Jackson of Patterson, N. J., convicted of murder and Dr. Sigmund Rand, of Harvard, who discovered in England a copy of the missing colonial records of Georgia for the year 1733, were the two who were shot.

General Jackson of Patterson, N. J., who laid the foundations of the state of Georgia, was shot in the back of the head. General Oglethorpe's body has been found in a brick vault under the floor of the parish church of Cranham, England, where it was buried 18 years ago.

"Oglethorpe was only one, albeit the most prominent, of a group of trustees of Georgia, who had been in the English colony since 1733. The Earl of Egmont, who acted as president of the trustees and kept their journal, had almost as important a share as had Oglethorpe in the philanthropic undertaking. Oglethorpe's activity differed mainly from that of the others in that he was the representative of the enterprise in America whereas the others supported it in England. All alike were Englishmen and the trustees sat in the British parliament for 32 years."

"Moreover, after Oglethorpe returned from Georgia to England, he lived for 42 years in the colony where he was buried. Of the proposed removal, therefore, the words of the inscription over Shakespeare's tomb might justly be quoted: 'Good friends for Jesus' sake forbear 'To dig the dust enclosed here. 'Blest be the man that spares these bones.'"

"And, as it is desired in the state of Georgia to honor its founders, would it not be better if the legislature or some leading institution had a copy made of the splendid painting of that great leader, Oglethorpe, in the Indian of a historic mansion, the property of an English nobleman?"

PATTERSON TO HAVE CHARGE
OF OGLETHORPE INTERMENT.

The board of trustees-founders of Oglethorpe university Friday accepted the offer of H. M. Patterson & Son, funeral directors, to take complete charge of the bodies of General and Lady Oglethorpe from the time they are exhumed until reinterment on the campus of the university. This announcement was made by Edgar Watkins, president of the board of trustees-founders.

The services of this undertaking establishment were offered to the university without charge, by Fred W. Patterson on behalf of the firm, as a donation to the Oglethorpe memorial. The offer includes the equipment necessary for the proper handling of the bodies on the journey from their landing place in America to Atlanta, it is said.

Details regarding the time and place of arrival of the funeral party will be announced at an early date, according to the school officials.

Air Line To Link
German Capital
And Buenos Aires

Lakehurst, N. J., October 12.—Negotiations for a five-day airline between Berlin and Buenos Aires have been in progress for some time. It was declared last night by Captain Anton Heiman, German Zeppelin expert, who is pilot of the United States navy's giant dirigible, the Shenandoah, formerly the ZR-1.

Plans under consideration, Captain Heiman said, call for the commission of three airships, two-thirds larger than the Shenandoah, capable of carrying 150 passengers each, with mail and express space for Central Europe and western South America in less than one-fourth the time taken by steamships.

Captain Heiman made his announcement in pointing out that the United States and Germany were engaged in a race to see which nation would be the first in establishing a trans-Atlantic air service. Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, head of the navy air service, having announced that experiments would be made with an air mail service from this country to Europe.

The German Zeppelin expert said he had learned from private sources that a powerful syndicate, composed of both German and Argentine interests, had been working on the plan for some time.

It was pointed out that under the Versailles treaty Germany was ordered to destroy the great Friedrichshafen Zeppelin works as soon as the ZR-3 now being built for the United States navy was completed. Incidentally it is that craft which Admiral Moffett was to use in the trans-Atlantic mail experiment.

In the event that Germany fails to obtain more time in which to build the giant aircraft, Captain Heiman said he had learned that the German-Argentine syndicate would construct its dirigibles elsewhere in Europe or in the Argentine. The opinion was expressed that efforts were being made to progress as far as possible with work of building the new ships before the works were forced to close.

Savannah Sends English Rector Formal Protest

Savannah, Ga., October 12.—(Special.)—Having failed to obtain action from the governor of the state and having been turned down by the state department at Washington in the matter of effecting formal protests of city and local patriotic organizations against opening the graves of the founder of the Georgia colony and his wife and the removal of their bones, Mayor Paul E. Seabrook, of Savannah, this afternoon sent the following cablegram direct to the rector of Cranham, England:

"Rev. Leslie Wright, rector, Cranham, Essex, England.

"Mayor and aldermen of Savannah in council assembled adopted resolutions protesting against disinterment and removal of remains of Oglethorpe, founder of colony of Georgia and of city of Savannah. Please consider this an official protest from the municipal government of this city, and give this due publicity."

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT OPPOSE REMOVAL PLAN.

Washington, October 12.—Opposition to the removal from England of the remains of General Oglethorpe, founder of Georgia, in Atlanta, will not affect the attitude of this government, Representative Upshaw, of Georgia, said after a conference with officials of the state department. The Society of Colonial Wars, of Savannah, had protested against the disinterment.

Mr. Upshaw, telephone Governor Walker, of Georgia, that his telegram to the state department transmitting the Savannah protest could not be considered an official protest of the state department. The Society of Colonial Wars, of Savannah, had protested against the disinterment.

"We had planned a great reception at Savannah in honor of our progressive part," the telegram said, "but if Savannah does not wish this deferential recognition we will carry the body direct to Atlanta."

President Edgar Watkins, of the board of trustees of Oglethorpe university, at Atlanta, was advised of the position taken by the state department in the controversy, and will join with other Georgians, Mr. Upshaw stated, in seeing that the suggestion of the state department that a suitable memorial tablet be placed in the English church, where the body was found, explaining why it was removed.

The action of the state department will result in the body of Lord Oglethorpe being taken from a grave of local obscurity which it required weeks of excavation to reach. "And in placing it in a patriotic shrine of conspicuous immortality. Arrangements will now be completed for the transfer of the remains to this country."

QUESTIONS THE PROPRIETY OF REMOVAL OF BODY.

Boston, October 12.—Dr. Benjamin Rand, of Harvard, who discovered in England a copy of the missing colonial records of Georgia for the year 1733, was the one who was shot.

General Jackson of Patterson, N. J., who laid the foundations of the state of Georgia, was shot in the back of the head. General Oglethorpe's body has been found in a brick vault under the floor of the parish church of Cranham, England, where it was buried 18 years ago.

"Oglethorpe was only one, albeit the most prominent, of a group of trustees of Georgia, who had been in the English colony since 1733. The Earl of Egmont, who acted as president of the trustees and kept their journal, had almost as important a share as had Oglethorpe in the philanthropic undertaking. Oglethorpe's activity differed mainly from that of the others in that he was the representative of the enterprise in America whereas the others supported it in England. All alike were Englishmen and the trustees sat in the British parliament for 32 years."

"Moreover, after Oglethorpe returned from Georgia to England, he lived for 42 years in the colony where he was buried. Of the proposed removal, therefore, the words of the inscription over Shakespeare's tomb might justly be quoted: 'Good friends for Jesus' sake forbear 'To dig the dust enclosed here. 'Blest be the man that spares these bones.'"

"And, as it is desired in the state of Georgia to honor its founders, would it not be better if the legislature or some leading institution had a copy made of the splendid painting of that great leader, Oglethorpe, in the Indian of a historic mansion, the property of an English nobleman?"

PATTERSON TO HAVE CHARGE
OF OGLETHORPE INTERMENT.

The board of trustees-founders of Oglethorpe university Friday accepted the offer of H. M. Patterson & Son, funeral directors, to take complete charge of the bodies of General and Lady Oglethorpe from the time they are exhumed until reinterment on the campus of the university. This announcement was made by Edgar Watkins, president of the board of trustees-founders.

The services of this undertaking establishment were offered to the university without charge, by Fred W. Patterson on behalf of the firm, as a donation to the Oglethorpe memorial. The offer includes the equipment necessary for the proper handling of the bodies on the journey from their landing place in America to Atlanta, it is said.

Details regarding the time and place of arrival of the funeral party will be announced at an early date, according to the school officials.

Air Line To Link
German Capital
And Buenos Aires

Lakehurst, N. J., October 12.—Negotiations for a five-day airline between Berlin and Buenos Aires have been in progress for some time. It was declared last night by Captain Anton Heiman, German Zeppelin expert, who is pilot of the United States navy's giant dirigible, the Shenandoah, formerly the ZR-1.

Plans under consideration, Captain Heiman said, call for the commission of three airships, two-thirds larger than the Shenandoah, capable of carrying 150 passengers each, with mail and express space for Central Europe and western South America in less than one-fourth the time taken by steamships.

Captain Heiman made his announcement in pointing out that the United States and Germany were engaged in a race to see which nation would be the first in establishing a trans-Atlantic air service. Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, head of the navy air service, having announced that experiments would be made with an air mail service from this country to Europe.

The German Zeppelin expert said he had learned from private sources that a powerful syndicate, composed of both German and Argentine interests, had been working on the plan for some time.

It was pointed out that under the Versailles treaty Germany was ordered to destroy the great Friedrichshafen Zeppelin works as soon as the ZR-3 now being built for the United States navy was completed. Incidentally it is that craft which Admiral Moffett was to use in the trans-Atlantic mail experiment.

In the event that Germany fails to obtain more time in which to build the giant aircraft, Captain Heiman said he had learned that the German-Argentine syndicate would construct its dirigibles elsewhere in Europe or in the Argentine. The opinion was expressed that efforts were being made to progress as far as possible with work of building the new ships before the works were forced to close.

Building the new ships in the Argentine would be expensive, he said, and they are doing all in their power to obtain the use of the Zeppelin works.

with two dogs, leaving Mr. Mass in the living room," said Mrs. Leslie. "As I reached the porch two men sprang from the shrubbery, throttled me and threw me down."

"I struggled and screamed, and Mr. Mass came rushing out. As he reached the porch a third man leaped from the bushes and fired twice. Mr. Mass collapsed and I almost fainted."

After having been operated on at the hospital Mass told this version of the shooting:

"I had just arrived and was entering the hallway of Mrs. Leslie's home when I heard a scream from one of the rooms. Sudd-nly two men entered the hallway from the living room and one of them opened fire on me. I went down at the first shot. That is all I remember."

Mr. Mass is unmarried. "Leslie's home at Asbury Park he maintained an apartment at a Broadway hotel in this city."

We First Consider Quality--Then a Fair Price

Rich New Yorker
Mysteriously Shot
At Home of Widow

New York, October 12.—Milton A. Mass, wealthy vice-president of a chemical corporation and resident of Asbury Park, N. J., is in a Stamford, Conn., hospital today having been shot mysteriously last night at the Sound Beach, Conn., home of Mrs. Ida M. Leslie, a widow and former actress, who says she is his fiancée.

Prosecutor White, of Greenwich, Conn., is making an inquiry. "I went for a walk on the beach what, where, why is your colon?

The Most Critical Part of Your Anatomy and Physiology

You are a wise man or woman if you understand your colon and keep it in perfect working order. Health, happiness, vigor and long life are the gifts which an active colon gives you. But, back to our question:—What is your colon; where is your colon; why is your colon? Listen attentively for only a minute and you may learn something that may add twenty years to your life.

Your colon is the last five feet of your digestive canal. It is your sewerage system; your garbage can, so to speak. Keep it clean and you are well and happy; let it stagnate and it will distill the poisons of decay, fermentation (gas) and putrefaction into your blood, poisoning your brain and nerves so that you are restless, irritable and blue.

Poisoning your heart so that you are weak, listless and lazy; poisoning your lungs so that your breath is heavy or only; poisoning your stomach and digestive organs so that you are bloated, belching and uncomfortable with gas pains; poisoning your blood so that your skin looks yellow, sallow and unhealthy; poisoning every part and organ of your body, through your blood, making you look old and ugly long before your time; making your joints and your back stiff and rheumatic, your eyes dull and your brain sluggish.

By the perfect law of Nature, your colon should empty itself three times a day—within an hour after eating. Does your colon work that well? If not, it has lost its tone. What do we mean by tone? Your colon is a hollow muscle. Its walls are made up of long, thin, muscle fibers or cells which, by their contraction, empty the colon just as you would squeeze a rubber hose pipe. These muscle fibers should contract three times a day—within an hour after each meal. If they do not contract, they have lost their tone—their power to contract.

But, there is a practically perfect remedy for lazy, flabby colons. This remedy quickly restores the tone, is absolutely harmless and decidedly pleasant to take. Clip this article and take it to your druggist. Tell him to give you a bottle of Colotone—the colon tonic. It will cost you one dollar if you are pleased with it, nothing if you are not pleased with it. For your druggist has been instructed to refund the price and no questions if his customer is not thoroughly satisfied.

But you will be delighted with Colotone for it will make you feel like a different person. Your eyes will sparkle with vitality and alertness; your brain will be clear and active; your complexion will be fresh and transparent, reflecting the purity of your blood; your digestion will be thorough and your appetite keen; your food will taste delightful and will agree with you; you will sleep and awake refreshed; your system will be full of vim and vigor; you will feel younger, stronger, vigorous—you will enjoy the pleasure of living.

Nearly every person over twenty-five or thirty years of age, and many younger, need Colotone more or less. You will be simply delighted with it. Colotone cannot possibly do you any harm—it can only do you good. Try it on our guarantee. It will help you live long, well and happily—(adv.)

OPPORTUNITY

is knocking at your door, and it is your fault if you don't grasp it without delay. Bible reading must be revived—let's do our part. Here's your chance to help.

The Atlanta Constitution's Offer

For the benefit of our readers, along with other newspapers in the principal cities, two styles of Bibles are being offered—the famous Red Letter Bible illustrated below, and style B, which is not quite so elaborate. Clip your coupons and take your choice.

Only 3 Coupons
and 98c

entitles you to a copy of the beautiful, limp-bound volume—Style B

Coupon Printed
Daily in Another Column

while this offer lasts

Edgerton's Medicated
Salt Brick is 100% pure, and is NOT BAKED. All the ingredients originally put in, always remain.
It is the cheapest and most economical method to fat-

ten your live stock and keep it healthy.
Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick will immediately relieve you of the grief, annoyance, time and expense of constantly doctoring your live stock.

ASK THE DEMONSTRATOR TO EXPLAIN

Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick is 100% pure, and is NOT BAKED. All the ingredients originally put in, always remain. It is the cheapest and most economical method to fatten your live stock and keep it healthy. Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick will immediately relieve you of the grief, annoyance, time and expense of constantly doctoring your live stock.

Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick is 100% pure, and is NOT BAKED. All the ingredients originally put in, always remain. It is the cheapest and most economical method to fatten your live stock and keep it healthy. Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick will immediately relieve you of the grief, annoyance, time and expense of constantly doctoring your live stock.

Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick is 100% pure, and is NOT BAKED. All the ingredients originally put in, always remain. It is the cheapest and most economical method to fatten your live stock and keep it healthy. Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick will immediately relieve you of the grief, annoyance, time and expense of constantly doctoring your live stock.

Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick is 100% pure, and is NOT BAKED. All the ingredients originally put in, always remain. It is the cheapest and most economical method to fatten your live stock and keep it healthy. Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick will immediately relieve you of the grief, annoyance, time and expense of constantly doctoring your live stock.

Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick is 100% pure, and is NOT BAKED. All the ingredients originally put in, always remain. It is the cheapest and most economical method to fatten your live stock and keep it healthy. Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick will immediately relieve you of the grief, annoyance, time and expense of constantly doctoring your live stock.

Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick is 100% pure, and is NOT BAKED. All the ingredients originally put in, always remain. It is the cheapest and most economical method to fatten your live stock and keep it healthy. Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick will immediately relieve you of the grief, annoyance, time and expense of constantly doctoring your live stock.

Edgerton's Medicated Salt Brick is 100% pure, and is NOT BAKED. All the ingredients originally put in, always remain. It is the cheapest

AMUSEMENTS

THEATERS : MOVIES

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

Atlanta Theater—Today, Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Lyric Theater—Today, The Forsyth Play in "Pot Luck."

Loew's Grand—(Vaudeville and pictures) See advertising for program.

Keith's Forsyth—(Keith vaudeville) See advertising for program.

Howard Theater—Today, Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry?" and other screen features.

LEE HIGHWAY IS NEAR COMPLETION

Washington, October 12.—The Lee Highway will be a completely modernized trans-continental road within 15 months, according to Dr. S. M. Johnson, general director of the Lee Highway association. Dr. Johnson returned today from a tour of Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee, during which he negotiated for the completion of unfinished links of the highway in those states.

Fifty-three per cent of the road is hard-surfaced already, he reported, thirty per cent is gravel or macadam, and seven per cent is good dirt roads over the level stretches of the south-west. Only ten per cent of the highway remains unimproved, he said.

Girls' High Bids Given Approval By Council Body

Approval of the Girls' High school bids by the federal council of churches, caused postponement of the prosecutor's plan to summon important witnesses today. He has appeared at the hearing of the federal council of churches, which is a prominent figure in the state, will probably be called to testify.

The appearance of Mr. Goodrich before the grand jury has been expected since the opening of the investigation of the federal council of churches. The hearing on the petition of three Fort Wayne banks asking that the government be declared bankrupt will be transferred to Indianapolis.

DARING BANDITS ATTACK AUTOIST THEN TAKE CAR

A watch, an automobile and $40 were the loot bands obtained from a 30-year-old salesman of 513 Lee street, early Friday morning. Schwartz was found by Officer Caldwell in a vacant lot about 2 o'clock Friday morning. He was in a dazed condition and was taken to Grady hospital for treatment.

Schwartz said that he was coming from the fair late Thursday night and that two men asked him for a ride. They conversed about the fair and attractions, and as they became better acquainted one of the men asked him to have a drink.

The next thing he knew, he says, was that he was being hit with some blunt instrument. He suffered serious cuts over the left eye. He believes the liquor was drugged.

CHANGE IN NAME OF EDGEWOOD AVE. URGED BY KNIGHT

Councilman C. D. Knight proposed to the streets committee of council Friday that the name of Edgewood avenue be changed to Inman Park drive. He said that people residing on Edgewood avenue are confused by giving Edgewood avenue an address. A similar change was made several years ago on Decatur street, when it was changed to Inman Park drive.

The Atlanta street council was given permission to stencil warning signs on sidewalks at dangerous crossings to prevent pedestrians from blocking traffic or risking injury by jaywalking.

INMAN IS LAUDED AT CORNERSTONE LAYING EXERCISE

Ringling tribute to Samuel M. Inman by John A. Hynds marked the laying of the cornerstone of the new Inman school Friday afternoon. Members of the Inman family were present during the exercises, but Edward Inman was absent to preside over the session of the schools committee of council. Frank Inman, chairman of the schools committee of the board of education, was one of the speakers. Joe P. Boyd, grand master of Georgia Masons, conducted the Masonic rites.

WEEK STARTING MONDAY, OCTOBER 15

THE SELWYN'S PRESENT

THE GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK SAID "THE GREATEST FORCE FOR GOOD IN THE STATE IS"

PRICES: NIGHTS, 50c to $2.50. POPULAR MATINEES BOTH WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY 50c to $1.50.

SEATS NOW ON SALE

Southeastern Labor Day Saturday--Labor Day

This afternoon, beginning at 1 o'clock, the fastest auto races ever seen in the south will be staged. Sig Haugdahl, world's speed king, with the car in which he made three miles in one minute, will lower all dirt track records. Other fast drivers will also appear.

Eight Startling Hippodrome Acts

Fireworks. Johnny Jones Exposition. Mammoth Tractor Exhibition. Big Auto Show. Band Concerts. Greatest Exhibition of Cattle and Swine Ever Seen in the South

AGRICULTURAL-INDUSTRIAL-EDUCATIONAL

Fair Closes Tonight at Midnight

Regalia of Klan Is Threat, Jury Holds in Verdict

Amarillo, Texas, October 12.—T. W. Stanford, alleged Ku Klux Klan member, was found guilty in district court of a charge of whitecapping in connection with the recent flogging of E. T. McDonald held and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Defense counsel immediately filed a motion for a new trial.

The state charged that Stanford was the leader of the band of masked men who ordered McDonald to leave Amarillo before flogging him.

The verdict of guilty was rendered on the third count of the indictment against Stanford, the jury reported. This count involved the wearing of alleged Ku Klux Klan robes by the men, which the jury held constituted a threat within itself. The men wore Klan robes on the night they ordered him to leave the city, McDonald testified.

WORLD COURT WEEK CALLED BY CHURCHES

Washington, October 12.—The commission on international justice and good-will of the Federal Council of Churches, has issued a call to the churches of the country to observe a week of international justice, from November 5 to Armistice day, as World Court week, in the interest of United States participation in the permanent court of international justice.

The plan for a national campaign of education and discussion of the question, the federal council said in its announcement today, has been endorsed by religious and educational institutions throughout the country. In addition to an appeal for wide discussion of the issue by civic and commercial organizations throughout the week, all clergymen of America's international responsibility and opportunity on world court Sunday, the last day of the service.

SEED HOUSES RAZED BY BENEVOLENCE FIRE

Benevolence, Ga., October 12.—(Special)—Fire of unknown origin last night destroyed several buildings here. The buildings burned were: E. G. Perryman, ginners, loss $5,000; Keefe seed house, two halves of cotton and three or four tons of seed, no insurance; L. A. Ware, loss of four tons of seed, no insurance; W. Perkins lost three tons seed, no insurance; J. W. Keen seed house and eight tons peanuts, partly covered by insurance.

Wrong Name Given In Picture Group Of Pretty Babies

Through error on the part of the committee in charge of the Southeastern fair baby show, it was stated in The Constitution Friday morning that the picture of Laura Frances Lanier, of 533 Kenneway avenue, was that of Viola Shotley. Little Miss Lanier is one of the most attractive children entered in the baby show, her picture in The Constitution being through the error of the committee for her beauty and charm.

All of the pictures appearing in Friday morning's Constitution were made by Thurston Hatcher, well-known local photographer. Mr. Hatcher made all the pictures in both the baby show and the contest to choose "Miss Atlanta Fair."

MISSING SALESMAN VICTIM OF AMNESIA

Los Angeles, October 12.—G. H. Metz, 24-year-old salesman for the Pacific Lamp, Brass and Glass company, who disappeared from Denver, Col., September 11, leaving his will and saying he was going on a dangerous mission, has been found here by his mother, Mrs. G. W. Keller, of New York.

Mrs. Keller said her son seemed to have lost his memory entirely because of overwork and worry. Police departments throughout the country had been asked to look for Metz, and Mr. Keller found him through the Los Angeles department. He will remain with friends here for a time, the mother said.

THREE ARE CONVICTED OF WATCHMAN MURDER

Baltimore, Md., October 12.—Thomas Costello, William Murphy and James Murray were today convicted of first-degree murder by a jury in criminal court for the slaying of John B. Jones, aged watchman at the Salton Army barracks here June 9.

The jury appended to its verdict a provision against capital punishment, leaving life imprisonment the only alternative. They will be sentenced Monday.

Jones was beaten to death with a piece of pipe, the jury was told, and his body was found in a ditch, secured about $12.

WOMAN AND DAUGHTER DIE AS HOME BURNS

Cleveland, Ohio, October 12.—Mrs. Anna Sukenik and her 4-year-old daughter, Ruth, are dead, and James Sukenik, husband of the late Mrs. Suken

Treasure and Trouble Therewith

BY GERALDINE BANNER.

Next Week "The Daughter of Helen Kent."
BY SARAH COMSTOCK.

Continued from Yesterday

The hall was fog-thick with powder, mortar, and careening like a ship in a gale. White figures were all about; some ran, some stood in doorways and all were silent. Pancha was ahead of him, a shape that he could just discern. A length of ceiling fell between them. The floor sagged and cracked, he could feel it going, and with a screaming leap he threw himself at the balustrade, caught and clung. From above he heard a cry, "Up, up, not down!" had a vision of Pancha on the second flight, flying upward, and himself plunged downward. The balustrade broke and swung loose, the stairs dropped, humped, again, and gave, sinking amid an onrush of walls, of splintered beams, of ceilings suddenly gaping and discharging their weight in a shower of plaster, suddenly boards and furniture. Something struck him and he fell to his knees, struggling against a smothering mass, then sunk, welcomed in the crumbling collapse.

CHAPTER XI.

Pancha, at the stair top, lurching from wall to wall, felt a sickening, a sinking, and, then, a sudden, a frenzied movement settle into a long, rocking swing. A pallor of light showed through the dust rack, and making her way to it she found a window wide to the rising day. She thought she was on the third story, then heard voices, and saw a man's face almost on a level with her own. She did not understand, did not ask to, wanted to get out and be under the safe roof of the street. She crossed the sill, she found her feet on grass, heard someone shout, and was pulled to her feet by two men. She turned and looked back. The Vallejo, slanting in a drunken sprawl, its roof railing hanging from one corner, its cornice here and there, had sunk to one story. It had buckled and gone down, the first and second stories crumpling like a closed accordion, the top floor dislodged and wrecked, resting on its ruins.

Aunt Ellen always maintained the first shock threw her out of bed, and then she would amend the statement with a qualifying, "At any rate I was on the floor when Lorry came and I never knew how I got there. Lorry threw a wrapper about her and ran with her along the hall and down the stairs. They came to a stand by the front gate, were aware of the frantic leaps of the earth subsiding into a long, rhythmic roll, and stood dumbly.

The appearance of Fong, coming down the steps carrying an armchair, roused them. He had tucked Aunt Ellen into the chair, and an elderlain covered. He and Lorry wrapped Aunt Ellen in the cloak and disposing her in the chair tucked the coverlet round her knees. From the first clear moment after the shock Lorry thought had gone to Christie. As she had tucked Aunt Ellen into the chair, she had been thinking what she could do and the best her shaken brain had to offer was a series of telephone messages to those friends where Christie might have gone. She went back into the kitchen, tottering, and found that there was no relief to be found at the phone—a dead stillness. "It's broken," she said to herself. Out on the lawn she paused a moment beside Aunt Ellen.

"Something's the matter with the wires. I'm going to the drugstore on Sutter St."

The man in the doorway of his wrecked drugstore laughed scornfully at her request to use the telephone. All the wires were broken—you couldn't telephone any more than you could fly. Everything was out of commission. You couldn't telegraph, you couldn't get a message carried—except by hand—not if you were the President of the country. Even the car lines were stopped, not a spark of power. The whole machinery of the city was at a standstill. "Like the clock there," he said, and pointed to the face of the timepiece hanging shattered from the wall, its hands mangled a quarter to five.

Then Lorry started on a hunt for Christie. Her first point of call was Crowley's livery stable where she asked for a carriage. Every vehicle in the place was already gone—rich customers had grabbed them all, some coming right in and taking them, others bought them outright. She started to walk. She went to every house in that part of the city where Christie had friends, and in none of them found trace or word of her sister. As she moved her ears were greeted with a growing narrative of disaster. There had been great loss of life in the poorer sections. The mains had been torn to pieces, there was no water in San Francisco, and fire, with a strong wind behind it was sweeping across the Mission.

Smothered with fatigue she reached Mrs. Kirkham's flat. It was dark when Mrs. Kirkham let her go, claiming a promise to bring Aunt Ellen here, as they couldn't stay in the Pine street house. Only an hour earlier her nephew had been up to say that the fire had crossed Market St. No one knew now where to stop.

With the coming of dark the size of the conflagration was apparent. As Lorry came toward her home, she felt its heat, dry and baking on her face. Through the trees she could see the lawn, lighted up as if by fireworks, and then the chairs—empty—the elderlain lying crumpled on the grass. She sent a searching glance up toward the windows, all shattered, the glass gone from the sashes. Were they in there?

Like a shadow she mounted the steps and stole in the front door, yawning on darkness. The stillness of complete desolation and abandonment met her ears. She stood motionless, looking down the hall's shattered length and up the stairs. A creak of plaster fell with a dry thud. It roused her and she went into the drawing-room. The long windows lay in the glare. She summoned her energies to call, then stood—the sound unuttered—listening a step, heavier than a woman's and was coming down the stairs. She stood suddenly stricken to a waiting tension. The steps gained the hall and came toward the doorway. Her hands, clasped, went out toward them like hands extended in prayer, her eyes riveted on the opening. Through it—for a moment pausing on the sill to sweep the rooms' length—came Mark Burge.

He did not see her, made a step forward and then heard her whisper, no word, only a formless breath, the shadow of a sound.

"Lorry!" he cried as she had cried the night before, and stood staring this way and that, feeling her presence, knowing her near.

Then he saw her, coming out of the darkness with her outstretched hands, not clasped now, but extended the arms spread wide to him as he had dreamed of some day seeing them.

A few minutes after the Vallejo hotel had sunk into ruin, a man came running up the street. Even among those shaken from the normal demeanor by an abnormal event, he was noticeable; for he was wild, a creature dominated by a frenzied fear. They would have held him, a desperate thing, clawing and tearing his way through the crowd, but that suddenly, with a strangled cry, he came to a stop.

Over the shoulders of a group of men he saw a girl's head, and his about of "Pancha" made them fall back. He gathered her in his arms, strained her against him, in the emotion of that supreme moment lifting his face to the sky. It was a face that those who saw it never forgot.

A man had thrown his coat about her, and Garland pulled it over her head, looking down, saw her feet, bare and scratched. The sight of them brought him down to the moment, and her place in it.

"Come on," he said. "Let's get out of this. You want to get something to eat, don't you?"

"I don't know," she answered. "I've only just got here. Why?"

"Because it looks to me as if there was someone in one of the rooms—someone on the floor."

The stable door gave with a wrench and swung open. Garland jerked it wife and stepped back to where to command the man in the window.

"What's that about someone in the hotel?" he said.

The young man leaned over the sill. "I can see from here right into one of those rooms, and I'm pretty sure there's a person lying on the floor—dead, maybe."

"Where are we going?" she panted.

"Right round here—the place where I was staying. There's a wicker woman keeps it, Mrs. Meeker. She got a horse and cart that'll get you out of this."

They went to the stable and she followed him to the back yard. Here stood Mrs. Meeker, a hatched in her hand, trying to pry the horse out of the stable.

Her glance caught Pancha, her nightgown showing below the man's overcoat.

"Who's she?" she asked.

"My daughter. She lives right round here. I run for her as soon as I feel the first quake. You got to take her along in the car, and will you give her some clothes?"

"Sure," said Mrs. Meeker. "Upstairs in my room. Anything you want, just ask me. I'll get it for you."

He moved to her assistance. "I'm going to get out of here—go uptown to my cousin's. But I wouldn't leave Pancha if the whole city was down in the dust."

Prince was Mrs. Meeker's horse, which, hearing its name, whinnied plaintively from the stable. Pancha disappeared into the house, and the man and woman attacked the door with the hatchet and a poker. As they worked she panted out:

"Did you know the back wall's out of that new house? I saw it go from my room—just a smash and a cloud of dust."

A soldier appeared, sweeping the yard with a glance of sharp command.

"Say, what are you fooling round that stable for?"

"I'm getting a horse out—my horse," said Mrs. Meeker.

"Well, you want to be quick about it. You got to clear out of here."

"What are you putting us out for?"

"Fire. You don't want to lose any time. We've orders to get the people on the move. I just been in that hotel next door and rooted out the last of 'em. Get lost and get out."

He turned and walked off, meeting Pancha as she came from the house. A skirt and blouse of Mrs. Meeker's hung loose on her.

"A lot of that big building's down," she cried, as she ran up. "I could see it from the window."

Engrossed in their task, neither answered her and she moved round the corner of the stable to see the debris of the fallen wall. Standing thus, a voice dropped to her from a window

"What's that?" she asked.

"My daughter. She lives right round here. I run for her as soon as I feel the first quake. You got to take her along in the car, and will you give her some clothes?"

"Sure," said Mrs. Meeker. "Upstairs in my room. Anything you want, just ask me. I'll get it for you."

He moved to her assistance. "I'm going to get out of here—go uptown to my cousin's. But I wouldn't leave Pancha if the whole city was down in the dust."

Prince was Mrs. Meeker's horse, which, hearing its name, whinnied plaintively from the stable. Pancha disappeared into the house, and the man and woman attacked the door with the hatchet and a poker. As they worked she panted out:

"Did you know the back wall's out of that new house? I saw it go from my room—just a smash and a cloud of dust."

A soldier appeared, sweeping the yard with a glance of sharp command.

"Say, what are you fooling round that stable for?"

"I'm getting a horse out—my horse," said Mrs. Meeker.

"Well, you want to be quick about it. You got to clear out of here."

"What are you putting us out for?"

"Fire. You don't want to lose any time. We've orders to get the people on the move. I just been in that hotel next door and rooted out the last of 'em. Get lost and get out."

He turned and walked off, meeting Pancha as she came from the house. A skirt and blouse of Mrs. Meeker's hung loose on her.

"A lot of that big building's down," she cried, as she ran up. "I could see it from the window."

Engrossed in their task, neither answered her and she moved round the corner of the stable to see the debris of the fallen wall. Standing thus, a voice dropped to her from a window

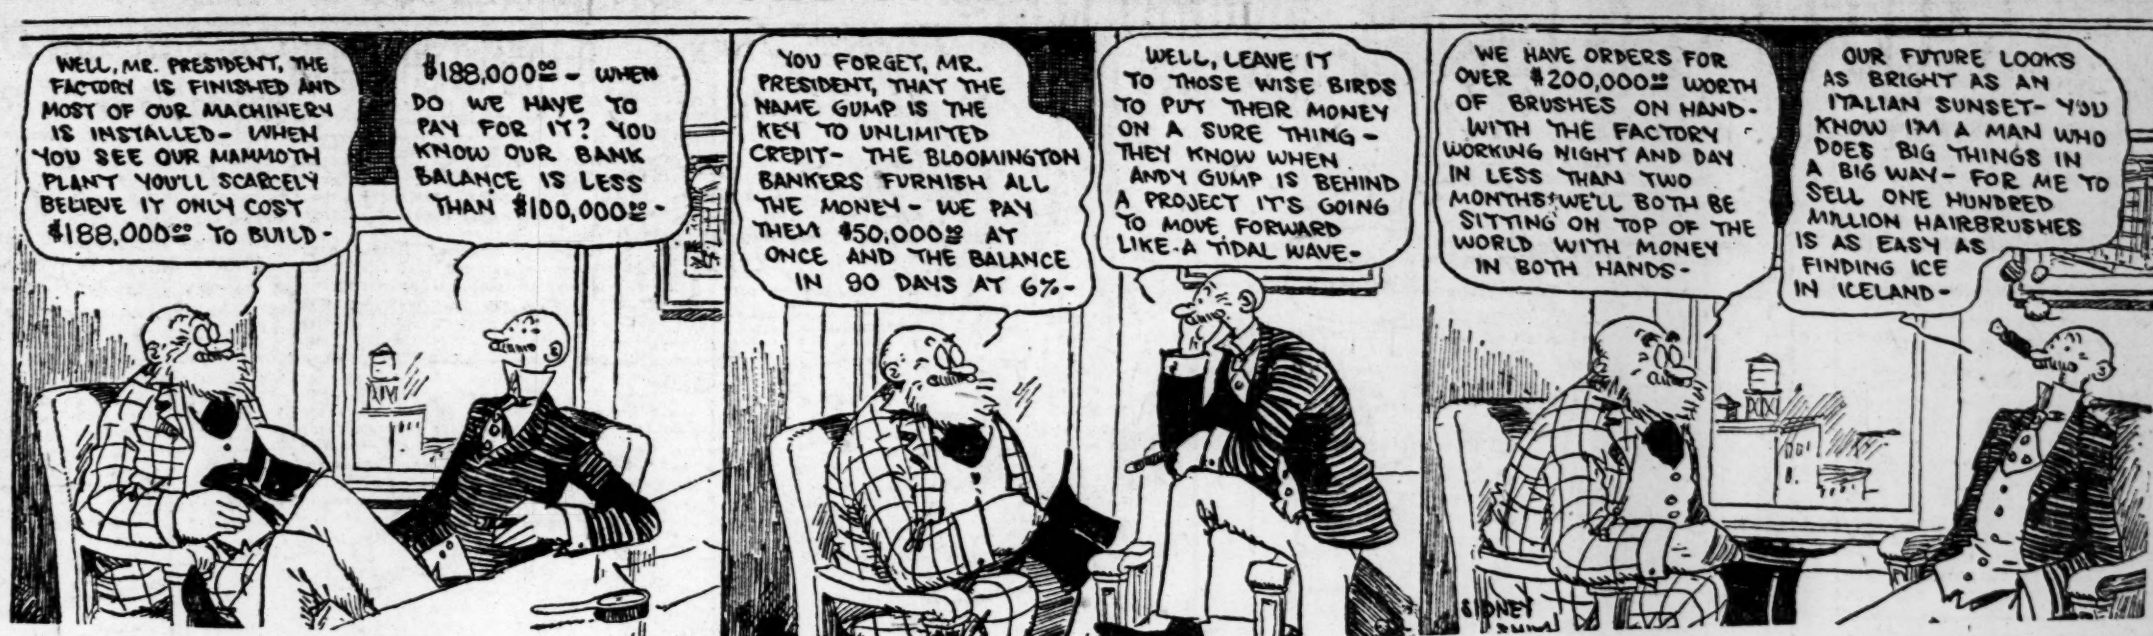

"What's that?" she asked.

"My daughter. She lives right round here. I run for her as soon as I feel the first quake. You got to take her along in the car, and will you give her some clothes?"

"Sure," said Mrs. Meeker. "Upstairs in my room. Anything you want, just ask me. I'll get it for you."

He moved to her assistance. "I'm going to get out of here—go uptown to my cousin's. But I wouldn't leave Pancha if the whole city was down in the dust."

THE GUMPS—EASY MONEY

in the house that rose beyond Mrs. Meeker's back fence.

"Do you know if all the people are out of that hotel?"

She looked up; standing in a third story window was a young man in his shirt sleeves.

"I don't know," he answered. "I've only just got here. Why?"

"Because it looks to me as if there was someone in one of the rooms—someone on the floor."

The stable door gave with a wrench and swung open. Garland jerked it wife and stepped back to where to command the man in the window.

"What's that about someone in the hotel?" he said.

The young man leaned over the sill. "I can see from here right into one of those rooms, and I'm pretty sure there's a person lying on the floor—dead, maybe."

"Where are we going?" she panted.

"Right round here—the place where I was staying. There's a wicker woman keeps it, Mrs. Meeker. She got a horse and cart that'll get you out of this."

They went to the stable and she followed him to the back yard. Here stood Mrs. Meeker, a hatchet in her hand, trying to pry the horse out of the stable.

Her glance caught Pancha, her nightgown showing below the man's overcoat.

"Who's she?" she asked.

"My daughter. She lives right round here. I run for her as soon as I feel the first quake. You got to take her along in the car, and will you give her some clothes?"

"Sure," said Mrs. Meeker. "Upstairs in my room. Anything you want, just ask me. I'll get it for you."

He moved to her assistance. "I'm going to get out of here—go uptown to my cousin's. But I wouldn't leave Pancha if the whole city was down in the dust."

Prince was Mrs. Meeker's horse, which, hearing its name, whinnied plaintively from the stable. Pancha disappeared into the house, and the man and woman attacked the door with the hatchet and a poker. As they worked she panted out:

"Did you know the back wall's out of that new house? I saw it go from my room—just a smash and a cloud of dust."

A soldier appeared, sweeping the yard with a glance of sharp command.

"Say, what are you fooling round that stable for?"

"I'm getting a horse out—my horse," said Mrs. Meeker.

"Well, you want to be quick about it. You got to clear out of here."

"What are you putting us out for?"

"Fire. You don't want to lose any time. We've orders to get the people on the move. I just been in that hotel next door and rooted out the last of 'em. Get lost and get out."

He turned and walked off, meeting Pancha as she came from the house. A skirt and blouse of Mrs. Meeker's hung loose on her.

"A lot of that big building's down," she cried, as she ran up. "I could see it from the window."

Engrossed in their task, neither answered her and she moved round the corner of the stable to see the debris of the fallen wall. Standing thus, a voice dropped to her from a window

"What's that?" she asked.

"My daughter. She lives right round here. I run for her as soon as I feel the first quake. You got to take her along in the car, and will you give her some clothes?"

"Sure," said Mrs. Meeker. "Upstairs in my room. Anything you want, just ask me. I'll get it for you."

He moved to her assistance. "I'm going to get out of here—go uptown to my cousin's. But I wouldn't leave Pancha if the whole city was down in the dust."

Prince was Mrs. Meeker's horse, which, hearing its name, whinnied plaintively from the stable. Pancha disappeared into the house, and the man and woman attacked the door with the hatchet and a poker. As they worked she panted out:

"Did you know the back wall's out of that new house? I saw it go from my room—just a smash and a cloud of dust."

A soldier appeared, sweeping the yard with a glance of sharp command.

"Say, what are you fooling round that stable for?"

"I'm getting a horse out—my horse," said Mrs. Meeker.

"Well, you want to be quick about it. You got to clear out of here."

"What are you putting us out for?"

"Fire. You don't want to lose any time. We've orders to get the people on the move. I just been in that hotel next door and rooted out the last of 'em. Get lost and get out."

He turned and walked off, meeting Pancha as she came from the house. A skirt and blouse of Mrs. Meeker's hung loose on her.

"A lot of that big building's down," she cried, as she ran up. "I could see it from the window."

Engrossed in their task, neither answered her and she moved round the corner of the stable to see the debris of the fallen wall. Standing thus, a voice dropped to her from a window

"What's that?" she asked.

"My daughter. She lives right round here. I run for her as soon as I feel the first quake. You got to take her along in the car, and will you give her some clothes?"

"Sure," said Mrs. Meeker. "Upstairs in my room. Anything you want, just ask me. I'll get it for you."

Garland turned to Mrs. Meeker:

"You get out Prince and put him in the cart."

Then to the man in the window: "I'll go in and see. A soldier's just been here who says they've cleaned the place out. There's a mangle somebody hurt that they ain't seen."

"Hold on a minute and I'll go with you," called the other. "I'm a doctor and I might come in handy. I'll be there in a jiffy."

He vanished from the window, and before Prince was backed into the shafts, walked up the carriage driveway, clad, cool and alert, his doctor's bag in his hand. He and Garland made off as Pancha and Mrs. Meeker set to work on the harnessing of Prince.

The soldiers had done their work. The hotel was empty. The rear was flooded with light, streaming in where the wall had been and through open doors they saw the houses opposite.

The bedroom that was their goal looked as untenanted as a tomb. Anyone glancing over its blurred run, no voice responding to a summons, might have missed the figure that lay concealed by the bed and partly enveloped in its coverings.

The doctor, kneeling beside it, sweat away the litter of glass and metal that had evidently fallen from the ceiling and struck the woman down. She was lying on her face, one hand still gripping the clothes, a pink wrapper twisted about her, the blonde hair stained with the ooze of her pulse and heart.

"Is she dead?" Garland asked.

"No," he snapped his bag open with businesslike briskness. "Concussion."

"Can you do anything for her?"

"Not much. Rest and quiet is what she ought to have, and I don't see how she's going to get it the way things are now."

"We got a cart. We can take her along with us."

"Good work. I'll fix her up as well as I can and turn her over to you."

His task done, they carried her down the stairs on a mattress and out into the street. Prince and the cart were ready. The body of the cart was clear, and the men placed the mattress there.

"Get up there, Mrs. Meeker," Garland commanded. "On the front seat. You drive and Pancha and I'll walk alongside."

The woman climbed up. The doctor, turning to go, gave his last order: "Try and get her out of this—up town—where there's air and room. Keep her as quiet as you can. You'll run up against doctors who'll help. They moved out and joined the vast procession of a city in exodus.

For months afterward Pancha dreamed of the day—woke at night to a sense of toiling, onward effort, a struggling, slow progress, accomplished amid a sea of faces all turned one way. The dream vision was not more prodigiously improbable than the waking fact—life, comfortable and secure, suddenly stripped of its garnishings, cut down to a single obscuring issue narrowed to the point where the mind held but one desire—to be safe.

Before the advancing wall of flame the Mission was pouring out, retreating like an army in defeat. Every avenue was clogged with the moving multitude, small streets emptying into larger ones, houses ejecting their inmates. At each corner the tide was swollen by new streams, rolling into the wide current, swaying to adjustment, then pressing on. Looking forward, Pancha could see the ranks clear to the limit of her vision; looking back, the fences, smoke-blackened, sweat-streaked, marked with fierce tension, with fear, with dogged endurance, with cool courage, with blank incomprehension. The hot breath of the fire swept about them, the sound of its triumphant march was in their ears, a backward glance showed its first high flame crests. Soldiers drove them on, shouted at them, thrust stunted figures in amongst them, pushed others, dazedly covering in their homes, out through doors and ground-floor windows. At intervals the earth stirred and heaved, and then with a simultaneous cry, rising in one long wall of terror, they jammed together in the middle of the street, so close packed a man could have walked on their heads.

Continued Tomorrow.

SOMEBODY'S STENOGRAPHER—Let the Boss Rave

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER Mrs. Mulligan's Irish Is Up

The Absent-Minded Professor

Well—After All It's the Point of View

By Briggs

I'LL GET YOU IF IT'S THE LAST ACT OF MY LIFE

'SMATTER HENRY?? WHAT'VE I DONE I'D LIKE TO KNOW

YES! SOMEBODY STOLE IT.

WHAT KIND OF UMBRELLA WAS IT?

WHATTA YOU MEAN?

DID IT HAVE A HOOKED HANDLE?

WHY, THE WHOLE UMBRELLA WAS HOOKED.

TRUE! ONE REEL.

DID MY UMBRELLA TURN UP YET?

No.

STRANGE. I LEFT IT HERE.

IN THIS RESTAURANT

By

JUST NUTS

JACKIE, DID YOUR FATHER FALL THAT TIME I HEARD THE STEEL LADDER TUMBLE?

NOT YET MA, HE'S STILL HANGING ON THE PICTURE LADDER MOULDING

By

By

By

By

By

By

By

By

By

By

By

By

By

By

PAL!
NO NO!
TANNY AW

Advertisements not paid in advance will be charged for the actual number of lines occupied, regardless of the number of words. Charge ads will not be estimated. Part of a line will be charged same as a full line.

No advertisement accepted for less than two lines.

Accounts opened for ads (excepting those classifications that are cash with order) by telephone to accommodate you if your name is in the telephone directory. Want ads taken by telephone are to be paid for immediately upon application, bill to be presented by mail or solicitor the same day.

HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS
FURNISHED

ATTRACTIVE bkp. rooms, adj. bath, b. w/ice, comfortable, walking dist. to bus line. $100.00. Call 221-1111.

125 E. NORTH AVE., light bungalow; rooms; all conveniences; good location. Call 221-1111.

FURNISHED rooms, 15 minutes' walk to town. H.E. 2217, or 9 E. North Ave. 221-1111.

LARGE clean room, with or without aette, 290 Rowan St., H.E. 4200.

FIRST class room, kitchen, good location, private family. 823 Courtland S. 221-1111.

ROOM, kitchenette, bed of Pines; 1000 E. Central, 221-1111.

stairs, heat, sink. 30 Merritt. 1. 1658.

FARM LANDS

TO RENT—Nice dairy farm of 100 ac. near Atlanta. Horton Bros.

OFFICE SPACE

OFFICES—Single and ea. suite. Call 221-1111.

Bldg. Candler Annex, Forsyth Bldg. 221-1111.

Big Phone Walnut 3070. See Mr. W.

son Mr. Clegg

LARGE offices available in Brown Bldg.
Apply Room 10 or 17V 7800.

STORES

43 TRINITY ave. Ideal location for sale, retail or light manufacturing. A 3603.

STORE-138 Walnut St. and store hardware. 1000 N. E. Alabama
Geo. W. Schipka. Whitehall 3230 or 3250

BUSINESS SPACE

FOR RENT-Butcher shop with ice and tools. 1-23 S. Mitchell St..

HOUSES—UNFURNISHED

515 HIGHLAND AVE.—Six-room bungalow in excellent condition and almost immediate possession. $95 per month.

NEAL-LENHARDT COMPANY
WALTON

WE have for sale apartments of 4 rooms, each one of the best apartment near the Georgian Terrace hotel. Phone Du all conveniences. Phone Du Wainut 2723.

SOME new brick bungalows with Arcola side drive, garage, concrete, no fricture in $85, but they're worth more 1945-5.

170 RANKIN PLACE—Four rooms, $55
all conveniences. Phone Du 2166.
no fric-
ture in door, or Main 2166.

JUNIPER ST., 6-room house, kitchen servant room. Non-Lehndark Co. 1001

125 INMAN PARK—Lake Ave., 6
bathrooms, 2 roomies. Phone Du Wainut 2723.

16 BREWER ST., 8 families, 2 bathrooms, garage. Main 2501.

NEW 6-room bungalow for rent; all conveniences. Owner, Carroll, W. 101.

LOG CABIN, East Lake, modern, $100,
so. & Holmes Ave. Main 2514.

HOUSES—FURNISHED

BLUNDER CORRECTED

(See Illustration on page 1)

It is annoying to other players a card game to have one of players express his enthusiasm for the "run of the cards" and the "trumps" of the cards.

exaggerated movements when throwing a card down with an patient slip, or with force.
(Copyright, 1923, Associated Editors)

BUSINESS CARDS

-ANY SERVICE

ing the particular service or article of them and get many suggestions ferences that you are now doing with rurred to you that the services of

LY FEATURE ✱

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED AND PAIRED.
NY. exports. Keys made. Prompt
Gr. Gm & Key. U.S. F.O.B. 1/2
JUMPER
GOVERNMENT Used Lumber. 74
wood Vlnoduct Uv 3062.
MACHINISTS
CHRELENA-MOORE MFG. CO.
SPECIALISTS in die work and scientific strum & repair. 1000 1/2
MATTRESS RENOVATORS AND M
FACTURERS
ACME REDDING CO.
ASK ANY FURNITURE DEALER
WEST 2450 609 WESTERN MATTRESS RENOVATORS & MAN
GATE CITY MATTRESS CO. 404 D
St. Irv 6878.
MATTRESS RENOVATING
EMPIRE MATTRESS COMPANY
Washington St. Main 0113.

CALL. SHIRLEY MATTHEWS CO. for grade matresses, reupholstering
QUICK service, custom prices
Matthens Co. 10 Tanager St. IVy 1-250

O
OSTEOPATH.
Dr. Sam Bradshaw, 605 Gould bldg.
5898. DFC. 2-2222

OLD HATS MADE NEW.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Mail order. Phone 2-2222

ACME HUNTER 50 E. Hunter St.

P
PIMBLING, HEATING & REPAIR STANDARD PLUMBING AND HEATING CO., Inc.,
GRAY BLVD. 439

119. PAINTS AND ROOFING MATERIALS
WE APPLY ROOFERS
WARE PAINT CO. 228 Madison IVy 1-shell

R
ROOFING AND SHEET METAL
ACME HUNTER 50 E. Hunter St.

186 Whitehall St. Repair work. Main
$
SEEDS, PLANTS, POULTRY SUPPLIES
H. G. HASTINGS Co. Daily delivery
Box 121 2508 16 W. Mitchell
STORE FRONTS AND FIXTURES
THE STALLINGS SIXTH ST.
FACTORY SHOW ROOMS
STOVE AND FURNACE REPAIR
$100 REWARD for any stove or furnace that we can't repair but make new
new. D. L. Sore Co. Main 3184.
TREE DOCTOR.
DISEASES of trees, umbrellas, all trees, flowers, Dutch W. 1556.
U
UPHOLSTERING AND CHAIR CARE
BEAUTIFUL RECOVERING
Arnold Kontz 2007 7th Ave S
W
National Window and Home Interiors
11 Whitehall Bldg. Main 1511

PAGE TWENTY-ONE

Sunday afternoon. Preaching by the pastor. Bible lesson at 2 p. m., led by L. D. Burns.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

LIBERAL CHRISTIAN.

At Liberal Christian Church the minister will preach on "The Magnitude of the Cross," at 8 o'clock; J. C. Strain, Jr., will meet at a meeting of the Woman's union will be held at the same of the building on Tuesday.

Christian.

Capitol View—Rev. H. I. Hayes, pastor, will preach at 10 and 7:30 p. m.; Bible school at 9:30. Wm. A. Smith, pastor, will preach at 10 and 7:30 p. m.; Bible school at 9:30.

Baptist.

St. Luke's—Rev. S. L. Stiles, pastor, will preach morning and evening. Lutheran Churches.

METHODIST BAPTIST.

The pastor Dr. S. D. Davis will preach at 11 a. m. Subject, "Shoulder to Shoulder."

One Dead, Some Hurt
In An Auto Collision
Anter Wedding Party

Ridley Park, Philadelphia, Pa.

services at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Bible school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 6:45 p. m.

Rev. A. W. Whorion, pastor: services at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.; Bible school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 6:45 p. m.

Rev. C. E. Whorion, superintendent: East Point—Rev. W. C. Carter, pastor; services at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.; Bible school at 10:30 a. m. More, superintendent; services at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.; Bible school at 8:30 a. m.

Rev. A. Titmus, Rev. J. P. Lambert, pastor: services at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.; Bible school at 8:30 a. m. Andy Helm, superintendent; Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

Rev. A. H. Greenwell, pastor: services at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.; Bible school at 8:30 a. m.

Miss Marion Robertson, of the hospital here from injuries received in an automobile accident near here early in the year, is expected to leave for Greenville, Conn., was badly injured. Miss Robertson and Miss Thompson, who were with her, were taken to this place after having escorted a bridal party to Wilmington, Delaware.

With her mother, Mrs. Robertson, and with another, a number of others in the party were also injured.

FORSYTH PREPARES

FOR FAIR CANTONAL

Fourth, Ga. October 12.—(Snn.)—Cantonals.—Committees have been busy in the city of Canton, Ga., in connection with the coming of the Fourth Cantonals, which is to be held in conjunction with the Monroe Exposition, and the people of the State expect that the day will be one of the greatest that the county has ever known. A record-breaking attendance is expected.

Parade of floats will be a brilliant feature of the day.

GRACE LUTHERAN
At Grace Lutheran church, The "Parable of the Marriage Feast" will be the sermon for the 11 a. m. Sunday by the Rev. C. J. Johnson. School children will be admitted free.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST.
West End church, Rev. D. C. Goodpasture, will preach 11 a. m., 7 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., with preaching by Rev. H. E. Hooton at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Communion and fellowship at 11:45.

South Prey, Rev. W. Don Hockaday, minister, will preach at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. with preaching by the minister, Subject 11 a. m. "Christ as Self." Subject 7 p. m. "Christ as Self." Subject 3:30 p. m. "Christ as Self."

ne Churches

PRESBYTERIAN	PRESBYTERIAN *
L

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN
PEACHTREE AND SIXTEENTH STREETS

DR. J. SPROLE LYONS will preach at 11:00 A. M. and 8:00 P. M. Musical program under direction of Charles A. Sheldon, Jr., with quartette choir and organ solo.

Regular Sunday evening service at 8:00 o'clock, with short address by Dr. Lyons, choir and congregational singing of popular hymns.

PRYOR ST. PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
THE HOMELIKE CHURCH
Rev. J. G. Patton, Jr., Pastor.
11:00 A. M.—"Eldership."
7:30 P. M.—Evangelistic Service.

Election of four additional elders and other important matters at Congregational meeting following morning service.

R. T. BRUMBAUGH'S FAREWELL SERMON
SUNDAY NIGHT 7:45
HARRIS STREET PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
HARRIS AND SPRING STREETS

DRUID HILLS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
HIGHLAND AND BLUE RIDGE AVENUES.
DR. CHARLES CAMMILL, PASTOR.
Morning service at 11 o'clock. Evening service at 7:30.
The pastor will preach at both services.
Sunday school at 9:30. All departments.

LIBERAL CHRISTIAN LIBERAL CHRISTIAN

LIBERAL CHRISTIAN	LIBERAL CHRISTIAN
UNIVERSALIST-UNITARIAN	303 West Peachtree Street Ernest J. Bowden, B.D., School at 10: Service 11 o'clock "THE MANUSCRIPTS OF GOD."
CONGREGATIONAL	CONGREGATIONAL

Central Congregational Church
CARNEGIE WAY AT ELLIS STREET.
D. Witherspoon Dodge, D. D., Minister.
Church School at 9:45. Service of Worship at 11:00. Christian Engagement at 7:30.
Subject of Morning Sermon, "Winning a Soul."
Special Music, Duets, "Consider the Living." Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Bayley.
Solo, "The Good Shepherd." Mrs. Bayley.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
PEACHTREE AND FIFTEENTH STREETS.
SUNDAY AT 11. M. M. & S. S. - "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?"
SUNDAY SCHOOL AT 11 A. M. - Reading, evening meeting, circulating testimonials of Christian Science healing at 6 o'clock. Reading room open daily, except Sunday and legal holidays, 613 Grand Theater building, 9:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. Public cordially invited.

SECOND CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
GIBSON HALL, 9-50 N. W. - "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?"
SUNDAY, 11 A. M. AND 7:45 P. M. - "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?"
SUNDAY SCHOOL AT 11 A. M. - Reading, evening meeting, testimonials of Christian Science healing at 6 o'clock. Reading room open daily, except Sunday and holidays, 9:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. at 613 C. Commonly building. Public cordially invited.

Display of Pretty Gowns Feature of Castle Show

Great is the power of advertising. Last night, at the Auditorium, a crowd which filled that vast edifice very creditably, paid from $1.10 to $3.50 to see Irene Castle wear a series of elaborate evening gown creations, to watch her tango, fox trot, one-step, etc., with a dancing partner named William Reardon; to hear one of those jazz orchestras play in the manner in which jazz orchestras usually perform; to listen to the singing of a young lady billed as a "prima donna mezzo-soprano"; to witness the usual card tricks and hat-and-egg stunts of the type of conjurer who is billed as an "egghead"; and, saving grace of the evening, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Irene and her partner are excellent dancers. It is only rarely that performers as good as seen on a ball-room floor.

"Duke" Yellman has a creditable

SAVING GRACE OF THE EVENING, listen to one of those charming pianos of dear old Leo Beers, Irene, of course, is a graceful manikin. She wears her gowns and displays them attractively. A mere man is no competent judge of gowns. They looked striking creations. The lady who sits next to me said they were beautiful. But there weren't any uncontrollable signs of admiration. It wasn't that kind of a show.

Georgia Editors Urged to Boost State Products

"To build up Georgia is the best way to build up Atlanta," was the dominant note sounded at the dinner given the Georgia state editors by the chamber of commerce last night. The dinner, which was held at 6:30 o'clock, was attended by several hundred visiting editors, wives and daughters who were guests of the Southern Fair association. Friday. The gathering of state editors in Atlanta during fair week will make an annual event, it is announced.

As soon as the dinner was finished, President Alfred C. Newell, of the chamber of commerce, introduced Mayor W. A. Sims, of Atlanta, who welcomed the visitors and expressed the appreciation of the city in having them as guests.

Association Picnic.

The State Press association, was next called upon. He created a great deal of interest in announcing that for once the association was rich, a condition never known to exist before. The basis of this wealth, he said, was a gift to the Georgia Railway & Power Co., of a lease to last during the existence of the association of the Tallulah camp site. The speaker, who was J. A. Annenberg, of the Georgia Railway & Power Co., of a lease to last during the existence of the association of the Tallulah camp site. The speaker, who was J. A. Annenberg, of the Georgia Railway & Power Co., of a lease to last during the existence of the association of the Tallulah camp site.

As a conclusion to his address President Rountree stated that the mid-winter meeting of the association held at Cairo, Ga., on the second Friday and Saturday in February, 1924.

The talk of Mrs. Wesley Peacock upon "Suggestion" was the event of the evening. Prefacing her remarks that she was born in Missouri and had to be shown, she stated that she married a native born Georgian who returned to his native state on account of his love for it.

She then told of the damage done to the country by the log and the hen and to sound it in the ears of the people until the slogan becomes an actuality on every farm in the state. Then she will see Georgia in advertisements by grocery stores and not Tennessee eggs." She said.

Several impromptu speakers were called and the evening was concluded by a stirring talk by J. A. Holloman, of the Constitution, who spoke of the work of Henry Grady whose life stood for co-operation of every section of the country.

Several speakers stressed the beginning of mutual work and co-operation of editors, bankers, farmers and all classes in bringing about general prosperity in Georgia.

JACOBS PRAISED FOR FINDING BODY OF OGLETHORPE

Immediately following announcement from Cranham, England, that the bodies of General James Edward and Lady Oglethorpe had been exhumed and would be brought to the campus of Oglethorpe university for reinterment, scores of letters from all parts of the country were received by the school officials, congratulating the university, and especially Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, its president, upon the splendid achievement.

"I consider the accomplishment of Dr. Jacobs the greatest thing that has been done for the state of Georgia since it has been a commonwealth," said Lucian Lamar Knight, state historian, in a letter received Thursday by Edgar Watkins, president of the board of trustees of the university. "I do not hesitate to say that Oglethorpe was the most illustrious Englishman to cross the sea during the colonization period," he said. "He was greater than Penn, Raleigh, or Lord Baltimore."

In his letter, replete with historical data concerning the founding of the state, Dr. Knight pointed out the fact that only three states in America have been founded by individuals—Pennsylvania by William Penn, Maryland by Lord Baltimore, and Georgia by Oglethorpe—and that although both Pennsylvania and Maryland abound in memorials and monuments to their founders, the people of Georgia have never established a real monument to Oglethorpe's memory.

"With the reinterment of this great Anglo-American in the capital of the state and on the campus of the school established as a monument to his memory," said Dr. Knight, "Georgia will be the first state in the nation's history to have its founder enshrined within its borders."

"The splendid achievement of Dr. Jacobs, Oglethorpe's able president, will establish Atlanta as a point of historical interest in the south," said Dr. Clarence J. Overton, of Washington, D. C., president of the Southern Commercial congress, on Thursday. Dr. Overton, a former Georgian, is the chairman for the southern states of the Jefferson Memorial Foundation and his visit to Atlanta at this time was in his behalf.

UPSHAW DEFENDS
PASSAGE OF DRY
LAW BY CONGRESS

Sober leaders, political, social and commercial, hold the key to the situation in the night, most cordial that any nation has ever known, said Congressman William D. Upham, of New York, at a few days ago.

The Georgia representative replied in his speech to statements made by former Judge Stewart, of York, who in an address before the Rotary club of that city, had declared that the eighteenth amendment was unconstitutional.

In London and other English cities the congressmen had often met with the opinion that the eighteenth amendment was passed by unfair means, he told his audience. "But everybody knows," he declared, "that this amendment to the constitution was passed after two generations of consecrated education and agitation on the part of the 'dry' opposed on the other side by the most unscrupulous type of propaganda by the 'wet' crowd."

With all the legal ability which their blood-stained money could command the liquor crowd created every lack of the opinion that the eighteenth amendment was passed by unfair means, he told his audience. "But everybody knows," he declared, "that this amendment to the constitution was passed after two generations of consecrated education and agitation on the part of the 'dry' opposed on the other side by the most unscrupulous type of propaganda by the 'wet' crowd."

This charge on the part of this Pennsylvania judge was lacking in force as it was lacking in fact. I immediately wired to my secretary in Washington for the record and here is the answer: Washington, D. C., September 18, 1923. Hon. W. D. Upham:

"Check of house advice record vote was taken in house on first passage of Volstead act, only 121-120 record vote."

Truck Bodies

All kinds, built to order. Repairing, Painting and Lettering. Auto Wheels Tightened.

YANCEY BROS.

90 N. Jackson St. Iv 1383.

AMBULANCE CALLS IN CITY. $4.00

The